Śrīla Krishnadās Kavirāj prays, “First I offer my respects unto the lotus feet of my initiating spiritual masters and the recruiting spiritual masters and advanced Vaiṣṇavas. Next I offer my obeisances to my śāstra gurus, Śrīla Rūpa Goswāmī, his elder brother, Śrīla Sanātan Goswāmī, Śrīla Raghunāth dās Goswāmī, and Śrīla Jīva Goswāmī. On a higher platform I offer my respects unto Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu, who came with His paraphernalia and associates, along with those great personalities Śrī Nityānanda Prabhu and Śrī Advaita Āchāryya. And in the highest stage, I offer my obeisances unto the lotus feet of Śrī Śrī Rādhā and Govinda, and all of the gopīs, headed by Lalitā devī and Viśākhā devī.”

Applying the soothing salve of sambandha-jñāna, a proper acquaintance with the environment, my spiritual master has opened my inner eye and thereby rescued me from the darkness of ignorance, fulfilling my life’s aspirations. I offer my respects unto Śrī Gurudeva.

He is the ever vigilant, stalwart guardian of the current of pure devotion whose highest form flows from our most worshipable Śrī Rūpānuga Guru-varga in their exclusive dedication to Mahābhāva, Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī.”

In knowledge both conceivable and inconceivable, His expertise illumines the ontological whole. He’s the foremost follower of Śrī Rūpa’s divine aim, Śrī Bhakti Sundar Govinda is his celebrated name. His beautiful figure stands out, clean, clear and effulgent, devotionally endowed with transcendent sentiment. I worship him, the world-wide Guru from high above, the empowered bestower of the seed of Divine Love.”

“I fall at the feet of Śrīla Śrīdhar-Deva, who with charming expression sings his songs of sweet nectar. Dressed with fine garments like sun newly-risen, he’s the true saint the devotees have chosen. His detachment and knowledge are just like an ocean, the treasure-house of complete, perfect conclusion. Radiant in Pastimes of loving devotion, the abode of pure ecstasy, bestower of good fortune, foremost true follower of Śrīla Bhaktisiddhānta, foremost great general of the whole renounced order, my lord and my master, my only shelter, I worship his feet, Śrīla Śrīdhar-Deva.”
“In the great Gauḍīya Vaiṣṇava teachers’ line, as Śrīla Bhaktisiddhānta Saraswatī he’s renowned. Like the radiant sun in the morning sky, he appeared to rescue all souls swallowed by the all-devouring impersonal philosophy. By spreading the teachings of Lord Gaurāṅga to sing the Holy Name of Lord Śrī Krishna, he gave all the chance to dive in the ocean of love of Śrī Krishna, the Supreme Person. Śrīla Bhaktisiddhānta, my lord, divine master—at his feet do I pray to serve him forever.”

I bow down unto the holy feet of the pure Vaiṣṇavas, who are like desire trees able to fulfil all the devotees’ aspirations. The Lord’s devotees are comparable to a vast ocean of causeless mercy, as they deliver the fallen souls from material existence. I offer all respects unto them.

pañcha-tattvātmakaṁ kṛṣṇaṁ bhakta-rūpa-svarūpakam bhaktāvatāraṁ bhaktākhyaṁ
namāmi bhakta-śaktikam

I offer my obeisances unto Lord Krishna in His five-fold aspect known as the pañcha-tattva: I offer my respects unto Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, who appears as a devotee of the Lord relishing His own internal mellows. Furthermore I bow down before Lord Nityānanda Prabhu, who is the self-same form and elder brother of Śrī Gaurāṅga. Next, I pay homage unto that great personality Śrī Advaita Prabhu, who is an incarnation of the Lord’s devotee, and unto the Lord’s eternal associates like Śrīvās Paṇḍit, who serve the Lord in loving devotional relationships. Finally, I bow down at the feet of those devotees who hold the actual potency of unalloyed dedication in their hands: Śrī Rāmānanda Rāya, Śrī Gadādhara Paṇḍit, and Śrī Swarūp Dāmodar.
I offer my obeisances unto Lord Gaurāṅga, whose divine complexion is a radiant golden hue and who possesses the qualities of the most benevolent incarnation. His spiritual Pastimes freely grant pure love for Lord Krishna to all. He is none other than Lord Krishna known in the age of Kali as Śrī Krishna Chaitanya.

O Śrī Śrī Rādhā-Madana-mohan, I am a helpless cripple and my meagre intelligence is absorbed in the vile material sense objects. Kindly let deep devotional attachment arise for the exclusive wealth of my life which is Your lotus feet. May Your Lordships, who are so compassionate and affectionate, be forever victorious!
I constantly meditate upon that Divine Couple Śrī Śrī Gandharvā-Govinda, who are seated upon a wonderful throne highly decorated with brilliant jewels. They are sitting within the illustrious forest of Braja, beneath a mind-attracting desire tree, accompanied by Their dedicated servitors such as Śrī Lalitā Devi, Śrī Rūpa Mañjarī and other intimate servants like the priyanarma sakhīs.
Śrī Gopīnāth, who instigates the exchange of devotional mellows, is standing upon the banks of the Jamunā River at the special place known as Vaṁśīvaṭa. There, the sweet tune of His flute is naturally attracting the hearts of the cowherd maidens of Braja Dhām. May that charming Lord bring us within His auspicious embrace.

I eternally offer my respects unto Śrī Vṛndādevī, Śrīmatī Tulasī Mahārāṇī, who is the dearmost object of Lord Keśava’s affection. I bow down before Satyavatī who can bestow pure dedication unto Lord Krishna.

Then, let me bow down before all my spiritual masters: the Guru who gave me the divine mantra, as well as all those who have taught me the meaning of Śrīmad Bhāgavatam. Let me offer my respectful obeisances unto Śrīla Vyāsadeva, the spiritual master of the entire universe and the giver of the all-conquering conclusions of Śrīmad Bhāgavatam.
jayāḥ sa-parikara śrī-śrī-guru-gaurāṅga-gāndharvvā-govindasundar-pādapadmānāṁ jayastu!

Let the holy lotus feet of Śrī Gurudeva, Śrīman Mahāprabhu, and Śrī Śrī Gāndharvvā-Govindasundar, along with Their eternal associates, be victorious over all!

Prayers to the Vaiṣṇavas

sakala vaiṣṇava-pade mora namaskāra

“I respectfully bow to the lotus feet of all the Vaiṣṇavas, praying that there is no offence in my attempt to please them. To all Vaiṣṇavas who have been, and all Vaiṣṇavas who shall be, I offer my obeisances to their lotus feet.”

There are ten offences in the chanting of the Hare Krishna Mahāmantra, but these are not considered in the chanting of the Pañcha-tattva mantra. Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu is the most magnanimous incarnation, for He does not consider the offences of the fallen souls. Thus to derive the full benefit of the chanting of the Mahāmantra, we must first take shelter of Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu and his associates, the Pañcha-tattva, who are the bestowers of the Hare Krishna Mahāmantra.

In the Name of Rāma within the Hare Krishna mantra, the Gauḍīya Vaiṣṇavas will find Rādhā-ramaṇa Rāma. That means, “Krishna, who gives pleasure (ramaṇ) to Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī.” In our conception, the Hare Krishna mantra is wholesale Krishna consciousness, not Rāma (Lord Rāmachandra) consciousness. Śrī Chaitanya’s highest conception of things is always svayam bhagavān, Krishna-līlā, Rādhā-Govinda-līlā. That is the real purpose of Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu’s advent and teachings.

In that consideration, the Hare Krishna mantra does not mention the Rāma-līlā of Āyodhya at all. There is no connection with that in the highest conception of the Hare Krishna mantra. ...The inner conception of the mantra is responsible for our spiritual attainment... The inner conception of the devotee will guide them to their destination.
The Ten Offences to the Holy Name
Bengali poem composed by Śrīla Bhakti Sundar Govinda Dev-Goswāmī Mahārāj

hari-nāma mahāmantra sarva-mantra-sāra yādera karuṇā-bale jagate prachāra sei nāma-parāyaṇa sādhu, mahājana
tāhādera nindā nā kariha kadāchana

1  The Hare Kṛṣṇa Mahāmantra, the very best of all mantras, is distributed all over the world by the powerful mercy of the sādhus in whose hearts the Holy Name displays His divine Pastimes (Nāma-parāyaṇas).
Such Mahājanas (great souls), who are dear-most to the Lord and the source of our connection to His Holy Name, should never be criticised or deprecated at any time.
(First Offence: To offend the Lord’s devotees.)

vrajendra-nandana kṛṣṇa sarveśvareśvara maheśvara ādi tāra sevana-tatpara
nāma chintāmaṇi kṛṣṇa-chaitanya-svarūpa
bhedā-jñāna nā karibe līlā-guṇa-rūpa

2  Vrajendra-nandan Kṛṣṇa—the Emporium of all rasa, the etern-nally youthful, original form of the Supreme Lord who plays ecstati-cally within Goloka Vṛndāvan Dhām in the full range of spiritual relationships (rāsas)—is the all-attractive Lord of all Lords (Nārāyan, Viṣṇu, etc.); the Lord of everything and everyone (Sarveśvareśvara).
All the Lord’s expansions and all the demigods headed by Lord Śiva (Maheśvara) enthusiastically serve Him with great earnestness, considering Him the supreme object of their devotion (tatpara).

The Lord’s Holy Name is a transcendental, wish-fulfilling gem non-different from Lord Kṛṣṇa Himself (Nāma chintāmaṇi Kṛṣṇa-Chaitanya-svarūpa), so the Lord’s divine Pastimes, qualities and form (līlā-guṇa-rūpa) should never be considered different from His Holy Name (as they are revealed in our hearts by His wish-fulfilling Holy Name who fulfills all of our desires). Alternatively, Nāma chintāmaṇi Kṛṣṇa-Chaitanya-svarūpa... can be taken to mean:
Śrī Kṛṣṇa Chaitanya Mahāprabhu is the preeminent, non-different divine form of the wish-fulfilling Holy Name—the Hare Kṛṣṇa Mahāmantra. One should ever distinguish the wish-fulfilling Holy Name—Mahāprabhu Himself—from His form, His qualities, or His Pastimes of exhibiting the Holy Name’s infinitely ecstatic, divine nature and fulfilling everyone’s desires by personally distributing prema for Vraja-nandan Kṛṣṇa in the full range of spiritual relationships (Madhura-rasa, etc.) through His wish-fulfilling Holy Name.
(Second Offence: To consider the demigods equal to the Supreme Lord;
and to consider the Lord’s Holy Name, form, qualities and Pastimes to be distinct from Him.)

“guru kṛṣṇa-rūpa hana śāstrera pramāṇe guru-rūpe kṛṣṇa kṛpā kare bhāgyavāne” se gurute martya-buddhi avajñādi tyaji
iṣṭa-lābha kara, nirantara nāma bhaji

3 The Scriptures substantiate (Śrī Chaitanya-charitāmṛta, Ādi-līlā, 1.45; Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam: 11.17.27; etc.) that Gurudev is a non-different form of Kṛṣṇa Himself. In His form of Gurudev, Kṛṣṇa bestows His mercy upon the fortunate souls. Therefore, one should reject the illusory propensity to conceive of Gurudev as an ordinary mortal with worldly purpose (martya-buddhi), as well as all disrespect (avamanya), disloyalty, disobedience and contempt (avajñā), envy (asūya), etc. of Gurudev. Rather, one should consider Gurudev his cherished, worshippable Master capable of fulfilling all his desires to gain his highest objective (iṣṭa-lābha — Kṛṣṇa-prema), by faithfully and hopefully serving the Holy Name without cessation, forever.
(Third Offence: To offend Śrī Gurudev.)

śruti, śruti-mātā-saha sātvata purāṇa śrī-nāma-charaṇa-padma kare nīrājana sei śruti-śāstra yebā karaye nindana
se aparadhīra saṅga karibe varjjana
The revealed Truth—descending from Mother Gāyatrī into its culmination in the Mahā-purāṇa, Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam — constantly worships (lit. offers ārati to) the lotus feet of Śrī Nāma Prabhu (the Holy Name) with the revelatory, illuminating knowledge of pure devotion. Anyone who blasphemes any of the purely devotional Scriptures of Revealed Truth, either by direct vilification or by propagating antithetical pseudo-doctrines, is an offender whose bad association must always be shunned.

(Fourth Offence: To blasphemy the Scriptures.)

nāmera mahimā sarva-śāstrete vākhāne atistuti, heno kabhu nā bhāviha mane agastya, ananta, brahmā, śivādi satata ye nāma-mahimā-gāthā saṅkīrttana-rata se nāma-mahimā-sindhu ke pāibe pāra atistuti bale yei—sei durāchāra

The glories of the Holy Name are proclaimed in all the revealed Scriptures and one should never consider that such glorification is exaggerated praise (atistuti). Agastya, Ananta, Brahmā, Śiva, and all the most highly qualified, exalted and empowered personalities, constantly chant the unending glories of the Holy Name in saṅkīrttan with full-hearted fervour. Who then can cross the infinite, oceanic glories of the Holy Name? Anyone who profanes that the glories of the Holy Name are exaggerated praise (atistuti) is a sinful miscreant devoid of spiritual fortune (sukṛti).

(Fifth Offence: To consider the glories of the Holy Name to be exaggeration.)

kṛṣṇa-nāmāvali nitya golokera dhana kalpita, prākṛta, bhāve—aparādhi-jana

The Holy Names of Kṛṣṇa are the eternal wealth of Goloka Vṛndāvan, the highest, most ecstatic plane within the self-revealed (adhokṣaja), supra-mundane (aprākṛta) spiritual world. Anyone who fosters the mood that the Holy Names of Kṛṣṇa are imaginary (kalpita) or mundane (prākṛta) is an offender.

(Sixth Offence: To consider the glories of the Holy Name to be mundane or imaginary.)
It is the exhaustive conclusion of all the Scriptures that the Holy Name can destroy all sin. But those of duplicitous misconception (durbuddhi) who spend all their days engaged in sinful activity, wickedly relying on the redeeming power of the Holy Name to nullify their sinful activity, are offenders deceived by Māyā (dispossessed of the Holy Name’s grace) who are destined to suffer perpetually.

(Seventh Offence: To sin on the strength of one’s so-called chanting of the Holy Name.)

Śrī Kṛṣṇa-Nāma is an incomparable, overflooded reservoir of rāsa (love, ecstasy, nectar, divine relationship, etc.) non-different from the Lord Himself, and Śrī Kṛṣṇa-Nāma-saṅkīrttan is itself the absolute means to serve and satisfy Kṛṣṇa (i.e. pursue and realise our own divine purpose and objective). Therefore, the chanting of Śrī Kṛṣṇa-Nāma should never be considered equal or even comparable to mere relative, mundane pious karma such as: conventional religiosity (dharma), adhering to vows (vṛata), renunciation and penance (tyāga), religious ritual and sacrifice (huta); pilgrimage, philanthropy, nationalism, etc.

(Eighth Offence: To consider chanting the Holy Name equivalent to pious karma.)

Those who are deceived by Providence and therefore faithless and averse to the Holy Name—it is assuredly an offence to instruct them in the process of serving the Holy Name.

(Ninth Offence: To try to give the Holy Name to the faithless.)
One who hears the boundless glories of Kṛṣṇa-Nāma but remains devoid of love for Kṛṣṇa-Nāma—whose heart does not melt in love for Kṛṣṇa-Nāma—is an impenitent and estranged fallen soul, the very lowest of mankind (narādhamā chhāra). The pure Holy Name of Kṛṣṇa (śuddha-Kṛṣṇa-Nāma) does not reveal Himself to such persons who resist the divine influence of the Holy Name—whose thoughts, words, and deeds are internally and externally consumed by incorrigible attachment to the mundane, egotistical illusion of “I, me and mine” (ahaṁtā mamatā). (Tenth Offence: To maintain one’s material attachments while chanting the Holy Name.)

The pure souls who engage in Hari-Nāma-ṣaṁkīrtana, avoiding the ten offences to the Holy Name, taste the miraculous fruit of Śrī Kṛṣṇa-prema as Śrī Nāma-Prabhu (the personal, autocratic and merciful Holy Name, non-different from the Lord Himself) appears in their hearts and eternally reveals His ecstatic form, qualities and Pastimes. Alternatively, this verse can be taken to mean:

Those pure souls who engage in Mahāprabhu Śrī Chaitanyaadev’s own process of Hari-Nāma-ṣaṁkīrtana, avoiding the ten offences, taste the unprecedented fruit of Kṛṣṇa-prema exclusively distributed by Mahāprabhu, as He Himself (Nāma-Prabhu) appears in their hearts and possesses them with His own Divine Ecstatic Play.

Gupta Govardhan Ārati
by Śrīla Bhakti Sundar Govinda Dev-Goswāmī Mahārāj

jaya jaya girirājer ārati viśāla
śrī gaura-maṇḍala-mājhe bhuvana-maṅgala

1 All glories, all glories, to the grand ārati of Śrī Girirāj! In the midst of Śrī Gaura-maṇḍal, it is benefitting the entire universe.

koladvīpe śobhe gupta-govardhanarūpa
vyakta hoilā śrī govinda kuṇḍe aparūpa

2 The hidden Govardhan graces Koladwīp with its beauty. Now He has manifested His exquisite beauty in Śrī Govinda Kuṇḍa.

mālatī-mādhavī-kuñja kandare kandare
nigūḍha-nikuñja-lilā hari-manohare

3 There are groves of mālatī and mādhavī flowers in its various caves. In these groves, Lord Hari plays His hidden, mysterious, and enchanting Pastimes.

apūrvva kuṇḍera śobhā jena sudhābhāṇḍa
surendra-surabhī-sevā-saubhāgya-mārttaṇḍa

4 The incomparable beauty of the kuṇḍa is like a reservoir of honey. Even Lord Indra and the divine Surabhī cow are rendering their service under the shining sun of good fortune.

śrī bhakti-rakṣaka deva-gosvāmī śrīdhara
prakāśilā tava sevā dīpta manohara

5 Śrīla Bhakti Rakṣak Śrīdhar Dev-Goswāmī Mahārāj has manifested the effulgent and enchanting devotional service to You.
Śrī Chaitanya-Sārasvata Maṭh is a very beautiful place where devotees of the Maṭh are always rendering their devotional service.

Remembering Śrī Raghunāth Dās Goswāmī, they are continuously serving in an introspective mood.

All glories to the hidden Govardhan, which is a reservoir of transcendental rāsa. He is the refuge of the devotees who are following in the footsteps of Śrī Rūpa and Śrī Raghunāth.

By Your inconceivable glories and magnanimity, You have manifested Kuliyā (where all offences are forgiven). Day and night, the multitudes of devotees are circumambulating this place.

You are eternally manifested both as the worshipable Lord and as the servitor Lord. This fallen servant sees Your ārati with great joy.
Śrī Śrī Girirāj-Govardhan Ārati

by Śrīla Bhakti Sundar Govinda Dev-Goswāmī Mahārāj

1. All glories to the beautiful ārati of Śrī Girirāj which is going on in Śrī Braja-maṇḍala, attracting the minds of all of the living entities in the universe.

2. Lord Śrī Rādha-Ramaṇa (Krishna who gives pleasure to his beloved Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī) is eternally playing His joyful Loving Pastimes there in the association of the Sakhīs of Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī.

3. Here deep within the groves of mālatī flowers and mādhavī creepers, the confidential Pastimes of the charming Lord Hari are going on.

4. Within this holy place are Śyāma Kuṇḍa, Rādhā Kuṇḍa, Kusum Sarovar, Mānasa Gaṅgā and Dāna-ghāṭī.

5. With Śrī Govinda Kuṇḍa, these holy places of divine Pastimes are without limit. Day and night the devotees are performing circumambulation in worship.
Here in this place is the supremely beautiful Śrīdhar Swāmī Sevāśram where devotees of Śrī Chaitanya Sāraswat Maṭh are performing their eternal service.

Śrīman Mahāprabhu gave Śrī Śrī Girirāj-jīu to Śrī Raghunāth Goswāmī so that Śrī Dās Goswāmī could worship His Lordship knowing Him to be non-different from Krishna.

The devotees of Śrī Chaitanya Sāraswat Maṭh worship Śrī Śrī Girirāj-jīu in a deep mood of devotion in remembrance of Śrī Raghunāth Dās Goswāmī.

All glories to Govardhan Hill which is the abode of divine rasa and the shelter of Śrī Rūpa, Sanātan, Jīva and Raghunāth Goswāmīs.

The beauty of the ārati of Śrī Girirāj-jīu which is rare and precious is being seen by Lord Indra, Nārada Muni, Lord Shiva, Śukadeva Goswāmī and all the great personalities.

Śrī Śrī Girirāj-jīu is eternally manifested as both the worshipable Lord and the servitor Lord. This fallen servant sees the ārati of Śrī Girirāj-jīu with great ecstasy.
Śrī Śrī Nitāi-Chaitanya-Ārati

10 Sārvabhauma Bhaṭṭāchāryya, Gopīnāth Āchāryya and the followers of Jīva Goswāmī are all seeing that ārati which is unable to be seen by others.
Śrī Nityānanda and Śrī Gaura Mahāprabhu have manifested eternally in Nabadvīp Dhām, Nadia. But now Their divine forms have manifested in Puri Dhām, mercifully given by our fortune-maker, Śrī Gurudeva.

Inconceivably Śrī Śrī Nitāi-Chaitanya have manifested and through the mercy of Śrī Gurudeva this fallen soul sees Their ārati and joins within the saṅkīrttan.
jaya jaya gurudever ārati ujjvala

3 Krishna is the guardian of all who live in Vṛndāvan, and the destroyer of demons. He tends the cows and is known as Govinda, for He delights the cows and the senses. He is Mādhava, the husband of the goddess of fortune, He loves to steal butter and He is the beautiful cowherd boy of Nanda Mahārāj.
Wandering on the banks of the Jamunā River, Krishna stole the garments of the gopīs while they were bathing. He enjoys the mellows of the rāsa dance. He is the most merciful, beloved lover of Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī. He is the great dancer of Vṛndāvan, and the supreme shelter of Śrīla Bhaktivinod Ṭhākur.

All glories to Sītā Ṭhākurāṇī and Śrī Advaita Āchāryya, all glories to Mālinī-devī and Śrīvās Ṭhākur, and all glories to Āchāryya Chandraśekhara. All glories to Śrīla Nityānanda Prabhu, Śrīla Gadādhara Paṇḍit and Śrīla Haridās Ṭhākur, the Nāmāchāryya.
All glories to Murāri Gupta, and all glories to Mukunda Datta. All glories to all the other eternal associates of Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu. By singing the glories of Śrīla Prabhupād and all those great souls who are eternal associates of Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu, even the lowest of men can obtain the highest treasure of love.
Gurudeva!
kṛpā-bindu diyā, koro’ ei dāse,
tṛṇāpekṣā ati dīna
sakala-sahane, bolo diyā koro, nija-māne spṛhā-hīna

1 Gurudeva, give to this servant just one drop of mercy. I am lower than a blade of grass. Give me all help. Give me strength. Let me be as you are, without desires or aspirations.

sakale sammān, korite śakati, deho nātha! jathā jatha
tobe to’ gāibo, harināma-sukhe, aparādha hobe hoto

2 Give me energy so that I can properly give respect and honour to all. Then I shall be able to happily chant the Holy Name, and my offences will go away.

kobe heno kṛpā, lobhiyā e jana,
kṛtārtha hoibe, nātha!
śakti-buddhi-hīn, āmi ati dīn,
koro more ātma-sātha

3 Oh my Lord! When will such mercy fall to this person. I am weak, bereft, and devoid of intelligence. Please allow me to be with you.

jogyatā-vichāre, kichu nāhi pāi, tomāra koruṇā-sāra
koruṇā nā hoile, kādiyā kādiyā, prāṇa nā rākhibo āra

4 If you examine me, you will find no qualities. Your mercy is everything to me. If you are not merciful unto me, I can only weep, and I will not be able to maintain my life.
Part 1

udilo aruṇa pūraba-bhāge,
dvija-maṇi gorā amani jāge,
bhakata-samūha loiyā sāthe,
gelā nagara-brāje

1 Just before sunrise, as the eastern sky turned crimson, the jewel of the twice-born, Śrī Gaurahari, awoke. Taking His devotees with Him He began the kīrttan, wandering through the countryside towns and villages.

‘tāthai tāthai’ bājalo khol,
ghana ghana tāhe jhāṅjera rol,
preme ḍhala ḍhala sonāra aṅga,
charaṇe nūpura bāje

2 The mṛdaṅgas went “tāthai tāthai” to the rhyming chiming of the cymbals, as Mahāprabhu’s golden form shivered in ecstasy and His footbells jingled.

mukunda mādhava jādava hari, bolore bolore vadana bhorī’,
miche nida-baśe gelo re rāti,
divasa śorīra sāje

3 Mahāprabhu would call out to the still sleeping people, “Don’t waste your nights uselessly sleeping and your days decorating your bodies! Cry out the Names Mukunda, Mādhava, Jādava and Hari!”

emona durllabha mānava-deho, pāiyā ki koro bhāva nā keho,
ebe nā bhajile jaśodā-suta,
charame poḍibe lāje
“You have attained this rare human form of life. What are you doing? Don’t you care for this gift? If you don’t worship the darling of Mother Jaśodā now, then great sorrow awaits you at the time of death.”

udita tapana hoile asta,
dina gelo-boli’ hoibe byasta,
tobe keno ebe alasa hoy,
nā bhaja hṛdoya-rāje

“With every rising and setting of the sun, a day passes and is lost. Why then do you remain idle, refusing to serve the Lord of the heart?”

jivana anitya jānaha sār, tāhe nānā-vidha vipada-bhār,
nāmāśroya kori’ jatane tumi,
thākaha āpana kāje

“Know for certain that this life is full of various miseries. Take shelter of the Holy Name as your only business.”

kṛṣṇa-nāma-sudhā koriyā pān juḍāo bhakativinoda-prāṇ, nāma binā kichu nāhiko āro,
chaudda-bhuvana-mājhe

Drink the pure nectar of the Holy Name of Krishna, and thus satisfy the soul of Ṭhākur Bhaktivinoda. There is nothing but the Name to be had in all the fourteen worlds.

jīvera kalyāṇa-sādhana-kām, jagate āsi’ e madhura nām,
avidyā-timira-tapana-rūpe,
ḥṛd-gagane birāje

To penetrate the darkness of ignorance and bless all souls within this universe, the beautiful Name of Krishna has arisen like the shining sun.
Part 2

jīv jāgo, jīv jāgo, gaurāchāda bole
kota nidrā jāo māyā-piśāchīra kole

1 Lord Gaurāṅga calls, “Wake up, sleeping souls! Wake up, sleeping souls! You have slept so long in the lap of the witch Māyā.”

bhajibo boliyā ese saṁsāra-bhitore
bhuliyā rohile tumi avidyāra bhore

2 “You came into this world saying, ‘O my Lord, I will certainly worship You,’ but having forgotten this promise, you have remained in great ignorance.”

tomāre loite āmi hoinu avatāra
āmi binā bandhu āra ke āche tomāra

3 “I have descended just to save you. Other than Myself, who else is your friend?”

enechi auṣadhi māyā nāśibāro lāgi’ hari-nāma mahā-mantra lao tumi māgi’

4 “I have brought the medicine for destroying the illusion of māyā. Now pray for this Hari-nāma-mahāmantra and take it.”

bhakativinoda prabhura-charaṇe poḍiyā
sei hari-nāma-mantra loilo māgiyā

5 Ṭhākur Bhaktivinoda fell at the lotus feet of Lord Gaurāṅga, and after begging for the Holy Name he received that Mahāmantra.

1 I worship the lotus feet of the Divine Master, who is the ocean of auspicious qualities. Just to deliver all planes of life that are suffering in the forest fire of the material world, he, as the rain-cloud of mercy, melts to shower down the waters of compassion.

mahāprabhoḥ kīrttana-nṛtya-gīta-

2 I worship the lotus feet of the Divine Master, whose heart is maddened in nectarean love for Śrīman Mahāprabhu by the grand congregational chanting of the Holy Name. Dancing, singing, and playing the khol and karatāls, etc.; his body thrills with joy, trembles, and waves of tears flow from his eyes.

3 I worship the lotus feet of the Divine Master, who personally engages in many types of worshipful services such as dressing the deity and cleansing the Lord’s holy temple, and similarly engages the devotees (in his retinue).

4 I worship the lotus feet of the Divine Master, who fully satisfies the devotees of Śrī Krishna with four types of nectarean prasādam foodstuffs that are chewed, sucked, licked, and drunk (that is, he brings about the dispellation of mundanity and the awakening of the joy of love that develops from respecting prasādam), and he is thereby himself satisfied.

5 I worship the lotus feet of the Divine Master, whose heart is insatiably desirous of tasting the infinite Holy Names, Forms, Qualities and Pastimes of Śrī Rādhā-Mādhava that are full of the sweetness of love divine.

Nikuṇja-yūno rati-keli-siddhyair yā yālibhir yuktir apekṣaṇīyā tatrāti-dākṣyād ati-vallabhasya vande guroḥ Śrī-charaṇāravindam

6 I worship the lotus feet of the Divine Master, who is extremely dear to the Supreme Divine Couple who sport in the groves of Braja, because he is greatly expert in those appropriate engagements that are performed by the sakhīs in order to serve the amorous Pastimes of the Divine Couple.

Sākṣād-dharitvena samasta-śāstraṁ uktas tathā bhāvyata eva sadbhīḥ kintu prabhor yaḥ priya eva tasya vande guroḥ Śrī-charaṇāravindam

7 I worship the lotus feet of the Divine Master (who is the simultaneously inconceivably distinct and non-distinct manifest embodiment of the Supreme Lord): all the Scriptures sing the glories of his being the direct non-different form of the Supreme Lord Śrī Hari, and the pure saints also concede this; yet, he is the most beloved of the Lord.

yasya prasādād bhagavat-prasādo yasyāprasādāt na gatiḥ kuto ‘pi dhyayaṁ stuvaṁs tasya yaśas tri-sandhyāṁ
vande guroḥ śrī-charaṇaravindam

8 I worship the lotus feet of the Divine Master, ever singing his glories and meditating upon him at the three junctions of the day. By his grace alone one gains the grace of the Lord, and if he is displeased the soul has no shelter anywhere.

śrīmad guroraṣṭakam etad uchair

9 One who, during the Brāhma-muhūrta (ninty-six minutes before sunrise) with meticulous regularity wholeheartedly sings these eight prayers to the Divine Master, attains, upon leaving the body in his spiritual perfection, the qualification to engage in the direct service of the Lord of Vṛṇḍāvan.
Auspicious Invocation to Śaraṇāgati

by Śrila Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur

śrī-kṛṣṇa-chaitanya prabhu jīve doyā kori’

1 Lord Śrī Krishna Chaitanya,
   Being gracious upon the jīva-souls,
   Along with Your associates and abode
   You descended to this world

antyanta durlabha prema koribāre dāna
śikhāya śaraṇāgati bhakatera prāṇa

2 To distribute freely
   the love divine most rare;
   By teaching exclusive surrender,
   the life and soul of the devotee

‘avaśya rakṣibe kṛṣṇa’—viśvāsa pālana

3 Humility, self-giving,
   Embracing His guardianship, ‘Krishna will certainly protect me’— Maintaining this faith.

bharti-anukūla mātra kārjera svīkāra
bharti-pratikūla bhāva—varijjanāṅgīkāra

4 Acceptance of all activities favourable to devotion; Embracing rejection of adversity to devotion.
Those who surrender in this sixfold way—
Their prayer will be heard by the divine son of Nanda.

Taking in his mouth a straw, falling at the lotus feet of Śrī Rūpa-Sanātan; Śrī Bhaktivinoda clasps their holy lotus feet.

Weeping, weeping, I implore thee, ‘O I am afallen! Please teach me to surrender, teach me pure devotion.’

2 You should worship and serve Lord Gaura, Gadādhara, Advaita, and the original Spiritual Master, Lord Nityānanda. Knowing Lord Gaura and Lord Krishna to be the same, and knowing the Spiritual Master to be very dear to Krishna, you should remember the dear associates of Lord Chaitanya, such as Śrīvās Ṭhākur, Haridās Ṭhākur, Murāri Gupta, and Mukunda Datta. In deep love for Lord Gaura, you should remember the two great personalities Śrīvās Ṭhākur and Haridās Ṭhākur.

You should remember the Goswāmīs of Vṛndāvan: Śrī Rūpa Goswāmī, Sanātana Goswāmī, Jīva Goswāmī, Raghunāth Bhaṭṭa Goswāmī, and Raghunāth dās Goswāmī. If you worship Lord Krishna, then you should remember the two great souls Śrī Rūpa Goswāmī and Sanātana Goswāmī. You should also remember Rāghava Paṇḍit, Gopāl Bhaṭṭa Goswāmī, Swarūp Dāmodar Goswāmī, and Rāmānanda Rāya. If you really seek love of Krishna, then you must remember Swarūp Dāmodar Goswāmī and Rāmānanda Rāya.

You should remember Śrīla Kavi Karṇapura and all his family members, who are all sincere servants of Lord Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu. You should also remember the father of Kavi Karṇapura, Śivānanda Sena. Always remember, always remember Śrī Karṇapura and his family. You should remember all those Vaiṣṇavas who strictly follow the path of Śrī Rūpa Goswāmī and who are absorbed in the ecstasy of bhajan. If you actually want residence in the land of Braja, then you must remember all of the Vaiṣṇavas, who are followers of Śrīla Rūpa Goswāmī.
The night has come to an end and the light of dawn is entering. O jīva-soul, arise and give up your sleep. Chant the Holy Names of Lord Hari, who is the giver of liberation; the enemy of the Mura demon; the Supreme Enjoyer; the all-attractive one; and the horse-headed incarnation, Hayagrīva.

Lord Hari incarnated as the half-man, half-lion, Nṛṣimha. He appeared as a dwarf-brähmaṇa named Upendra and is the killer of the Madhu demon. He is the beloved son of the King of Braja, Nanda Mahārāj, and is blackish in complexion. He is the slayer of the Pūtanā witch and the destroyer of the demon Kaiṭabha. All glories to Lord Hari, who appeared as Lord Rāma, the son of King Dāśarath.

He is the darling of Mother Jaśodā; the giver of pleasure to the cows, land, and spiritual senses; and the protector of the cows. He is the Lord of the Vṛndāvan forest; the gopīs’ beloved; the lover of Rādhikā; and the most beautiful personality in all the worlds.
As Rāmachandra He brought about the end of the demoniac King Rāvāna; as Krishna He stole the older gopīs’ butter; He stole the younger gopīs’ clothes while they were bathing in the Jamunā. He is a cowherd boy of Braja and the protector of the cowherd boys. He steals the hearts of all and always holds a flute.

Lord Krishna is worshiped by the best of yogis and is the son of Nanda. He removes all the fears of the inhabitants of Braja. He is the colour of a fresh rain cloud, and His form is enchanting. When He wanders about, playing His flute, He looks very charming.

He is the son of Jaśodā and the killer of King Kaṁsa, and He sports in the Rasa dance among the groves of Braja. Krishna engages in this Rasa dance underneath the kadamba trees, and He resides in the forest of Vṛndāvan.

He increases the ecstasy of His devotees. He is the reservoir of all love and is the transcendental Cupid who uses His flowered arrows to increase the loving desires of the gopīs. He is the pleasure of the gopīs’ hearts and the abode of all wonderful qualities.
Lord Krishna is the life of the River Jamunā. He is always absorbed in amorous Pastimes, and He is the moon of the gopīs’ minds, which are like the chakora birds that subsist only upon moonlight. O mind, obey these words of mine and sing the glories of Śrī Krishna in the form of these Holy Names, which are full of nectarean mellows.

1 O saintly Vaiṣṇavas, although I am very fallen and misbehaved,
I nevertheless place this appeal before you. My destiny has immersed me in this fearsome ocean of repeated birth and death. Please grab me by the hair, and pull me to the opposite shore.

see any way to escape my condition. I see only suffering. Helpless and stricken with grief, I cry.

greed, bewilderment, madness, and pride.

My mind became immersed in the impermanent satisfaction of the senses, and I could not understand the real goal of life. For this reason I did not aspire to attain Your lotus feet. Śrī Bhoga-ārati Gīti

by Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur

bhaja bhakata-vatsala śrī-gaurahari
śrī-gaurahari sohi goṣṭha-bihārī, nanda-jaśomatī-chitta-hārī

1  Just worship Śrī Gaurahari, who is always affectionate toward His devotees. He is the same Supreme Godhead, Krishna, who sported in the cowherd pastures of Braja and stole the hearts of Nanda and Jaśodā.

belā ho’lo, dāmodara, āisa ekhano
bhoga-mandire bosi’ koraho bhojana

2  Mother Jaśodā calls to Krishna, “My dear Dāmodar, it is very late. Please come right now, sit down in the dining hall, and take your lunch.”

nandera nirdeśe baise giri-barā-dhārī
baladeva-saha sakhā baise sāri sāri

3  On the direction of Nanda Mahārāj, Krishna, the holder of Govardhan Hill, sits down, and then all the cowherd boys, along with Krishna’s elder brother, Śrī Baladeva, sit down in rows to take their lunch.

śuktā-śākādi bhāji nālitā kuṣmāṇḍa
ḍāli ḍālnā dugdha-tumbī dadhi mochā-ghaṇṭā

4  They are then served a feast of śuktā and various kinds of green leafy vegetables, then nice fried things, and a salad made of the green leaves of the jute plant. They are also served pumpkin, baskets of fruit, small square cakes made of lentils and cooked down milk, then thick yogurt, squash cooked in milk, and vegetable preparations made from the flower of the banana tree.
Then they receive fried squares of mung dāl patties, and urad dāl patties, chapātīs, and rice with ghee. Next, sweets made with milk, sugar, and sesamum; rice flour cakes; thick cooked-down milk; cakes floating in milk; and sweet rice.

There is also sweet rice that tastes just like nectar due to its being mixed with camphor. There are bananas, and cheese which is nectarean and delicious. They are also served twelve kinds of sour preparations made with tamarinds, limes, lemons, oranges, and pomegranates.

There are purīs made with white flour and sugar; purīs filled with cream; laḍḍus; and dāl patties boiled in sugared rice. Krishna eagerly eats all of the food.

In great ecstasy and joy Krishna eats the rice, curried vegetables, sweets, and pastries cooked by Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī.

Krishna’s funny brāhmaṇa friend Madhumaṅgal, who is very fond of laḍḍus, gets them by hook or by crook. Eating the laḍḍus he shouts, “Haribol! Haribol!” and makes a funny sound by slapping his sides under his armpits with his hands.
Beholding Rādhārāṇī and Her gopī friends out of the corners of His eyes, Krishna eats at the house of Mother Jaśodā with great satisfaction.

After lunch, Krishna drinks rose-scented water. Then all of the boys, standing in lines, wash their mouths.

After all the cowherd boys wash their hands and mouths, in great bliss they take rest with Lord Balarām.

The two cowherd boys Jāmbula and Rasāla then bring Krishna pān made with betel nuts, fancy spices, and catechu. After eating that pān, Śrī Krishnachandra then happily goes to sleep.

While Krishna happily takes His rest on an excellent bedstead, His servant Viśālākṣa cools Him with a fan of peacock feathers.

At Mother Jaśodā’s request the gopī Dhaniṣṭhā brings remnants of food left on Krishna’s plate to Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī, who eats them with great delight.
Lalitā-devī and the other gopīs then receive the remnants, and within their hearts they sing the glories of Rādhārāṇī and Krishna with great joy.

Ṭhākur Bhaktivinoda, whose one and only joy is the Pastimes of Lord Hari, sings this Bhoga-ārati song.

For those who have not amassed sufficient pious credits they will never be able to honour Mahāprasāda, Lord Govinda, the transcendental sound vibration form of the Lord’s Holy Name nor the Vaiṣṇavas.
Oh brothers! This material body is a network of ignorance, and the senses are one’s deadly enemies, for they throw the soul into the ocean of material sense enjoyment. Among the senses, the tongue is the most voracious and verily wicked; it is very difficult to conquer the tongue in this world.

Oh brothers! Lord Krishna is very merciful – just to control the tongue He has given us the remnants of His own food! Now please eat these nectarean grains while singing the glories of Their Lordships Śrī Śrī Rādhā-Krishna, and in love call out Chaitanya! Nitāi!
Evening Songs
All glories, all glories to the beautiful ceremony of worship to Lord Gaurachandra in a grove on the banks of the Jāhṇavī river! It is attracting the minds of all living entities in the universe.

On Lord Gaurachandra’s right side is Lord Nityānanda, and on His left is Śrī Gadādhara. Before Him stands Śrī Advaita, and Śrīvās Ṭhākur holds an umbrella over the Lord’s head.

Lord Chaitanya is seated upon a jewelled throne while the demi-gods headed by Lord Brahmā perform the ārati ceremony.
Narahari Sarakār and other associates of Lord Chaitanya fan Him with whisks and the devotees headed by Sañjaya Pañḍit, Mukunda Datta, and Vāsu Ghoṣa sing sweet kīrttan along with the other devotees.

(śaṅkha bāje ghaṇṭā bāje madhur madhur bāje)
(madhura mṛdaṅga bāje madhur madhur bāje)
(nitāi gaura haribol)

Conchshells, bells, and karatālas resound, and the mṛdaṅgas play very sweetly. This kīrttan music is supremely sweet and relishable to hear.

The brilliance of Lord Chaitanya’s face conquers millions upon millions of moons, and the garland of forest flowers around His neck shines.

(kiba) śiva-śuka-nārada preme gada-gada

Lord Shiva, Śukadeva Goswāmī and Nārada Muni are all present and their voices are choked with the ecstasy of transcendental love. Thus Bhaktivinoda envisions the glorious worship of Lord Gaurachandra.

This time please give me your grace. Oh Śrī Bhakativinoda, Śrī Saraswatī Ṭhākur, Oh Gurudeva, saviour of the fallen, Oh Lord Gaurahari along with Your associates, this time please give me Your grace.
All glories, all glories, all glories to Śrīla Bhaktisiddhānta Saraswatī Ṭhākur, who is intimately connected with Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur and is an embodiment of Śrī Gaurāṅga’s mercy.

You manifested devotional service to Lord Gaurāṅga, which is beneficial to the whole universe. Your pure devotional conclusions are effulgent with Absolute Knowledge.

All glories to Śrī Rādhā and Śyāma (Krishna) who are combined in the one body of Śrī Gaurāṅga, who is on the right side; glories to Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī, who is on the left side; and glories to Him, who is in the middle and who is none other than the Supreme Cowherd Boy, Śrī Śyāmasundar.

The mellow of Braja (Vṛndāvan) is present in Nabadwīp in a new mood; when this sweet loving sentiment is mixed with magnanimity, then it shows itself as uniquely beautiful.

5 Mādhurya-rasa (conjugal love) is the essence of Braja Dhām, and the Pastimes of Mahāprabhu take it to its highest perfection.

6 Earnestly accepting Śrī Rādhā’s mood and beauty, He has taken His place on the right to show His glorious position.

7 Seeing Krishna’s mischievous desire to understand the glory of Her love, Krishna’s wonderful sweetness that only She can relish through Her transcendental qualities, and the happiness She feels from Krishna’s sweet love for Her, Rādhārāṇī is very pleased and there is a subdued smile on Her face.

10 By the Lord’s divine arrangement, the Supreme Savior of the fallen souls appeared in Nadiyā as the most beloved Śrī Gaurāṅga Mahāprabhu.
This type of divine worship of Mahāprabhu is beyond the vision of even Lord Brahmā or Lord Shiva. Only by receiving the mercy of a devotee of Lord Gaurāṅga can one attain such perfection.

Only by the mercy of Śrī Swarūp Dāmodar, Śrī Rāmananda Rāya, Śrī Rūpa, Śrī Sanātan, Śrī Raghunāth, Śrī Jīva and their associates do the devotees attain that vision.

All glories to Śrī Guru, Gaurāṅga, Rādhā-Govinda-sundar. O devotees, always sing Their eternal glories.

O Tulasī Mahārāṇī, O Vṛnda Devī, I offer my obeisances unto you again and again.

namo re namo re māiyā namo nārāyaṇi

1 O Nārāyaṇī I offer you my obeisances again and again.

jāko daraśe, paraśe agha-nāśa-hoi mahimā veda-purāṇe bākhāni

2 By seeing or touching you all sins are destroyed. Your glories are sung in the Vedas and Purāṇas.

dhanya tulasi, pūraṇa tapa kiyē, śrī-śālagrāma-mahā-pāṭarāṇī

3 Your leaves and soft mañjarīs are entwined at the lotus feet of Lord Nārāyaṇa. O Tulasī by your performance of austerity you have become the worshipful consort of Śrī Śālagrām Śila.

dhūpa, dīpa, naivedya, āroti, phulanā kiyē varakhā varakhāni chāppānna bhoga, chatriśa byaṅjana, binā tulasī prabhu eka nāhi māni

4 You shower your mercy upon anyone who offers you incense, lamp, foodstuffs, worship and flowers. The Lord does not accept even one of fifty-six food offerings or thirty-six curries offered without Tulasī leaves.
Lord Shiva, Śukadeva Goswāmī, Nārada Muni, all the demigods headed by Lord Brahmā, the mystics and great munis are all circumambulating you. O Tulasī Mahārāṇī, thus Chandraśekhara sings of your glories. Please bestow upon him the gift of devotion.
The lotus feet of the Spiritual Master are the abode of pure devotional service. I bow down to those lotus feet with great care and attention. My dear brother (my dear mind)! It is through the grace of the Spiritual Master that we cross over this material world.

Make the teachings from the lotus mouth of the Spiritual Master one with your heart, and do not desire anything else. Attachment to the lotus feet of the Spiritual Master is the best means of spiritual advancement. By his mercy all desires for spiritual perfection are fulfilled.

He who has given me the gift of transcendental vision is my lord, birth after birth. By his mercy divine knowledge is revealed within the heart, bestowing loving devotion and destroying ignorance. The Vedic Scriptures sing of his character.
O Spiritual Master, ocean of mercy, and friend of the fallen souls, you are the teacher of everyone and the life of all people. O master! Be merciful unto me, and give me the shade of your lotus feet. May your glories now be proclaimed throughout the three worlds.

I have surrendered, I have surrendered unto your fearless lotus feet. Please give your mercy. Oh Śrī Gurudeva, saviour of the fallen, please give me your mercy. You are the saviour of the lowly fallen souls. All glories to you Śrī Gurudeva.

The six urges are those of speech, the mind, anger, the tongue, the belly, and the genitals.

The six faults are overeating or collecting more monetary funds than required, overendeavouring for material objectives, unnecessary talking about mundane affairs, being too attached to or too neglectful of Scriptural rules and regulations, associating with worldly-minded persons, and lusting after mundane achievements.

The six good qualities are enthusiasm, patience, confidence, the determination to perform activities favourable to devotional service, the resolution to abandon the association of non-devotees, and the discipline required to always follow in the footsteps of the predecessor āchāryyas.

The six kinds of saintly association are offering gifts in charity, accepting charitable gifts, revealing one’s mind in confidence, inquiring confidentially, accepting prasādam and offering prasādam.

1  His lotus feet are served in devotion by multitudes of high, virtuous souls; he is the establisher of the religion of the age as he is the presiding monarch of the Viśva-Vaiṣṇava-Rāja-Sabhā—the universal society of the pure devotees that are the true ‘kings’ or guides of all; and he is the fulfiller of the most cherished desires of those who dispel fear (for all souls). I make my obeisance unto the lotus feet of that illustrious great soul, worshipable by one and all— perpetually do I make my obeisance unto the radiance emanating from the toenails of the holy feet of my Lord.

2  He is the leader of the fortunate souls blessed with the treasure of internal pure devotion; he is greatly merciful upon the fallen souls, being their only shelter; and his inconceivable holy feet are the shelter for the deceivers, by deceiving them. I make my obeisance unto his lotus feet— perpetually do I make my obeisances unto the radiance emanating from the toenails of the holy feet of my Lord.
3 I make my obeisance unto his divine, charming yet commanding lofty form of golden hue. That beautiful figure shames the mad ecstasy of golden lotus stems. Venerated by tens of millions of Cupids, the moons of the toenails of my Worshipful Divine Master reveal the beauty of his lotus feet. Perpetually do I make my obeisance unto that effulgence emanating from the toenails of the holy feet of my Lord.

4 Like the moon that delights the stars, he is surrounded by his circle of personal servitors, making their hearts bloom in divine ecstasy. The malicious non-devotees are made to flee in panic by the sound of his thunderous roar, and the simple, inoffensive souls attain the ultimate fortune by accepting his lotus feet. I make my obeisance unto him; perpetually do I make my obeisance unto the brilliance emanating from the toenails of the holy lotus feet of my Lord.

5 He has revealed the vast, magnificent beauty of Śrī Gaura Dhām; he has broadcast the tidings of the supreme magnanimity of Śrī Gaurāṅga throughout the whole universe; and in the hearts of the fit recipients of his grace, he has firmly established the lotus feet of Śrī Gaura. I make my obeisance unto him; perpetually do I make my obeisance unto the effulgence emanating from the toenails of the holy feet of my Lord.
He is the eternal shelter and the Universal Guru for the souls surrendered unto Śrī Gaurāṅga. Absorbed in the service of his Gurudev, Śrī Gaura Kiśora, he wholeheartedly adores Śrī Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur. I make my obeisance unto him; perpetually do I make my obeisance unto the effulgence emanating from the toenails of the holy feet of my Lord.

He is the illustrious personality to raise the flag that sings the glory of Śrī Rūpa, Śrī Sanātan, and Śrī Raghunāth. His glory is sung throughout the world as non-different from the powerful personality of brilliant erudition, Śrī Jīva. And he has won the renown of being one with the hearts of Śrīla Krishna Dās Kavirāj and Ṭhākur Narottam. I make my obeisance unto him; perpetually do I bow down to the brilliance emanating from the toenails of the holy feet of my Divine Master.

Bestowing his grace upon all souls, he is Hari-kīrttan incarnate. As the associate of Śrī Gaura, he relieves Mother Earth of the burden of offences committed upon her. And he is so gracious that his endearance of all beings excels that of even a father. I make my obeisance unto him—the mine of all these qualities; perpetually do I bow down to the effulgence emanating from the toenails of the holy feet of my Divine Master.
Like a wish-fulfilling tree for his surrendered servitors (he fulfills their heart’s aspirations), even a tree is shamed by his magnanimity and forbearance. And great personalities who are competent to confer boons—they, too, worship his lotus feet. I make my obeisance unto him; perpetually do I bow down to the radiance emanating from the toenails of the holy feet of my Divine Master.

The crown-jewel of the paramahaṁsas, the Prince of the treasure of the supreme perfection of life, Śrī Krishna-prema, he accepted the robes of a mendicant sannyāsī just to deliver the fallen souls. The topmost tridaṇḍī sannyāsīs attend his lotus feet. I make my obeisance unto him; perpetually do I bow down to the effulgence emanating from the toenails of the holy feet of my Divine Master.

He is the dearmost intimate follower of the Divine Daughter of Śrī Vṛṣabhānu, and I know myself as the most fortunate by taking the dust of his holy feet upon my head. I make my obeisance unto his invincible, wondrously purifying lotus feet—perpetually do I bow to the brilliance emanating from the toenails of the holy feet of my Divine Master.

The universal gods, perfected beings, salvationists, mystic yogis, and exalted servitors of the Absolute Truth, Śrī Krishna, constantly chanted the glories of Śrī Gaurasundar.

In regard to Lord Chaitanya’s Pastimes, Śrīla Rūpa Goswāmī has mentioned the following verse in his Śrī Chaitanyāṣṭakam:

sadopāsyah śrīmān dhṛta-manuja-kāyaiḥ praṇayitāṁ
vahadbhir gīr-vāṇair giriśa-parameṣṭhi-prabhṛtibhiḥ

The gods, headed by Lord Shiva and Lord Brahmā, accepted the garb of ordinary men in the Pastimes of Śrī Chaitanyaadeva in order to eternally worship Him with heartfelt affection.” Śrī Chaitanyaadeva is the embodiment of that vast nectarean ocean found in Lord Krishna’s Holy Name, which is none other than Śrī Gaurāṅga’s own pure Name. Śrī Chaitanyaadeva is compared to that grand milk ocean which, after being churned, produced nectar. The nectar Mahāprabhu distributes is Lord Krishna’s Holy Names, which extinguish all the miseries of material existence, such as anxieties arising from sinful activities performed in direct opposition to the Lord, and the three-fold sufferings which fuel the grand forest fire that scorches those in search of sense gratification, salvation, and mystic yoga perfections. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.
The charming aura of Śrī Gaurasundar’s divine figure resembles the reflection of millions of radiant golden mirrors. Furthermore, the personified sweet fragrance of the earthly and heavenly lotus flowers humbly offer their prayers before the aromatic scent which permeates the air from the beautiful form of Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu. Millions and millions of Cupids fall unconscious before the feet of Śrī Chaitanyadeva’s elegant figure. They are severely shocked because their sense of universal fame arising from their beautiful splendor is checked. While performing His joyful Pastimes of dancing, the divine form of Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva playfully sways to and fro. The flowing pulsations of the Lord’s limbs move in rhythm with the various charming moods of devotional sentiments, bhāva, overwhelming His graceful figure. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

By manifesting His five-fold aspect of divinity, Pañcha-tattva, Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva was able to widely distribute the sweet Names of Lord Krishna, which is the means to the ultimate attainment in human life: unalloyed love for the Absolute Truth, Śrī Krishna, the fifth end. (The ‘fifth end’ refers to that which is beyond the attainment of religiosity, economic development, sense gratification, and liberation.) The Lord personally incarnated on the Earth planet with His expansions such as Nityānanda Prabhu and Advaita Āchāryya, His intimate associates such as Gadādhara Paṇḍit, and His other general associates such as Śrīvāsa Ṭhākur. When the Lord appears, He comes armed with the weapon of the Holy Name of Krishna. While dancing in the deepest ecstasies of pure love, Lord Gaurāṅgadeva, although none other than Śyāmasundar, chanted His own Names just like an ordinary citizen in the Nadiyā district. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

Appearing in his Deity form, Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva removed the miserable condition of the living entities and increased the devotional pleasure of His devotees. The Lord incarnated because He was unable to tolerate the griefstricken condition of Śrī Advaita Āchāryya, the master of that charming village of Śāntipura. Śrī Advaita Āchāryya was lamenting about this era being overtaken by the ugly influence of irreligious practices. Thus, in order to arrest the immoral activities in Kali-yuga, the Lord profusely distributed the sweet nectar of Lord Krishna’s Holy Names. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva appeared in West Bengal in the sacred place known as Nabadwīp on the banks of the Ganges River. Revealing His household Pastimes in the holy abode of Nabadwīp, Śrī Gaura benedicted the beautiful courtyard surrounding Śrīnivās Paṇḍit’s residence, and pleased His dearmost associates when He manifested His nocturnal Pastimes of congregational chanting in the deepest mellows of pure dedication. The controlling life-force of Lakṣmīpriyā-devī and Viṣṇupriyā-devī was Śrī Gaurasundar, whose intelligence was couched in deep parental adoration for His mother and father, Śachīdevī and Jagannāth Miśra. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.
Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, the son of Śachīdevī, always performed mischievous childhood Pastimes in the association of the naughtiest boys. (Nimāi was like baby Krishna, the son of Mother Jaśodā.) Nimāi’s Pastimes, although naughty, were not only pleasing to Him, but also gladdened the hearts of His devotees.

During His adolescent years, the Lord acquired unrivaled mastery over the conclusions of the ancient Scriptures. With unexcelled logic at His command, Lord Viśvambhara artfully established the auspicious doctrine of śuddha-bhakti, unalloyed dedication unto the Sweet Absolute Truth, Lord Krishna, thereby defeating the doctrine of dry logic studied at that period by the proud, expert logicians who were all nearly atheistic scholars. Later, in the course of His adolescent Pastimes, the Lord vanquished the pride of the most famous Sanskrit scholar of all time, the Digvijayī Paṇḍit, in the company of His grammar students, on the banks of the Ganges River. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

During His childhood Pastimes, Nimāi sat amongst discarded clay pots which had been used to cook preparations for Lord Vishnu. He would also play with unclean animals such as puppies, and on one occasion He laid upon a cobra, treating it as if it were Ananta Śeṣa.

Once, Nimāi was stolen away by two thieves who were intent on robbing the ornaments decorating His charming figure. Placing Nimāi on their shoulders, they enticed the small boy to come with them and then quickly fled away with Him. However, due to the Lord’s Yogamāyā potency, they suddenly found they had arrived at Nimāi’s house.
Later, a well-known mendicant brāhmaṇ visited the residence of Jagannāth Miśra. When the brāhmaṇ began to offer some preparations he had cooked to Lord Gopāl, Nimāi spoiled the offering by eating the foodstuffs while the mendicant was offering them in meditation. After having done this to the brāhmaṇ three times, the Lord revealed His eight-armed form to him.

Whenever the child Nimāi angrily cried, He could only be pacified by the chanting of Lord Krishna’s Holy Names. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

In His childhood Pastimes Nimāi would sportively play in the waters of the Ganges River in different ways with His schoolmates. Sometimes Nimāi, with various laughing gestures, would also tease the young girls who came to swim in the Ganges. This same small boy, however, often presented shrewd arguments and counter-arguments before His classmates and professors. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

During the Lord’s adolescent Pastimes, He became known and respected far and wide as the greatest scholar, Nimāi Paṇḍit. The Lord would dismantle the false pride of millions of conceited scholarly logicians. Rendering them speechless by canceling and reversing their forestated conclusions, the Lord would then rebuke His own opinion and rejustify their foregone logic. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

After that grand Sanskrit scholar Keśava Kāśmīrī had intellectually conquered all ten directions, he came before Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu on the banks of the Ganges River. At the Lord’s request, he spontaneously composed and recited many wonderful prayers in glorification of the sacred Ganges. Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva then amazed the scholar when He recollected and pointed out several rhetorical errors in his compositions. Keśava Kāśmīrī skillfully presented many logical arguments in his own favour, but was ultimately defeated. Finally, when Keśava Kāśmīrī’s incompetence was exposed and his intelligence was totally perplexed, Lord Gaurāṅga compassionately respected him in a manner befitting a great scholar by preventing His students who were present from laughing at the paṇḍit. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

Elaborately explaining the aphorisms taught in Sanskrit grammar and the science of logic, Śrī Gaurasundar would draw out their apparent and subtle meanings. The Lord’s beautiful style of deriving the inner significance of the sūtras completely amazed all the learned circles. The Lord demonstrated that the seven thousand verbal root sounds contained in Sanskrit grammar reach the zenith of their expression when realized as potencies existing within the Krishna conception of reality. As the learned scholars sat in utter amazement, their powerful intellects were paralyzed by Lord Gaurāṅga’s intriguing explanation. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.
Śrī Gaurasundar proved that the Supreme Lord’s sweet will and well-wishing glance is the background cause governing each sound’s concomitant meaning. The Lord’s sanction is the fundamental element deciding the orderly arrangement and harmony shared between sound and its meaning, and not the mundane endeavors of the prominent grammarians headed by the sages like Pāṇini, who try to affix sounds with word meanings. This is because the purpose of everything animate or inanimate in existence is ultimately to please the Supreme Lord by enhancing His charming Pastimes. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

The Lord began to teach Sanskrit to His students again after returning from Gayā. However, when emotions arising from pure love overwhelmed the Lord, He was unable to continue teaching them. Nimāi’s personal students, bereft of the opportunity to learn from the Lord, condemned themselves as unfortunate. Lamenting, they humbly praised the unparalleled genius of the Lord’s teachings. Although the Lord experienced grief due to sympathetic feelings towards His students, He acted as their ever well-wisher when He inaugurated the happy glorification of Lord Krishna by chanting “haraye namaḥ kṛṣṇa” as they clapped in unison. In the wake of the congregational chanting, the moving and nonmoving living entities in all ten directions were immersed in the surging waves of that grand ocean of sweet devotional mellows. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.
Śrī Gaurasundar respected the Vedic principles and inaugurated the congregational chanting of the Lord’s Holy Names after taking full shelter of His spiritual master. The Lord would continuously chant and distribute Lord Krishna’s Holy Names, dancing in the most joyful manner in the association of thousands of devotees. In this way He delivered the greatest of demons such as Jagāi and Madhāi, and other demoniac groups who destroy religious principles and the rules governing the social and spiritual orders of society. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

Once, a great Mohammedan city magistrate named Chāṅd Kāzī obstructed the devotees from performing congregational chanting of the Lord’s Holy Names. In retaliation, Lord Chaitanyadeva dispelled the devotees’ fear by leading a nocturnal chanting procession ornamented with thousands of burning torches and lamps. Millions of persons simultaneously joined in the ecstatic wave created by Lord Gaurasundar’s dancing to the sweet melody of the mṛdaṅga drums and cymbals, as musical instruments resounded in every direction. When the powerful Mohammedan witnessed this, his false sense of covetousness was cleansed, and the Lord embraced him as His very own. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.
While showers of tears fell from the eyes of millions, He delighted in having His beautiful hair shaved away. Millions of voices sang the glories of Lord Krishna as Śrī Krishna Chaitanya accepted the staff of renunciation. From that time, wherever He went, whoever saw Him in the garment of a sannyāsī cried in grief. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

Newly dressed as a renunciate, the supreme controller of the sannyāsīs, Śrī Krishna Chaitanya, wandered all over the province of West Bengal purifying the land with the touch of His lotus feet. After accepting the new name “Śrī Krishna Chaitanya,” the Lord rescued the living entities by offering them Krishna’s Holy Names. Intoxicated with ecstatic emotions erupting from the deepest planes of dedication’s mellows, He appeared like a golden mountain as He continuously ran here and there in every direction. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

Bestowing further prosperity to all, the association of Śrī Chaitanya enhanced those grand personalities like Śrī Gadādhara Paṇḍit, Lord Nityānanda, and others. When Lord Chaitanya incarnated on the Earth planet, He fulfilled the desires of the principal mahābhagavat devotee Śrī Advaita Āchāryya. Also, the Supreme Lord agreed to reside in Jagannāth Purī just to please His mother Śachīdevī. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.
Arriving in the sacred place of pilgrimage, Śrī Nilāchala, the valiant king of the renounced order, Śrī Chaitanyadeva, saved the most powerful scholar recognized throughout the length and breadth of India. Śrī Vāsudeva Sārvabhauma, the most dynamic intellectual of all time in the vast Vedantic doctrine and school of logistics, was rescued by the Lord from the impersonal well of Śaṅkarāchāryya’s theory. Later, the Lord travelled to southern India, where He encountered the followers of various philosophical doctrines. Wherever He travelled, the aspirations of the devotees met their highest fulfillment, as the Lord was like a desire tree. On the banks of the Godāvari River, the Lord met that deep raincloud of pure dedication Śrī Rāmānanda Rāya, and instructed him to shower upon others the sweet raindrops of rāsa which exist in the land of spontaneous devotion, Braja. Śrī Rāmānanda Rāya also answered the questions the merciful Lord posed with the essence of all instruction. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

The tall divine figure of Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva enhances the joy of the universal gods as He is the charming embodiment of pure love. The radiant aura emanating from His beautiful form insults millions of golden lotuses while winning the respect of that effulgent personality Chandradeva. Śrī Gaurāṅga is the background stage of all spiritual Pastimes as exhibited in the everfresh dynamic moods of sattvika-bhāva as seen in His joyful dancing when congregationally chanting Lord Krishna’s Holy Names. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.
The grand intellectual Sārvabhauma tried his level best to establish the impersonal doctrine of Śaṅkarāchāryya, which is in direct opposition to the conclusions of pure dedication. Sārvabhauma used the most deceitful means in the art of word jugglery. He tried to pervert the sense of words, he idly heckled the arguments or assertions of the Lord without attempting to prove the opposite side, and he tried to find the weak points in the Lord’s arguments. However, Śrī Chaitanya, whose charming figure was cloaked in the fresh garments of a radiant renunciate, presented consistent arguments in conjunction with the Vedic literatures, and easily checked and destroyed the scholar’s atheistic interpretations. The Lord loudly proclaimed that the doctrine of Śaṅkarāchāryya is practiced by followers in the ascending method of understanding who are interested in their external self-adoration. Such worship is the product of a demonic intellect and backed by atheistic perseverance. All importance given to the nonmanifest aspect of material nature was refuted when Lord Gaurasundar established that spiritual variegatedness in the Supreme Lord’s personality is the highest reality taught in the Vedic literature.

This was shown in the Lord’s explanation of the Upaniṣads, where it is stated:

apāṇipādo javano grahitā
paśyatyachakṣuḥ sa śṛṇotyakarṇaḥ

“The Lord has no hands or legs, yet He walks and touches. The Lord has no eyes or ears, yet He sees and hears.”

Lord Gaurasundar also explained the ātmarāma verse which is found in the grandest of all famous literature, Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam. He clearly showed that the Vedas, Purāṇas, Vedānta, and all other existing Scriptures, which are like a magnificent temple where the Supreme Lord’s wonderful Pastimes are eternally resounded, support the conclusion that everything in this world is a reflection of the eternal variegatedness found in the spiritual realm. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.
Later, the Supreme Lord travelled to the holy places of pilgrimage in South India with the clever intention of delivering the fallen souls. Appearing as a beautiful young renunciate, He distributed the sweet Names of the Lord, singing: “Krishna Krishna Krishna Krishna Krishna he,” as He strolled down the different pathways, entered temples, and visited homesteads during the sacred pilgrimage. Infused with an inconceivable type of divine inspiration, the Lord freely chanted “Rāma Rāma” and joyfully danced with the most charming gestures. Irrespective of time or personal qualification, the assembled bystanders were delivered by the Lord, who inspired them to chant Krishna’s Holy Names. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

The famous conversation of Lord Gaurasundar with Rāmānanda Rāya on the banks of the Godāvari River is known as the Rāmānanda-saṁvād in the Śrī Chaitanya-charitāmṛta. In those discussions, the highest form of dedication is pure love of God in a heart free from fruitive aspirations and scriptural calculation. Also, Lord Krishna, who appeared as the son of Nanda Mahārāj, was ascertained as the sole recipient of the sweetness relished in the mellows of pārakīya-rāsa. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.
Lord Chaitanya showed that there are various relationships which exist in connection with Lord Krishna. Those relationships begin with servitude, and progress to friendship and parental love, extending to a conjugal relationship. But the epitome of charm and beauty is reserved for the son of Nanda Mahārāj in the forest groves of Vṛndāvan. That is service to Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī in conjugal love, and is known as pārakīya. Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva embodied this sort of divine aspiration. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

Lord Gaurāṅgadeva explained that a devotee in passive adoration enjoys the happiness of being free from all material miseries, and a devotee in servitude relishes the pleasure of contentment. A devotee in friendship becomes overwhelmed with happiness arising from close affection, whereas a devotee in the parental mood is free from any trace of calculation, experiencing deepened affection in ecstatic joy. Lord Chaitanya further revealed that the devotee in conjugal love known as svakīya only partially relishes the sweetness of this mellow, due to a tinge of scriptural etiquette. However, when the conjugal mellow is beyond scriptural restrictions, then spontaneity and freedom, added by the mood of vāmya, the highest expression of divine pleasure in the Lord’s service, is bestowed. Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva gave license to these high ideals. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.
Śrī Chaitanya revealed the nature of the ever-fresh Pastimes which He performed in Nabadwīp to Rāmānanda Rāya, whose fortune is beyond this world. Lord Chaitanya also manifested His form as the cowherd boy Śyāmasundar, which was endowed with the mood and luster of Śrī Rādhā and couched in pure dedication. When Rāmānanda Rāya glimpsed the matchless beauty of the Lord’s figure, he fainted before the tender lotus feet of the Lord. Following this, Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva restored His eternal servant’s consciousness. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

Lord Gaurasundar embraced the brāhmaṇ devotee named Vāsudeva, who was afflicted with leprosy in Kūrmakṣetra near Jagannāth Purī. By the Lord’s grace the brāhmaṇ was cured, and he obtained a beautiful body and mental satisfaction. Later Lord Gaurāṅga liberated the South Indian brāhmaṇ known as Rāmadās from the misconception that Sitādevi’s chastity was spoiled by the touch of a demon. The Lord cited the Kūrma Purāṇa to prove that the Absolute Truth existing on the spiritual platform is beyond material perception. In this way the Lord nourished His devotee with instructions pertaining to pure devotion. The Supreme Lord also delivered Kālā Krishna Dās from the illusory influence of the false renunciates in the province of Mālābara who were in the corrupt nomadic community called Bhaṭṭathāri. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.
The Lord once visited Raṅgakṣetra in South India on the banks of the Kāverī River, which is the most important place of worship for the Vaiṣṇava devotees who adore Śrī Śrī Lakṣmī-Nārāyaṇa and believe Them to be the utmost object of their devotional practices. When the Lord visited the father of Śrī Gopāl Bhaṭṭa, Śrī Veṅkaṭa Bhaṭṭa, He was very satisfied with his family’s service attitude. Cunningly, the Lord smiled and instructed them that even Śrī Lakṣmīdevī, after prolonged penances, could not enter into the rāsa-līlā Pastimes of Lord Krishna. This is because only the cowherd maidens can actually incite those Pastimes. Therefore, the cowherd boy Krishna, who is the original form of Lord Nārāyaṇa, and who attracts the heart of Lakṣmīdevī, is the Supreme Truth and the fundamental object of all devotional practices. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

While travelling in South India, Lord Gaurasundar discovered the famous literature Śrī Brahmā Saṁhitā, which is rich with devotional conclusions, and presented it to His devotees. Overwhelmed by the deep ecstasies of pure dedication, the Lord also sweetly sang the charming verses of the Śrī Krishna Karṇāmṛtam, in which the wonderful Pastimes of Braja are glorified by that grand poet of South India, Śrī Bilvamaṅgal Ṭhākur. And it was the tender lotus feet of Lord Chaitanya which were placed upon the head of the great King Pratāparudra, who had full dedication at his command. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.
Surrounded by innumerable devotees, Lord Gaurasundar displayed His divine and wonderful dancing figure in front of the Rāthayātrā cart while performing congregational chanting of the Lord’s Holy Names. The Lord’s personality totally charmed the hearts of Pratāparudra Mahārāj, the assembled pilgrims, and all the other dear friends of the King. The Lord also revealed the inner purport of Lord Jagannāth’s pastime of riding the cart to the Guṇḍichā temple when He mentioned the verse by Śrīla Rūpa Goswāmī:

priyaḥ so ‘yam kṛṣṇaḥ saha-charī kuru-kṣetra-militas
tathāhaṁ sā rādhā tad idam ubhayoḥ saṅgama sukham tathāpy antaḥ-khelan-madhura-muralī-pañcama-juṣe
mano me kālindī-pulina-vipināya spṛhayati

“O My dear friend, now I am at last reunited with My most beloved Krishna in Kurukṣetra. I am the same Rādhārāṇī, and He is the same Krishna. We are enjoying Our meeting, but still I wish to return to the banks of the Kālindī, where I could hear the sweet melody of His flute sounding the fifth note beneath the trees of the Vṛndāvan forest.” I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

When northern India was under Muslim rule, that great kingly emperor of the independent state of Orissa, Pratāparudra, was completely wonderstruck and overtaken by the magnanimity, prowess, and activities that Lord Chaitanya exhibited in pure love of Godhead. The great King Pratāparudra rejected all his earlier ties with traditional religiosity and his valiant kingly nature, and he threw himself before the lotus feet of Śrī Chaitanyadeva in full surrender. The merciful Lord then bathed the surrendered emperor’s head with the sacred dust of His tender lotus feet. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

The Supreme Lord was adored by the famous scholarly class of men in South India. The greatest princes and their ministers viewed the Lord with deep faith, and treated Him like the crest jewel recipient of their respect. According to the correct principles set forth in the bonafide disciplic succession, the Lord came to West Bengal to see the sacred Ganges. He also came to see His birthplace and His mother Śachīdevī, as if it were for the last time. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

During His travels, Lord Gaurāṅgadeva’s fame flooded the length and breadth of Bengal. Therefore, when He returned to Nabadwīp five years after accepting sannyās, all of Bengal, which was proud of Lord Gaurāṅga, became enthusiastic to glorify His extraordinary personality. Even the proud atheistic class of scholars were embarrassed about their vile natures when they observed how the ordinary people in all walks of life had such resolute faith in the Lord. When Mother Śachī and the Lord’s other family members, who were lifeless due to separation from their Lord, had another glimpse of Śrī Chaitanyadeva, their life’s substance was rejuvenated. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.
Returning to His birthplace after five long years of sannyās, the Supreme Lord was met by millions, young and old alike. Everyone’s eyes were overwhelmed with eagerness to see the Lord, who was attracting their innermost heart of hearts. The Lord’s ecstatic presence excited the multitudes to continuously resound the Names of Lord Hari, and they created an uproar that reverberated in every direction, beyond the limits of the sky. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva eased the anxiety the devotees had experienced due to His long separation and forgave many sinful, offensive, anxiety-ridden souls such as Gopāl Chāpāl and others. The Lord then began to run towards Vṛndāvan along the banks of the Ganges. An ocean of people pursued the Lord up to the capital of Bengal, which at that time was known as Rāmakeli. At Rāmakeli, Lord Gaurāṅga was attracted by His two eternal associates who appeared to be ministers in the Muslim government. The Lord showed deep affection for Śrīla Rūpa Goswāmī and his elder brother, Śrīla Sanātan Goswāmī. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.
Leaving Rāmakeli, the Lord continued through Bengal towards Jagannāth Puri. After leaving Puri Dhām, Lord Chaitanya passed through the Jhāḍakhaṇḍa forest on His way to Vṛndāvan. There He inspired the jungle animals such as tigers, deer, and elephants to join in the congregational chanting of Lord Krishna’s Holy Names. Intoxicated by the sweet Names of the Lord, the animals joyfully danced along with the Lord, who was madly absorbed in the deepest devotional ecstasies. The Supreme Lord experienced profound realizations in solitary worship as He walked down the deep and impenetrable jungle paths of Jhāḍakhaṇḍa with Balabhadra Bhaṭṭāchāryya. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

Lord Gaurasundar showed great honour towards the Deities along the Ganges-bank in Kāśi, and unto Bindu Mādhava at the confluence of the Ganges and the Yamunā in Prayāga. Following the current of the Yamunā, the Lord began to quickly run along her banks in anxious pursuit of a glimpse of the sacred place known as Mathurā. As divine thoughts of Vṛndāvan’s Pastimes overwhelmed His memory and caused intolerable feelings of separation, Lord Gaurasundar fell unconscious. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.
Lord Chaitanya stated that the mood of deep separation that Mādhavendra Purī was able to taste, as depicted in the following beautiful verse first spoken by Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī, is the zenith point and desirable object of pure adoration:

\text{ayi dīna-dayārdra nātha he} \\ \text{mathurā-nātha kadāvalokyase} \\
\text{hṛdayaṁ tvad-aloka-kātaraṁ} \\
\text{dayita bhrāmyati kim karomy aham}

"O my Lord! O most gracious master! O master of Mathurā! When will I see You again? Because of my not seeing You, my agitated heart has become unsteady. O most beloved one, what shall I do now?" After the Lord entered into Braja, the background stage where Pastimes of pure love are enacted, He became overwhelmed to His heart’s full satisfaction. The Lord was charmed to see the beautiful gardens and forest groves that served as His playground for spiritual Pastimes in a previous era. While visiting the twelve forests of Vṛndāvan, the Lord exhibited various different dealings with the cowherd boys and maidens. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

While strolling through the forest groves of Vṛndāvan, the Lord was joyfully welcomed by swarms of humming bumblebees busily engaged in discussion about pure love as they hovered over the blooming flowers. Millions of trees lining the forest groves harmoniously offered their respects unto Lord Gaurasundar in unison with a variety of birds that were expertly singing and dancing in sheer delight. The Lord’s mind became overflooded by loving feelings due to remembering how the cows, calves, and oxen of the holy abode of Vṛndāvan would affectionately call for Him in previous Pastimes, thereby elating His emotions in pure love. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

Hopelessly overwhelmed by a surge of pure love, Lord Gaurasundar madly danced and chanted the Holy Names of Krishna. A profuse current of flowing tears streamed from His eyes, passing over the radiant lustre of His giant golden form, over His brilliant garments that resembled the sun, and over the ground in all four directions. The Lord’s joyful Pastimes were ecstatically enhanced by such gestures as His loudly mispronouncing the Holy Name of Krishna in a delirious state, or His roaring with laughter due to being ecstatically absorbed in deep emotion. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

Surcharged with the confusing dictations of pure love of God, Lord Gaurasundar, dancing in ecstasy, anxiously approached the sacred place of Rādhā Kuṇḍa, which was unmanifest at that time. The Lord hastily took bath in that flooded paddy field, sanctified the water, and revealed it to be Śrī Rādhā Kuṇḍa. In deep humility, the Lord began to carefully recite verses from the Scriptures depicting Śrī Rādhā Kuṇḍa as the divine embodiment of pure love.
yathā rādhā priyā viṣṇos
tasyāḥ kuṇḍaṁ priyaṁ tathā sarva gopīṣu saivaikā viṣṇor-atyanta vallabhā

“Just as Śrī Rādhā is very dear to Lord Krishna, similarly Her divine pond, Śrī Rādhā Kuṇḍa, is dear to the Lord. Of all the cowherd maidens, She is the dearmost consort to Lord Krishna.” I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

As the Lord was visiting various places in Vṛndāvan where Lord Krishna performed His Pastimes, He visited that famous tamarind tree that existed during the Dvāpara era. Sitting beneath the tamarind tree, the Lord’s memory of His confidential water-sporting Pastimes with the cowherd maidens was aroused when He saw the dancing gestures of the Yamunā’s waves. The Lord’s entire being was captured by tasting the sweetness of Śrī Rādhā within the depths of His heart. Identifying with that self-same sweetness and emotion that possessed His entire self, the Lord’s entire existence was stolen away. This place is indicated to be the place of origin of Gaura-tattva, for it was here that Lord Śyāmasundar became greatly absorbed in the divine mood of Śrimatī Rādhārāṇī. Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu, who is Himself the origin of all, eternally resides in this place. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

Lord Gaurāṅga mentioned a witty conversation that was carried on between a parrot and his mate. In their talk, Lord Krishna, the transcendental Cupid, is described to be illusioned due to His deep feelings of separation from Śrī Rādhā.
The female parrot said, “When Lord Krishna is with Rādhārāṇī, He is the enchanter of Cupid; otherwise, when He is alone, He Himself is enchanted by amorous feelings, even though He enchants the whole universe.” By this pastime, Lord Gaurāṅga charmed the devotees’ hearts by showing that Lord Krishna’s sweetness and charm ultimately lies in the fact that He can be subdued by pure love. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

It was in the sacred place of Prayāga, in the bathing area known as Daśāśvamedha Ghāṭa, that Lord Gaurāṅga taught Śrīla Rūpa Goswāmī that the ultimate objective of one’s devotional practices is to relish the sweet mellows found in Śrī Vṛndāvan, and the Lord instructed him to widely distribute that sweetness. Later in Kāśi, the Lord elaborately described to Śrīla Sanātan Goswāmī many topics of pure dedication, such as knowledge of proper acquaintance with the environment, the means of applying that knowledge, and the ultimate goal of obtaining pure love of Godhead. Also, at the special request of a Maharastrian brāhmaṇ and Tapana Miśra and other devotees, the Lord destroyed the ignorant conception of the māyāvādī renunciates in Vārāṇasī. Lord Gaurāṅgadeva personally met the impersonalists there in a public assembly, and pointed out that their mode of self-adoration was ultimately based on enviousness and narrow-mindedness. In this way the Lord established that factual independence was exhibited by those worshipping the Supreme Person. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.
While en route to Jagannāth Purī from Vṛndāvan, the Lord met and instructed Śrīla Rūpa Goswāmī in Prayāga. Following this, Lord Gaurāṅga arrived in Vārāṇasī where He found Prakāśānanda Saraswatī to be the leader of millions of impersonalist renunciates who were followers of Śrī Śaṅkarāchāryya. By His pure and affectionate personality, Lord Gaurāṅga rescued Prakāśānanda Saraswatī from the deep well of the transformation theory of Śaṅkarāchāryya and intoxicated the sannyāsīs and residents of Kāśī by engaging them in the glorification of Lord Krishna’s Holy Names. Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva was the transcendental expert who granted their passage over the material ocean, like a vessel carrying the nectar of all the scriptural conclusions handed down in the disciplic line from the sage Nārada to Śrīla Vyāsadeva. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

When Lord Chaitanyadeva was in Kāśī, He taught a grand assembly of the impersonalist renunciates that the Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam, as taught in the bonafide disciplic succession from Lord Krishna to Nārada and handed down by Śrīla Vyāsadeva, is the factual commentary on the conclusions of the Vedānta-sūtras. Śrī Gaurāṅga also explained the four fundamental verses of the Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam and revealed Lord Krishna as the ultimate reality beyond all duality and the original principle of the entire universal arrangement. By the Vedic aphorism “anāvṛttiḥ śabdāt anāvṛttiḥ śabdāt,” Lord Chaitanya established that conscious sound in its highest expression is Lord Krishna’s Holy Name, and that it bestows the utmost benefit by releasing the soul from its conditioned state of existence. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.
By explaining the famous ātma-rāma verse of the Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam sixty-one times, Lord Gaurāṅga sliced to pieces the impersonalist doctrine propagated by Śaṅkarāchāryya. The Lord also recited many references from the Upaniṣads, such as apāṇi-pādo javano grahītā paśyaty acakṣuḥ sa śṛṇoti akarṇaḥ, whereby He revealed the charming sweet nature of the Absolute Truth’s spiritual Pastimes. Lord Chaitanya fully censured the hateful conception of the impersonalists that Lord Krishna’s transcendental form, name, qualities, Pastimes, and Deity manifestation are simply an imaginary transformation of the illusory energy māyā. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

“Superior to the spiritual realm of Vaikuṇṭha is Mathurā, where Śrī Krishna first appears. Superior to Mathurā is the Vṛndāvan forest where Krishna enjoyed the rāsa dance. Better still is Govardhan Hill, which was the site of even more confidential Pastimes of love. But best of all is Rādhā Kuṇḍa, which is situated at the foot of Govardhan Hill, and holds the supreme position because it is over-flooded with the nectar of the highest kind of divine love. Who, acquainted with the science of devotion, will not aspire for the divine service of Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī at Rādhā Kuṇḍa?” Initially, Lord Gaurāṅga revealed the nature of pure loving service rendered unto the son of Nanda Mahārāj in the parental relationship. But when considering the flow of dedication’s sweet mellows, Lord Gaurāṅga described the ultimate aspect of the Supreme Lord’s personality to be Śrī Gopījanavallabha, whose divine figure is the unlimited reservoir of all the primary and secondary mellows tasted in pure devotion. Śrī Gaurāṅga also hinted that the joyful and charming rāsa-līlā Pastimes are an all-conscious reality, none other than the personal potency of Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī. Such transcendental Pastimes are found within the superexcellent and inconceivable spiritual world, and are the highest conception of spiritual existence, auspiciousness, and beauty. Lord Gaurāṅga suggested this to be the supreme achievable object of the living entities. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

In this manner Lord Gaurāṅgadeva taught that all scriptural conclusions, as perfectly passed down by the various spiritual preceptors through the medium of sound, culminate in the embodiment of Śrī Rādhāvinoda, the all-encompassing basis of proper acquaintance with the environ-
The means by which one may reach Lord Krishna is by chanting His Holy Names in the association of pure devotees, while the ultimate goal in pure love is service to Lord Krishna, who is so dear to the cowherd maidens of Vṛndāvan. Lord Gaurāṅgadeva taught these essential scriptural conclusions in the assembly of scholarly persons. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

Lord Gaurasundar explained this famous verse of the Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam sixty-one times to Śrila Sanātan Goswāmī, and later to Prakāśānanda Saraswati:

“Even the liberated souls fully satisfied in the self are irresistibly attracted by the superexcellent qualities of Krishna and surrender to Him with unalloyed devotion.” The Lord separately combined each of the eleven words found in that verse and established that each one is an enormous storehouse of unlimited wealth supporting the conclusion of pure devotion. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

Lord Gaurasundar revealed His disciplic line by inspiring Śrīla Sanātan Goswāmī, his younger brother Śrīla Rūpa Goswāmī, and Śrīla Jīva Goswāmī. The Lord requested them to excavate the lost places of pilgrimage and compose pure devotional literature which describes the application of spiritual practices and spontaneous devotion.
Lord Gaurāṅga also lovingly revealed His worshipable personality to the servitors of Śrī Jagannāth Deva at Nīlāchala (Śrī Purī-dhām). I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

Lord Gaurasundar strongly condemned those who externally accepted the dress of a renunciate yet, like monkeys, actually harbored desires for sense pleasures. On the other hand, He honoured that great devotee Rāmānanda Rāya’s devotional efforts to intimately teach some young girls a form of dance drama for the pleasure of Lord Jagannāth.
Considering Rāmānanda’s service to be on the platform of spontaneous devotion, the Lord proclaimed that such a level of service was a great fortune attainable only after millions of births. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

The famous spiritual preceptor of the Vishnuswāmī disciplic succession śuddhādvaita, Śrī Vallabha Bhaṭṭa, lived in the village of Āḍhāila in sacred Prayāga, and personally served Lord Gaurāṅgadeva with resolute devotion in his residence. Later in Jagannāth Purī, Lord Gaurāṅga allowed Vallabha Bhaṭṭa to enter into and relish the sweet taste experienced in parental attachment to baby Krishna. The Lord also arranged for him to learn the appropriate mantras for his worship from Śrī Gadādhara Paṇḍīt.
I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.
Diving deep into the reality of His own beauty and sweetness, Lord Govinda stole the mood of Rādhārāṇī and, garbing Himself in Her brilliant lustre, appeared as Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu. For the last twelve years of His manifest Pastimes He was deeply absorbed in union and separation, and He shared His heart’s inner feelings with His most confidential devotees such as Swarūp Dāmodar and Rāmānanda Rāya: bāhire viṣajvālā hoy, antare ānandamoy.

“The wonderful characteristic of divine love of Krishna is that although externally it works like fiery lava, internally it is like sweet nectar that fills the heart with the greatest joy.” Volcanic eruptions of ecstasy flowed from the heart of Śrī Gaurāṅga in the agony of separation from Krishna. This Golden Lord, who appeared like an intoxicated elephant, is none other than Lord Govinda. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, embracing the neck of Śrī Swarūp Dāmodar, began to sorrowfully recite the prayers Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī had previously spoken in the agony of separation when Lord Krishna left Vrindāvan for Mathurā. The Lord would continuously taste the mood of Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī, who was experiencing untold agony from the burning fire of Her tragic separation from Lord Krishna. With a heavy heart, the Lord would describe what He was directly realising in divine trance. Those realisations are just like dreams to ordinary men. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.
The eightfold symptoms depicting the moods of pure dedication would decorate and radiantly enhance the beauty of the Lord’s bodily parts. Sometimes He appeared like a tortoise who had withdrawn his limbs into his shell, and at other times His body appeared elongated due to His joints becoming dislocated. Sometimes Lord Gaurasundar’s figure was as tender and aromatic as a lotus flower. At other times the Lord’s body would appear red, yellow, or brilliant with the white hue of the jasmine flower. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

Grief-stricken and overwhelmed with tragic feelings of separation, Lord Chaitanya quickly ran to the lion-gate of Lord Jagannāth’s grand temple. Moments later, the Lord fell to the ground. In deep separation He manifested the form of the tortoise incarnation Kūrmadeva, and an extraordinarily sweet fragrance began to emanate from the Lord’s unconscious figure. This attracted the telāṅgī cows who resided at Lord Jagannāth’s Temple, and they surrounded the Lord. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

Once on a moonlit night, Lord Gaurāṅga-deva, relishing the sweet mellows of Lord Krishna’s Pastimes, was wandering along the ocean’s shore with His associates. Suddenly the Lord saw the reflection of the moon dancing upon the rolling waves. Unexpectedly, the Lord became overwhelmed by recollections of Lord Krishna’s Pastimes in the Yamunā River and fell unconscious. Next, Lord Gaurāṅga’s body, unseen by the devotees, became as light as a piece of dried wood and was gracefully carried away by the wind-god while lying upon the crest of the ocean’s rolling waves in a divine trance. Realizing Lord Krishna’s watersport Pastimes in the Kālindī River with His dearmost cowherd-maiden friends, the Lord dove deep into an ocean of divine ecstasy. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

After searching for the Lord throughout the night, the exhausted devotees finally found Him at night’s end near Chakratīrtha, His elongated form lying upon the moist sand. The devotees’ eyes were filled with joy as they glanced upon the delicate and serene figure of their Lord. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

As the anxious devotees began to loudly chant the Holy Names of Krishna, this divine vibration entered the Lord’s ears and touched the depths of His heart. Immediately the Lord’s dislocated joints reunited, and He displayed the beautiful figure which their eyes were accustomed to relishing. In a semiconscious state, the Lord began to describe with deep feelings of separation what He had seen while absorbed in divine trance. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.
In the sacred waters of the Yamunā in Vṛndāvan, Śrī Rādhā-Govinda, along with Their dearmost cowherd-maiden friends, perform various charming water-sport Pastimes. These divine Pastimes are sometimes revealed, sometimes hidden, sometimes in opposition to each other, and sometimes harmonious. In this way the Lord’s Pastimes are couched in different gestures which bring about different types of divine hankering. The melodious tune of this confidential spiritual treasure which astounds the entire universe was distributed by Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

Upon glancing at the Chāṭaka hill, intolerable feelings of separation overwhelmed the Lord, and different Pastimes in the mood of profound adoration were incited, whereby the Lord began to rub His beautiful face on the ground. When Śrī Gaurāṅga would remember the water-sport Pastimes of Lord Krishna, He would jump into the ocean and exhibit the divine symptoms of one intoxicated by pure love. By performing these Pastimes, the Lord would inundate the devotees’ hearts with waves from the grand ocean of love of Krishna. Those desperate waves carried both transcendental anxiety and joy up onto the shore of the devotees’ hearts. Such inconceivable auspiciousness was bestowed only upon the Lord’s most surrendered associates. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.
Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu is not only beyond the mundane experiences of sight and sound, but He also arrests all intellectual endeavors to know Him. Being situated in pure love of Godhead, He remains a mystery and astonishes even those living entities who are fixed in self-realization. The revealed Vedas of Lord Brahmā and the Tantric literatures of Lord Shiva are simply searching after Śrī Gaurasundar, reality the beautiful. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

By freely distributing the Holy Name of Krishna, Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva purified the scholarly intellectual class, the labourer class, the illiterate, and even the lowest sections of society. The Lord alone was the embodiment of the greatest wealth for all sincere and gentle souls, both the rich and the poor, the aristocratic and the lowborn. Therefore, Lord Chaitanya is respected and honoured by men and women alike as the saviour of all, in both the mundane and spiritual worlds. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

Like a golden moon, Śrī Gaurachandra appeared in the year 1407 Śakābda (1486 A.D.), at the onset of a lunar eclipse on a full-moon evening in the month of March. When the Absolute Truth Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva incarnated in the beautiful courtyard of Śachīdevī, the residents of Māyāpur were bathing in the sacred Ganges, congregationally chanting the Holy Names of Hari, and making offerings of various types of jewels to the Lord. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

This is the all-conquering conclusion: the highest conception of the Ultimate Reality must also be the highest form of ānandam, ecstasy. Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu is Krishna, ecstasy Himself, tasting His own sweetness and dancing in ecstatic joy. His own Holy Name is the cause of His ecstasy, expressed as dancing, and the Holy Name is the effect of His ecstasy, expressed as chanting. The cause is the effect. The dynamo is creating ecstatic energy which makes Him dance, and His chanting distributes that ecstasy to others. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

Śrī Īśvara Purī became very fortunate when Lord Gaurāṅga exhibited His causeless mercy by accepting initiation from him. Śrī Keśava Bhāratī was similarly favoured in that in his presence, Lord Gaurāṅga shaved His beautiful curly hair and accepted from him the garments of a renunciate. Lord Chaitanya gave undivided attention to Śrī Mādhavendra Purī, stating that his attachment for serving Lord Krishna’s kiśora form in conjugal love was the highest expression of dedication. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.
I offer my respects unto Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, who rose like a golden moon in Śrī Māyāpur in 1407 Śakābda, revealed the pastime of accepting the garments of the renounced order, sannyās, in 1431 Śakābda in order to benedict the entire material universe, and disappeared beyond the ordinary vision of the people of this world in 1455 Śakābda. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

With great joy Śrī Gaurasundar told His dearmost associates Śrī Swarūp Dāmodar and Rāmānanda Rāya that the process of congre-gationally chanting the Holy Names of Krishna bestows the highest benediction upon the living entities in this age of Kali:

`harṣe prabhu kohena, “śuno svarūpa-rāma-rāya nāma saṅkīrttana kalau, parama upāya”`

In His famous composition Śrī Śikṣāṣṭakam also, Lord Gaurāṅga has placed the chanting of Lord Krishna’s Names on the topmost level of importance. The Supreme Lord first taught that chanting Lord Krishna’s Names in pure love of Godhead perfectly nourishes and fully satisfies all the living entities in the universe. I offer my obeisances to that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

Oh my Golden Lord! (Suvarṇa-varṇa hemāṅga) Oh ocean of prema! Kindly grant me the wealth of Your divine love! Please give some slight attention to this fallen soul and pardon his unlimited offenses. There are so many servants of Śrī Rūpa who are so dear to You. My only aspiration is that You count me as one of those servitors. Oh Gaurasundar, You are the sole protector and embodiment of good fortune for me, Rāmānanda Dās. I offer my obeisances to you, Oh Gaurāṅga Sundar, my most beautiful Golden Lord, the divine form of Krishna-prema.

Whoever faithfully recites this composition of seventy prayers known as the Premadhāma-deva-stotram will be granted the opportunity to serve that beautiful Golden Lord, Gaurāṅga Sundar, who is none other than Śyāmasundar Himself covered by the heart and halo (bhāva and kānti) of Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī.

pañchame śata-gaurābde śrī-siddhānta-sarasvatī śrīdharah ko ’pi tach chiṣyas tridaṇḍi-nauti-sundaram

These prayers have been composed in the fifth century after the appearance of Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu by a certain sannyās disciple of Śrīla Saraswati Ṭhākur named Śrīdhar (Śrīla Bhakti Rakṣak Śrīdhar Dev-Goswāmī Mahārāj).
Songs to Lord Nityānanda
In the land of Nadia, on the island of Godruma, the magnanimous Lord Nityānanda has opened up the marketplace of the Holy Name in order to deliver all the fallen souls.

Oh people of faith! People of faith! By the order of Lord Gaurāṅga, O brothers, I beg these three requests of you: Chant “Krishna!”, worship Krishna, and teach others about Krishna.

Being careful to remain free of offenses, just take the Holy Name of Lord Krishna. Krishna is your mother, Krishna is your father, and Krishna is the treasure of your life.

Give up all material activities and become a member of Krishna’s family. Be kind to other souls by chanting and distributing the Holy Name of Krishna for this is the essence of all spiritual practices.
The holy lotus feet of Nitāi, cooling like ten million moons—
In the shade of which the world gains soothing relief;
Without that Nitāi, O brother,
No one can reach Rādhā and Krishna—
Clasp His lotus feet with full conviction.

One who never got His connection, passed his life in vain—
Such an animal is so very wicked;
He whose mouth never uttered ‘Nitāi,’ merged in mundane pleasures—
How can his aristocratic lineage save him?

Maddened with pride,
forgetting the lotus feet of Nitāi—
I embrace untruth as truth;
But when Nitāi gives His Grace
you’ll reach Rādhā and Krishna in Braja—O embrace the lotus feet of Nitāi!

nitāiyer charaṇa satya, tāḥāra sevaka nitya,
nitāi-pada sadā koro āśa
narottama boṣho duḥkhī, nitāi more koro sukhī
rākho rāṅgā-charaṇera pāśa

4 The lotus feet of Nitāi are truth,
   His servitors are eternal—
   Ever aspire for the shelter of His feet;
   Narottam is very sad— O Nitāi make me happy—
   Please keep me at You-r lovely lotus feet!

1 Lord Nityānanda is my wealth. Lord Gaurachandra is my master. The youthful Divine Couple is my life. Advaita Āchāryya is my strength. Gadādhara is my family. Narahari Sarakara is my glory.

vaiṣṇavera pada-dhūli  tāhe mora snāna-keli

2 The dust of the devotees’ lotus feet is my bathing water. The chanting of the devotees’ names is my satisfaction. Considering the merits of all Vedic literatures in the light of devotional service, I have concluded that the Śrīmad Bhāgavatam is the best of all scriptures.

vaiṣṇavera uchiṣṭa  tāhe mora mano-niṣṭha

3 My mind is firmly convinced of the spiritual benefit obtained by eating the remnants of foodstuff left by the devotees. The names of the devotees are my happiness. The land of Vṛndāvan is the enclosure within which I keep my mind. Thus speaks the lonely servant Narottam.
Nitāi guṇamaṇi āmāra
by Śrila Lochan dās Ṭhākur

nitāi guṇamaṇi āmāra nitāi guṇamaṇi
āniyā premera banyā bhāsāla abanī

1 Oh my Lord Nityānanda, the jewel of all good qualities; Oh Nitāi, the jewel of all good qualities has brought a flood of ecstatic love of Godhead that has drowned the whole world.

premabanyā loye nitāi āila gāuḍa deše
dubilo bhakata-gaṇa dinahīna bhāse

2 Lord Nityānanda has brought this overwhelming deluge of love of Godhead to the land of Bengal on Lord Chaitanya’s order. The devotees have been inundated by this deluge but the unfortunate non-devotees have remained floating on that ecstatic ocean.

dinahīna patita pāmara nāhi bāche
brahmāra durlabha prema sabākāre jāche

3 The sinful, lowly, fallen and wretched did not desire such divine love but my Lord Nitāi begged them all to accept this supreme form of divine love which is very difficult for even Brahmā to obtain.

ābaddha koruṇā-sindhu kāṭiyā muhāna
ghore ghole bule prema-amiyāra bāna

4 The ocean of mercy had formerly been tightly sealed, but Lord Nitāi cut a channel in its boundary to allow the great flooding waves of ecstatic love to wash down from house to house.

lochan bole heno nitāi jebā nā bhajilo
jāniyā śuniyā sei ātmaghātī hoilo

5 Lochan dās says, “Whoever has not worshipped this Lord Nitāi, or accepted the great gift offered by Him, that person knowingly commits suicide.”
The great personality, Lord Nityānanda Prabhu, is free from anger and full of transcendental ecstasy. He wanders throughout the towns, free from false pride and arrogance.

He travels from door to door to the homes of the fallen souls, freely distributing the Hare Krishna Mahāmantra.

With straw between His teeth, He begs all who cross his path, “Worship Lord Gaurahari and you will purchase me.”

Saying this Nityānanda falls to the ground, appearing like a golden mountain rolling in the dust.

If within a person attachment for this incarnation of Nityānanda has not arisen, then Lochan Dās says, “That such a sinful person simply comes and goes (takes birth and dies) in futile misery.”
Lord Nityānanda and Lord Gaurachandra, are the two most merciful lords. They are the crest-jewels of all incarnations and the only source of transcendental ecstatic joy.

O brother! I implore you to worship Śrī Chaitanya-Nitāi with firm faith. Give up your attachment to sense gratification and merge into this nectar by chanting the Names of Hari.

Look, O brother! There are no benefactors in the three worlds who are as merciful as Them. Even birds and animals are fulfilled and stones melt, by hearing about Their glorious qualities.
Absorbing myself in mundanity (the cycle of death and rebirth), remaining fallen, I have no desire or aspiration to serve Their lotus feet. Thus I am simply forced to suffer the reactions for my own karma by Yāmarāj, the Lord of death and punishment. So sings Lochan Dās.
‘dayāl nitāi chaitanya’ bo’le nāch re āmār man
nāch re āmār man, nāch re āmār man

1 Oh my mind, just dance! Oh my mind, just dance! Oh my mind, please dance, chanting, “Dayāl Nitāi Chaitanya!”

(emon dayāl to nāi he, mār kheye prema dey)
(tabe) aparādha dūre jābe, pābe prema-dhan (aparādhera-bichāra to nāi he) tokhon kṛṣṇa-nāme ruchi hobe, ghuchibe bandhan

2 Such a merciful personality as Nityānanda Prabhu is not to be found anywhere. He suffers a beating from Jagāi and Mādhāi and still gives them love of God.
When you become offenceless, you will obtain love of God; but in the Names of Chaitanya and Nitāi there is no consideration of offences. Once you have a taste for the Holy Name of Krishna, bondage to this material world will come to an end.

(anurāg to hobe he) tokhon anāyāse saphal hobe jīvera jīvan (kṛṣṇa-rati binā jīvan to miche he ) šeše vṛndāvane rādhā-śyāmer pābe daraśan (gaura-kṛpā hole he)

3 When there is attachment to the Holy Name of Krishna, then, very easily, the life of a living being becomes successful. Without attachment to Krishna, life is simply false. If the mercy of Lord Gaura is there, then at the end of life one will obtain the beautiful vision of Śrī Śrī Rādhā and Śyāma in Vṛndāvan.
Songs to Lord Chaitanya Sāvaraṇa-Śrī-Gaura-mahimā
by Śrila Narottam dāsa Ṭhākur

gaurāṅgera duṣṭi pada, jār dhana sampada, se jāne bhakati-rasa-sār

gaurāṅgera madhura-līlā, jār karṇe praveśilā,

1 Anyone who has accepted the two lotus feet of Lord Chaitanya can understand the true essence of devotional service. Whoever hears of the sweet Pastimes of Lord Chaitanya, their heart will become pure.

je gaurāṅgera nāma loy, tāra hoy premodoy, tāre mui jāi bolihāri
gaurāṅga-guṇete jhure, nitya-līlā tāre sphure, se jana bhakati-adhikārī

2 In one who takes the Holy Name of Gaurāṅga, there is an awakening of love of Godhead. To such a person I say, “Bravo, excellent!” If one appreciates the transcendental qualities of Lord Gaurāṅga, the eternal Pastimes manifest in their heart. Such a person has real devotional qualification.

gaurāṅgera saṅgi-gaṇe, nitya-siddha kori māne, se jāy brajendra-suta-pāś
śrī-gauḍa-maṇḍala-bhūmi, jebā jāne chintāmaṇi, tāra hoy braja-bhūme bās

3 By considering the associates of Lord Gaurāṅga to be eternally perfect, one can attain the association of Śrī Krishna in Braja Dhām. Whoever considers the land of Lord Gaurāṅga, Śrī Nabadwīp Dhām to be the land of transcendental touchstone, that person takes residence in Braja Dhām, Śrī Vṛndāvan.
gaura-prema-rasārṇave, se taraṅge jebā ḍube,
se rādhā-mādhava-antaraṅga
grhe vā vanete thāke, ‘hā gaurāṅga’ bo’le ḍāke,

4 Whoever dives into the waves of the nectarean ocean of love of Lord Gaurāṅga becomes an intimate associate of Śrī Śrī Rādhā-Mādhava. Whether one lives in a house or in the forest, if they chant ‘Oh Lord Gaurāṅga!’ Narottam dās begs to attain their association.
ākṣepa

by Śrila Narottam dās Ṭhākur

1 Oh Lord Gaura! I have not worshiped You and have been robbed of the jewel of divine love by my own negligence.

adhane jatana kori dhana teyā-ginu

2 Although I am in need of Your wealth, I have endeavoured to reject Your riches and instead I have dived into sinful material activity.

3 Avoiding the association of saintly persons, I have enjoyed sporting with materialistic people. For that reason I have become bound in the noose of fruitive activity and its reactions.

viṣoya-biṣama-biṣa satata khāinu
gaura-kīrttana rase magana nā hoinu

4 I have perpetually drunk the horrible poison of material sense gratification and have never become absorbed in the sweet nectar of the chanting of Lord Gaura’s Names.

5 Oh why has my heart not experienced any satisfaction and why has Narottam dās not simply perished?

Avatāra Sāra       Gorā Avatāra
Keno nā bhajili tāre
Kori nīre bāsa       Gelo nā piyāsa
Āpāna karama phere

1 The incarnation of Śrī Gaura is the most excellent of all incarnations. Why haven’t I worshipped Him? It is as if I was surrounded by water but denied myself a drink, returning to my own fruitive activity.

Kaṇṭa-kera taru        Sadāi sebili (mana) Amṛta pā’bāra āše
Prema-kalpataru        Śrī gaurāṅga āmāra
tāhāre bhabili biše

2 I chewed the thorns of the tree of worldly life and considered the blood that flowed through my mouth to be nectar. When offered the fruits of the wish-fulfilling tree of ecstatic love of Lord Gaurāṅga, I rejected them, thinking them to be poison.

Saura-bhera āše        Palāśa śuṅkili (mana) Nāsāte paśilo kiṭa
‘Ikṣu-daṇḍa’ bhāvi’ kāṭha chuṣili (mana)

3 Desirous of smelling a sweet scent, I sniffed at what I thought to be a fragrant flower. Alas, that flower was odourless like the palāśa flower and instead an insect flew up my nose and bit me. Thinking material life to be sweet like sugarcane, I tried to taste its nectar. Instead, it was like chewing dry wood. In this way all my attempts at enjoyment were false.
‘hāra’ boliyā golāya parili (mana)

4 Admitting defeat, wasted and worn out, I await the snake of death. Declaring it to be cool and soothing, I have embraced the fire of material life, only to suffer intense misery, as if struck by lightning.

samsāra bhajili śrī-gaurāṅga bhulili
nā śunili sādhura kathā
iha-parakāla dukāla khoyāli (mana) khāili āpana māthā

5 Worshipping my family and my material life, I forgot Lord Gaurāṅga and didn’t listen to the instructions of the saints. Now in my final days, I realise I have died twice, for not only am I leaving this mortal body, but I am also dead while living, having wasted my life in material indulgence.
gāy gorā madhur svare

1 Lord Gaurasundar sings in a very sweet voice, “Hare Krishna, Hare Krishna, Krishna Krishna, Hare Hare, Hare Rāma, Hare Rāma, Rāma Rāma, Hare Hare.”

gṛhe thāko, vane thāko, sadā ‘hari’ bole’ ḍāko, sukhe duḥkhe bhulo nāko, vadane harinām koro re

2 Whether you live at home or in the forest always chant the Lord’s Holy Name; in happiness or sadness, don’t forget—chant and fill your lips with the Holy Name.

māyā-jāle baddha ho’ye, ācho miche kāja lo’ye, ekhona o chetana peye, rādhā-mādhava-nām bolo re

3 Bound in māyā’s net you’ve slaved and toiled in vain. But now that you have a human life and consciousness, chant the Lord’s Name, “Rādhā-Mādhava.”

jīvana hoilo śeṣa, nā bhajile hṛṣīkeśa bhaktivinod-upadeśa, ekbār nāma-rāsa māto re

4 This life must surely end soon, and you have not worshiped Hṛṣīkeśa, the master of the senses. Bhaktivinoda advises: at least once, taste the nāma-rāsa, the nectar of the Holy Name.

puline puline gaḍā-gaḍi dibo,
kori’ kṛṣṇa-kolāholo

2 When, at some outcaste’s home shall I give up all thoughts of caste and beg to share with him humble prasādam and drink the water of the Saraswati? Along the banks, my voice choked with my ecstasy I’ll chant “Krishna” in great delight.

dhāma-bāsī jane, prāṇati koriyā, māgibo kṛpāra leśa
vaiṣṇava-charaṇa-reṇu gāya mākhi, dhori’ avadhūta-veśa

3 And when will I bow down before a resident of the holy dhām and beg from him a drop of mercy; when oh when will I smear my body with dust from a Vaiṣṇava’s holy feet and wear the mendicant’s cloth?

gauḍa-braja-bane, bheda nā heribo, hoibo baraja-bāsī
dhāmera svarūpa, sphuribe nayane, hoibo rādhāra dāsī
Then I shall see no difference between the forest of Gauḍa and Braja, and I will be transformed into a resident of the dhām. The true nature of the Lord’s divine abode will manifest before my eyes, and I will become a maidservant of Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī.

1   The people of this world have now been devoured by the dense darkness of this age of Kali and all auspicious material and spiritual have gone far away. Thus the souls of Kali are apathetic to the transcendental gems offered by the greatly merciful Lord Gaura.

bhāi re bhāi! gorā guṇa kohone nā jāya koto śata-ānana koto chatur-ānana boroṇiyā ora nāhi pāya

“If one knows these two kinds of Vedic knowledge, he still does not know anything. But if one knows Lord Gaurāṅga, he knows the most precious knowledge. Nayanānanda says: Such a person knows everything. All perfections are found in the palm of their hand.”
Jadi Gaura nā ho’to
by Śrila Vāsudeva Ghoṣa

jadi gaura nā ho’to, tobe ki hoito, kemone dhoritām de rādhāra mahimā prema-rasa-sīmā jagate jānāta ke?

1 If Lord Gaura had not come, then what would have become of us? How could we have maintained our lives? If He had not come, then how could we know of the glories of Śrī Rādhā and the topmost limit of ecstatic love of Krishna?

madhura vṛndā, vipina mādhurī, praveśa chāturī sāra
baraja-juvatī, bhāvera bhakati, śakati hoito kāra?

2 Who would have had the capacity to render ecstatic devotional service, following the mood of the damsels of Braja? Indeed, the clever expertise of the Braja-gopīs is essential for entering the supremely sweet forest of Vṛndā, Śrī Vṛndāvan.

gāo punah punah, gaurāṅgera guṇa, sarala koriyā mana
e bhava-sāgare, emona doyāla, nā dekhiye eka-jana

3 Sing again and again the wonderful qualities of Lord Gaurāṅga while keeping your heart simple. In the ocean of this material world, not a single person has ever seen such a magnanimous and merciful Lord.

gaurāṅga boliyā, nā genu goliyā kemone dhorinu de vāsur hiyā, pāṣāṇa diyā
kemone goḍiyāche
Even though I am chanting ‘Gaurāṅga!’ somehow I have not melted in ecstatic love. So how have I maintained the burden of this body? How is it that the creator has given this Vāsu a stone in place of his heart?
Without Lord Gaurāṅga, it is not possible to go any further. Will there ever be an incarnation like Him, an incarnation that preached ecstatic love of Godhead as He did?

duramati ati patita pāṣaṇḍī
prāṇe nā mārilo kore harināma diye hṛdoya śodhilo
jachī giyā ghore ghore

He did not kill the fallen wicked-hearted blasphemers. Instead He went from house to house visiting them. He begged them to chant Lord Krishna’s Holy Names. He gave them the Holy Names and purified their hearts.

bhava biriṅchira vāñchito je prema jagata phelilo ḍhāli
kāṅgāle pāiyā khā-ilo nāchiye
bājaiye karatāli

To the world He freely gave the rare gift of ecstatic love of Godhead, a gift even Brahmā and Shiva attain only with great difficulty. Attaining that gift, the poor people of this world danced and clapped their hands.

hāsiye kā̐diye preme gaḍāgaḍi
pulake byāpilo aṅga
chaṇḍāle brāhmaṇe kore kolākuli
kobe bā chilo e raṅga
They laughed and wept. Overcome with ecstasy, they rolled on the ground. The hairs of their bodies stood erect. The priests and outcastes embraced. There was great bliss.

\begin{align*} &\text{ḍākiye hā̐kiye khol karatāle} \\
&\text{gāiye dhāiye phire} \\
&\text{dekhiyā śamana tarāsa pāiye} \\
&\text{kapāṭa hānilo dvāre} \end{align*}

Loudly they called out the Holy Names playing the \textit{mṛdaṅga} and \textit{karatālas}. They sang, ran, and danced in a circle. Seeing all this, Yamarāj, the Lord of death became afraid, fled, and knocked on people’s doors in order to hide.

&\text{uṭhilo maṅgala sora} \\
&\text{kohe premānanda emona gaurāṅga} \\

An auspicious tumult arose. The three worlds were filled with bliss. Premānanda says: “Alas! Attachment for Lord Gaurāṅga did not arise in me.”

1 His peerless form defeats the purest gold. His form is decorated with a garland of many kinds of flowers. His form is covered with hairs standing erect, hairs that defeat the filaments of kadamba flowers. His form is covered with drop after drop of perspirations.

3 Overcome, Lord Gauracandra has no power to walk. Now He has no power to speak. Half words are all He speaks. Overcome with ecstatic love, He chants, “Hari! Hari!” Everyone, even the lowest outcaste, He embraces in His arms.

The Holy Appearance Day of Śrī Gaurasundar
by Śrila Bhakti Rakṣak Śrīdhar Dev-Goswāmī Mahārāj

Why has the Lord appeared suddenly with golden complexion and with golden dress just like the morning sun? Why has He come in the middle of springtime as everything feels so beautiful and wonderful?

2

I cannot understand why, but all the trees, plants and creepers are full of fruits and flowers and they are making song and dance with Mahāprabhu.

I am very fallen and unqualified. Why is this sound vibration coming to me, and why am I getting inspiration through it. Those who have high caste, vast knowledge and material wealth, they have so much ego and pride. Why are they suffering?
The sky and the air are so beautiful in the spring season, and they are naturally nourishing and inspiring everybody. In the same way the sound vibration of the devotees spreads everywhere automatically as they distribute Krishna’s Name.

chaudikete dhvani ki apūrva śuni bahujana ucharola
hare kṛṣṇa rāma nāma divya-dhāma
hari hari hari bolo

What a remarkable sound is heard in all directions bringing jubilation to all the people. The devotees chant the divine Names “Hare, Krishna, Rāma,” and the transcendental abode manifests. Chant “Hari Hari Hari!”

phālgunī pūrṇimā hindola rańgimā sujana-bhajana rāge
saṅkīrttana sane marama gahane
nā jāni kibhāva jāge

On His holy appearance day, the festival of Holly takes place. All the devotees are chanting as well as all the Hindus. No-one can understand the feeling and the substance that comes within the heart from that saṅkīrttan.

sandhyā samāgama tapana magana
keno hema ghana kole aparūpa kata pūraba parvvata
suvarṇa chandramā bhāle

As the sunset approaches, the sun shines on the mountain illuminating it like it has golden ornaments. This is especially so in the springtime. Then as the moon rises it also beautifies that mountain with its rays.

suvarṇa chandramā paśiche niilimā
se nīla bilīna heme
ithe kiba bhāya sādhu-jana gāya
kalaṅka nā rahe preme
The blue sky is covered by the Golden Moon and when the devotees glorify the Lord with their discussions, no other conception or motive can exist other than Krishna consciousness. At that time, prema, divine love descends automatically without any impediment.

mahājane bole grahaṇera chole
saṅge nāma saṅkīrttana gaurachandrodaya pāpa rāhu kṣaya
chandraśobhā prema dhana

The great devotees say, take up your spiritual path with the congregational chanting of the Lord’s Holy Names. With the appearance of Śrī Gaurachandra, all sinfulness is removed and everyone attains the treasure of love of Godhead.

marmajña sakale keho kutūhale nilimā bilina chāde
channa avatāra lukāna kāhāra
rādhā-ruchi-rūpa-chāde

Everyone who engages in this Nāma-saṅkīrttan of Mahāprabhu, comes to enquire sincerely and to know the innermost secret of the Lord’s bluish colour absorbed by his golden features. This is the hidden incarnation of the Lord and the concealed feature of His form is that he is tasting the threefold relish of Śrī Rādhā.

ithe heno stuti rādhā-bhāva dyuti suvalita śyāmarāo
udilo gaurāṅga nāma-prema saṅga
jaya jaya gorā gāo

Thus I pray to the dark cowherd Śyāmasundar who has taken the mood and effulgence of Śrī Rādhā. That Lord, Śrī Chaitanya appeared with the chanting of the pure divine name; everyone chant the glories of that Golden Lord, Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu.

āśroya loiyā bhaje, tāre kṛṣṇa nāhi tyaje
āro saba more akāraṇa

1 O brother, hear my words with rapt attention: The lotus feet of the Vaiṣṇavas are the most valuable treasure in the world. Take shelter of those Vaiṣṇavas, and worship them. Krishna cannot abandon one who worships Him in this way. All others meet a meaningless death.

2 The water which has washed the lotus feet of the Vaiṣṇavas bestows devotional service in pure love of Godhead. There is nothing as effective in attaining this divine love. I place the dust from the lotus feet of the Vaiṣṇavas upon my head. I wear no other ornament.

3 The purifying power of the waters of the various places of pilgrimage is described in the Purāṇas, although this is something of a deceptive trick. Actually there is nothing which is as purifying as the water which has washed the lotus feet of the Vaiṣṇavas. This water fulfills all desires.

Moment by moment my mind finds constant pleasure in the association of the Vaiṣṇavas. I always seek the company of the devotees of Lord Krishna. Poor-hearted Narottam dās cries, “I cannot maintain my composure any longer. Why have I fallen into such a low condition of life that I cannot get the association of the Vaiṣṇavas?”

Various Songs of the Vaisnava Āchāryas
When the great soul Nārada Muni plays his stringed vīṇā, the Holy Name of Rādhikā-Ramaṇa descends and immediately appears amidst the kīrttan of the Lord’s devotees.

Like a monsoon cloud, the Holy Name showers pure nectar into their ears. All the devotees, due to great ecstasy, enthusiastically dance to their heart’s content.

All the inhabitants of the universe become maddened upon entering these intoxicating showers of divine sweetness. Some people cry, some dance and others become fully intoxicated within their minds.
pañcha-vadana, nārade dhorī',

4 Lord Shiva embraces Nārada Muni and repeatedly calls out with loud screams of ecstatic joy, while Lord Brahmā dances very ecstatically and exclaims, “Everyone chant ‘Haribol! Haribol!’” sahasrānana, parama-sukhe, ‘hari hari’ boli gāy

nāma-prabhāve, mātilo viśva,

5 In supreme happiness the thousand-faced Ananta Śeṣa sings and calls out, “Hari! Hari!” By the influence of the transcendental vibration of that Name, the whole universe becomes ecstatically maddened as everyone tastes and relishes the mellows of the Holy Name.

6 The Holy Name of Śrī Krishna has fulfilled all of my desires by thus manifesting on everyone’s tongue. Bhaktivinoda, the humble servant of the Lord, therefore prays at the feet of Śrīla Rūpa Gosvāmī that the chanting of the Holy Name may always continue in this way.
I offer my respectful obeisances unto the Six Goswāmīs, namely Śrī Rūpa Goswāmī, Śrī Sanātana Goswāmī, Śrī Raghunāth Bhaṭṭa Goswāmī, Śrī Raghunāth dās Goswāmī, Śrī Jīva Goswāmī, and Śrī Gopāl Bhaṭṭa Goswāmī, who are very expert in scrutinizingly studying all the revealed scriptures. They are just like the ocean of love of God, and they are popular both with the gentle and with the ruffians, because they are not envious of anyone. Whatever they do, they are all-pleasing to everyone, and they are fully blessed by Lord Chaitanya. Thus they are engaged in missionary activities meant to deliver all the conditioned souls in the material universe.

vande rūpa-sanātanau raghu-yugau
śrī-jīva-gopālakau

I offer my respectful obeisances unto the Six Goswāmīs, namely Śrī Rūpa Goswāmī, Śrī Sanātan Goswāmī, Śrī Raghunāth Bhaṭṭa Goswāmī, Śrī Raghunāth dās Goswāmī, Śrī Jīva Goswāmī, and Śrī Gopāl Bhaṭṭa Goswāmī, who were chanting very loudly everywhere in Vṛndāvan, shouting, “Queen of Vṛndāvan, Rādhārāṇī! O Lalitā! O son of Nanda Mahārāj! Where are you all now? Are you just on the hill of Govardhan, or are you under the trees on the bank of the Yamunā? Where are you?” These were their moods in executing Krishna consciousness.
Srī Nāmāṣṭakam 7
by Śrila Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur

1. O Holy Name! Your glories are boundless! Therefore I bow down at Your lotus feet again and again.

2. O grand festival of Gokula! O ocean of bliss! I fall down at Your lotus feet, for I am feeling very distressed and troubled at heart.

3. You are Lord Krishna, Your divine form is fully perfect and complete, and You are the origin of all transcendental mellows. Falling down at Your lotus feet, I sing of Your divine qualities.

4. You definitely destroy the multitude of afflictions of that person who takes exclusive shelter at Your holy feet.

5. You destroy all of their offences, even to the extent of the Nāma-aparādhās (the ten offenses against the chanting of the Holy Name).
Cleansing them of all impurities, You are then seated upon the throne of their heart as their supreme shelter.

You are delightful and beautiful, the personification of complete cognizance and condensed bliss. The Vedas sing of You, saying, “He is the emporium of all sweetness, the personification of all transcendental mellows and in the centre of all spiritual relationships.”

At the lotus feet of Śrīla Rūpa Goswāmī, Bhaktivinoda constantly begs at every moment for the direct revelation of the Holy Name.
Ki-rūpe pāibo sevā
by Śrīla Narottam dās Ṭhākur

Ki-rūpe pāibo sevā mui durāchāra
śrī-guru-vaiṣṇave rati na hoilo āmāra

1 I have no devotional attachment for either the Vaiṣṇavas or my Spiritual Master. How is it possible for a rascal like me to attain devotional service?

aśeṣa māyāte mana magana hoilo
vaiṣṇavete leśa-mātra rati nā janmilo

2 My mind is always drowning in illusion. I have not even the smallest fragment of devotion for the Vaiṣṇavas.

biṣoye bhuliya andha hoinu divā-niśi
gole phāsa dite phere māyā se piśāchī

3 I have become blind by constantly meditating on the objects of the senses. The witch Māyādevī has placed a hangman’s noose around my neck.

māyāre koriyā jaya chāḍāna na jāya
sādhu-kṛpā binā āro nahiko upāya

4 It is impossible for me (on my own) to overcome and leave behind Māyā (and be able to engage in divine service—sevā). There is no means by which this is possible other than through the mercy of saintly devotees (sādhus).

adoṣa daraśi-prabhu patita-uddhāra
ei-bāro narottame koroho nistāra

5 Oh master, Oh purifier of the sinful, Oh saviour of the fallen souls! You do not see the faults of others. Please this time rescue Narottam dās.
O mind, just worship the lotus feet of the son of Nanda, which make one fearless. Having obtained this rare human birth, cross over this ocean of worldly existence through the association of saintly persons.

Both in the day and at night I remain sleepless, suffering the pains of the heat and cold, the wind and the rain. For a fraction of flickering happiness I have uselessly served wicked and miserly men.

What assurance of real happiness is there in all of one’s wealth, youthfulness, sons, and family members? This life is tottering like a drop of water on a lotus petal; therefore you should always serve and worship the divine feet of Lord Hari.
It is the desire and great longing of Govinda dās to engage himself in the nine processes of bhakti, namely hearing the glories of Lord Hari and chanting those glories, constantly remembering Him and offering prayers to Him, serving the Lord’s lotus feet, serving the Supreme Lord as a servant, worshipping Him with flowers and incense and so forth, serving Him as a friend, and completely offering the Lord one’s very self.
Mānasa Deho Geho
by Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur

mānaṣa, deho, geho, jo kichū mora arpilū tuye pade, nanda-kiśora!

1 Mind, body, and family, whatever may be mine, I have surrendered at Your lotus feet, O youthful son of Nanda!

sampade bipade, jīvane-maraṇe
dāy mama gelā, tuyā o-pada baraṇe

2 In good fortune or in bad, in life or at death, all my difficulties have disappeared by choosing those feet of Yours as my only shelter.

mārobi rākhobi—jo ichā tohārā
nitya-dāsa prati tuyā adhikārā

3 Slay me or protect me as You wish, for You are the master of Your eternal servant.

janmāobi moye ichā jadi tora

4 If it is Your will that I be born again, then may it be in the home of Your devotee.

kīṭa-janma hau jathā tuye dāsa
bahir-mukha brahma-janme nāhi āśa

5 May I be born again even as a worm, as long as I may remain Your devotee. I have no desire to be born as a Brahmā averse to You.

bhukti-mukti-spṛhā bhīhīna je bhakta
labhaite tāka saṅga anurakta

6 I yearn for the company of the devotee completely devoid of all desire for worldly enjoyment or liberation.
Father, mother, lover, son, Lord, preceptor, and husband—
You are everything to me.

You are my life and soul!”

1 Fallen into this material world of birth and death, there is no end to a person’s unhappiness. Still, if they associate with devotees and worship Lord Hari, then all their sadness and suffering will come to an end.

biṣoya anale, jvaliche hṛdaya, anale bođe anala
aparādha chāḍi’ loy kṛṣṇa-nāma, anale paḍaye jola

2 The heart burns in the fire of sense gratification and the fire burns more and more. Avoiding offences, chant the Holy Names of Lord Krishna, for that will pour water on the fire.

nitāi chaitanya, charaṇa-kamale,

3 Kālidās says, “Anyone who has taken shelter of the lotus feet of Lord Chaitanya and Lord Nityānanda is my shelter in life and death.”
Vaiṣṇava Ke?—

by Śrīla Bhaktisiddhānta Saraswatī Ṭhākur

duṣṭa mana! tumi kisera vaiṣṇava?
pratiṣṭhāra tore, nirjjanera ghore,
tava ‘harināma’ kevala ‘kaitava’

1 Oh wicked mind! What kind of Vaiṣṇava do you think you are? Your pretentious show of chanting Lord Hari’s Holy Name in a solitary place is only for the sake of attaining the false prestige of a worldly reputation—it is nothing but pure hypocrisy.

jaḍera pratiṣṭhā, śūkarer biṣṭhā, jāno nā ki tāhā māyār vaibhava
kanaka kāminī, divasa-jāminī, bhāviyā ki kāja, anītya se saba

2 Such materialistic prestige is as disgusting as the stool of a hog. Do you not know that it is only a mere illusion cast by the potency of Māyā? What is the value of contemplating day and night your plans for enjoying wealth and women? All these things are only temporary.

tomāra kanaka, bhogera janaka, kanakera dvāre sevaho mādhava kāminīr kāma, nahe tava dhāma, tāhār—mālika kevala jādava

3 When you claim wealth as your own, it creates in you ever-increasing desires for material enjoyment. Your riches should be used for serving Mādhava, the Lord of all wealth. Neither is it your proper place to indulge in lust for women, whose only true proprietor is Lord Jādava.
pratiṣṭhāśā-taru, jaḍa-māyā-maru, nā pela rāvaṇa jujhiyā rāghava vaiṣṇavī pratiṣṭhā, tāte koro niṣṭhā, tāhā nā bhajile labhibe raurava

4 The demon Rāvaṇa (lust-incarnate) fought with Lord Rāmachandra (love-incarnate) in order to gain the tree of worldly reputation—but that oasis turned out to be but a mirage cast in the desert wasteland of the Lord’s illusory material potency. Please cultivate fixed determination to attain only the steady and solid platform whereupon a Vaiṣṇava ever stands. If you neglect worshiping the Lord from this position, then you will ultimately attain a hellish existence.

harijana-dveṣa, pratiṣṭhāśā-kleśa, koro keno tobe tāhāra gaurava vaiṣṇaver pāche, pratiṣṭhāśā āche, tā’te kabhu nahe anitya-vaibhava

5 Why do you needlessly suffer the torment of blaspheming the devotees of Lord Hari, attempting to achieve their eminence, thereby only proving your own fruitless foolishness? The desire for spiritual eminence is easily fulfilled when one becomes a devotee of the Lord, for eternal fame automatically follows the heels of a Vaiṣṇava. And that fame is never to be considered a temporary worldly opulence.

se hari-sambandha, śūnya-māyā-gandha, tāhā kobhu noy jaḍer kaitava pratiṣṭhā-chaṇḍālī, nirjjanatā-jāli, ubhaye jāniho māyika raurava

6 The relationship between a devotee and Lord Hari is devoid of even a trace of worldly illusion; it has nothing to do with the materialistic cheating propensity. The prestige of so-called popularity in the material realm is compared to a treacherous dog-eating witch, and the attempt to live in solitude to supposedly engage in unalloyed bhajan is compared to an entangling network of distraction. Please know that anyone striving in either of these ways verily lives in the hell of Māyā’s illusion.
kīrttana chāḍibo, pratiṣṭhā māgibo, ki kāja ḍhuḍiyā tādṛśa gaurava mādhavendra purī, bhāva-ghore churi, nā korilo kobhu sadāi jānabo

7 "I shall give up chanting the Lord’s Name publicly in kīrttan and retire to solitude, thus smearing myself with worldly honour." Dear mind, what is the good of seeking such so-called glory? I will always remind you that the great soul Mādhavendra Purī never deceived himself in that regard by committing theft in his own storehouse of perception the way you do.

tomāra pratiṣṭhā,— śūkarera biṣṭhā, tār-saha sama kabhu nā mānava
matsaratā-vaśe, tumi jaḍa-rase, ma’jecho chāḍiyā kīrttana-sauṣṭava

8 Your cheap reputation is equal to the stool of a hog. An ordinary ambitious man like you can never be equated with a devotee of Mādhavendra Purī’s eminence. Under the sway of envy, you have drowned yourself in the filthy waters of material enjoyment after having abandoned the excellent perfection of congregational kīrttan.

tāi duṣṭa mana, nirjjana bhajan, prachāricho chole kuyogī-vaibhava
prabhu sanātane, parama jatane, śikṣā dilo jāhā, chinto sei saba

9 Truly, Oh wicked mind, the glories of so-called solitary worship are propagated only by false yogīs using unscrupulous means to deceive others. To save yourself from these pitfalls, please contemplate the instructions that the Supreme Lord Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu kindly gave us while addressing Śrīla Sanātan Goswāmī with the utmost care.

sei duṭi kathā, bhulo’ nā sarvathā, uchaiḥ-svare koro hari-nāma-rava phalgu āro jukta, baddha āro mukta, kabhu nā bhāviho, ‘ekākār’ saba
Do not forget for a moment the two most valuable concepts that He taught:
1) the principle of dry, apparent renunciation as opposed to real, appropriate renunciation; and
2) the principle of a soul being trapped in the bondage of matter as opposed to a soul who is liberated.
Don’t ever make the mistake of thinking that these conflicting concepts are on the same level. Please remember this while engaging yourself in chanting the Lord’s Holy Names as loud as you possibly can.

kanaka-kāminī, pratiṣṭhā-bāghinī, chāḍiyāche jāre, sei to’ vaiṣṇava
sei anāsakta, sei śuddha-bhakta, saṁsāra tathā pāy parābhava

One is truly a Vaiṣṇava who has given up the habit of falling victim to the ferocious tigress of wealth, beauty, and fame. Such a soul is factually detached from material life, and is known as a pure devotee. Someone with this consciousness of detachment has thereby become victorious over the mundane world of birth and death.

jathā-jogya bhoga, nāhi tathā roga, anāsakta sei, ki āro kahabo āsakti-rohita, sambandha-sohito, viṣoya-samūha sakali mādhava

One is indeed detached who moderately partakes of worldly things that are deemed necessary for living in devotional service; a devotee acting in that manner does not fall prey to the disease of material infatuation. Thus devoid of selfish attachment, and endowed with the ability to see things in relation to the Lord, all sense objects are then directly perceived as being Lord Mādhava Himself.

se jukta-vairāgya, tāhā to’ saubhāgya, tāhāi jaḍete harir vaibhava
kīrttane jāhār, pratiṣṭhā-sambhār, tāhār sampatti kevala kaitava

This is the standard of befitting renunciation, and one who realizes this is most fortunate indeed. Everything involved in such a devotee’s life represents Lord Hari’s personal spiritual opulence as manifest in the world of matter. On the other hand, one who engages in chanting the Lord’s Name with hopes of enhancing his own material reputation finds that all his activities and paraphernalia represent only the riches of hypocrisy.

viṣoya-mumukṣu, bhoger bubhukṣu, du’ye tyajo mana, dui avaiṣṇava kṛṣṇer sambandha, aprākṛta-skandha, kobhu nāhe tāhā jaḍer sambhava

14 Oh mind, please reject the company of two types of persons—those desiring impersonal liberation from the material world, and those who desire to enjoy the pleasure of material sense objects. Both of these are equally non-devotees. The things that are used in relation to Lord Krishna are objects belonging directly to the transcendental realm, and thus having nothing to do with matter they cannot be either owned or forsaken by persons interested in mundane enjoyment or renunciation.

māyāvādī jana, krṣṇetara mana, mukta abhimāne se ninde vaiṣṇava vaiṣṇavera dāsa, tava bhakti-āśā, keno vā ḍākicho nirjjana-āhava

15 An impersonal philospher is opposed to thinking of Krishna as an object of devotion, and thus being puffed up with the false pride of imaginary liberation he dares to criticize the true devotees of the Lord. Oh mind, you are the servant of the Vaiṣṇavas, and you should always hope for attaining devotion. Why then do you make such a loud commotion by calling to me and trying to prove the supposed supremacy of your practice of solitary worship?

je phalgu-vairāgī, kohe nije tyāgī, se nā pāre kobhu hoite vaiṣṇava
hari-pada chāḍi’, nirjanatā bāḍi, labhiyā ki phol, phalgu se vaibhava

16 One who falsely gives up things that could actually be used in the Lord’s service proudly calls himself a ‘renunciate,’ but unfortunately he can never become a Vaiṣṇava by such an attitude.
Abandoning his servitorship to the lotus feet of Lord Hari, and resigning himself to his solitary home—whatever is gained by that exercise can only be the worthless treasure of deception.

\text{pratiṣṭhāśā nahe kīrttana-gaurava} & \\
\text{rādhā-nitya-jana,} & \quad \text{tāhā chāḍī mana,} \\ \text{keno vā nirjana-bhajana-kaitava} &

17 Ever engage yourself in the service of Śrī Rādhā, and keep aloof from the vicious snake of materialistic sense gratification. The glory of participating in the Lord’s kīrttan is not meant to bolster anyone’s ambitions for personal recognition. Oh mind, why then have you abandoned the identity of being Rādhā’s eternal servant in favour of retiring to a solitary place to practice the cheating process of so-called bhajan?

\text{pratiṣṭhāśā-hīna-‘krṣṇa-gāthā’ saba} &

18 The most valuable treasures amongst the Lord’s preachers are the eternal personalities residing in Braja-dhām. They never occupy themselves with begging for worthless material reputation, which is cherished only by the living dead. The Braja-vāsīs are truly infused with life, and therefore they preach in order to give life to the walking corpses of the mundane world. All the songs that the Braja-vāsīs sing about the glories of Lord Krishna are devoid of any tinge of desire for fame.

\text{se kāle bhajana-nirjjana sambhava} &

19 This humble servant of Śrī Rādhā and Her beloved Śrī Krishna always hopes for kīrttan, and begs all to loudly sing the Names of Lord Hari. The transcendental power of congregational chanting automatically awakens remembrance of the Lord and His divine Pastimes in relation to one’s own eternal spiritual form. Only at that time does it become possible to go off to a solitary place and engage in the confidential worship of Their Lordships.

4 I have given up everything and come to Your lotus feet. I am Your eternal servant, and You are my protector and maintainer, O Lord of the universe.
Everything is Yours. I am merely a servant, certain that You will deliver me. I have chosen Your lotus feet as my only shelter. I no longer belong to myself.

Weeping, Bhaktivinoda takes shelter at Your feet. Forgive his offences, afford him a taste for the Holy Name, and kindly maintain him.

3 At that moment, I promised that having taken birth I would worship you. But after taking birth, I fell into the entangling network of worldly illusion, devoid of even a drop of true knowledge.

ādarera chele svajanera kole,

4 As a boy fondled in the lap of relatives, I passed my time smiling and laughing. My parents’ affection helped me to forget You still more, my Lord, and I began to think the material world to be a very nice place.

6 Travelling from place to place, proud of my education, I grew wealthy and maintained my family with undivided attention. Oh Lord Hari, I forgot You!

nā bhajiyā tore, dina vrthā gelo,

7 Now in old age, this Bhaktivinoda very sadly weeps. I failed to worship You, O Lord, and instead passed my life in vain. What will be my fate now?

1 Oh my Lord Hari! Having fallen into the illusion of this world, thus rendered helpless, I see no other means of deliverance but You. Since You are the only recourse for the helpless, I accept the shelter of Your lotus feet as most essential.

karama geyāna, kichu nāhi mora,

2 I have no background of pious activities, nor any knowledge, nor any regulated devotional practice. But You are full of compassion and kindness; therefore I, being indeed destitute, solicit Your causeless mercy.

3 The powerful urges of speech, mind, anger, tongue, belly, and genitals have banded together to cast me adrift on the sea of this material world, thus causing me grievous trouble.

oneka jatane, se soba damane, chādiyāchi āśā āmi
anāthera nātha! ākī tava nāma,

After numerous endeavours to subdue these material demands, I have completely given up all hope. Oh Lord of the destitute! I call upon Your Holy Name, for now You are my only hope.
hari hari!
biphole janama goyāinu
manuṣya-janama pāiyā, rādhā-kṛṣṇa nā bhajiyā,

1 Oh Lord Hari, I have spent my life uselessly. Having obtained a human birth and having not worshipped Rādhā and Krishna, I have knowingly drunk poison.

2 The treasure of divine love in Goloka Vṛndāvan has descended as the congregational chanting of the Lord’s Holy Names. Why did my attraction for that chanting never come about? Day and night my heart burns from the fire of the poison of worldliness, and I have not taken the means to relieve it.

3 Lord Kṛṣṇa, who is the son of the King of Braja, became the son of Śachī (Lord Chaitanya), and Balarām became Nitāi. The Holy Name delivered all those souls who were lowly and wretched. The two sinners Jagāi and Mādhāi are evidence of this.

Oh Lord Krishna, son of Nanda, accompanied by the daughter of Vṛṣabhānu, please be merciful to me now. Narottam dās says, “O Lord, please do not push me away from Your reddish lotus feet, for who is my beloved except for You?”
ātma-nivedana, tuyā pade kori,

2 Your two lotus feet are reservoirs of immortal nectar where one may live free from sorrow and fear. I have found peace there now and have given up the fear of worldly existence.

tomāra saṁsāre, koribo sevana,

4 Troubles encountered in Your service shall be the cause of great happiness, for in Your devotional service joy and sorrow are equally great riches. Both destroy the misery of ignorance.

5 I have completely forgotten all past history by feeling great joy in my mind. I am most certainly Yours, and You are indeed mine. What need is there of any other treasure?

\[\text{bhakativinoda, ānande ḍubiyā,}

6 Bhaktivinoda, diving into the ocean of bliss, devotes all his efforts for Your service and dwells in Your house according to Your wishes.
āmāra jīvana, sadā pāpe rata, nāhiko puṇyera leśa
porere udvega, diyāchi je koto, diyāchi jivere kleśa

1 My life is always attached to sinful activity and there is not even a small part of goodness in it. I have caused others anxiety and given trouble to other souls.

nija sukha lāgi’, pāpe nāhi ḍori, doyā-hīna svārtha-paro
para-sukhe duḥkхи, sadā mithya-bhāṣī, para-duḥkha sukha-koro

2 For the sake of my own happiness I have openly performed sinful activity. Devoid of compassion, I am concerned only with my own selfish interests. Always telling lies, I become miserable to see the happiness of others, while the misery of others brings great happiness to me.

aśeṣa kāmanā, hṛdi mājhe mora, krodhī, dambha-parāyana
mada-matta sadā, viṣoye mohita, hīṁsā-garvva vibhūṣana

3 There are limitless material desires within the core of my heart. I am full of anger, attached to arrogance, intoxicated by vanity, and always bewildered by enjoying sense objects. Violence and pride are my ornaments.

nidrālasya hata, sukārje virata, akaṅje udyogī āmi
pratiṣṭha lāgiyā, śāṭhya-ācharaṇa, lobha-hata sadā kāmī
Ruined by laziness and sleep, I resist all pious deeds, yet am very enthusiastic to perform wicked acts. For the sake of worldly fame and reputation I engage in the practice of deceitfulness. I am always lustful and a victim of my own greed.

e heno durjjana, sajjana-varjjita, aparādhi nirantara śubha-kārya-śūnya,sadānärtha-manāḥ, nānā duḥkhe jara jara

A vile, wicked man such as this, rejected by saintly persons, is a constant offender, devoid of auspicious works, always in the mentality of separate interest, and wasted away by various kinds of miseries.

bārdhakye ekhona, upāya-vihīna, tā’te dīna akiñchana bhakativinoda, prabhura charaṇe, kore duḥkha nivedana

Now in old age, deprived of all means of relief, thus humbled and destitute, this Bhaktivinoda submits his tale of grief at the feet of the Supreme Lord.

by Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur

1 O youthful son of the King of Braja, You are the Lord of all lords. According to Your will, creation and destruction take place in the universe.

tava ichā-mato brahmā korena śṛjana
tava ichā-mato viṣṇu korena pālana

2 According to Your desire Lord Brahmā creates and according to Your desire Lord Viṣṇu maintains.

tava ichā-mate śiva korena saṁhāra
tava ichā-mate māyā sṛje kārāgāra

3 According to Your will Lord Śiva destroys, according to Your will Māyā constructs the prison house of this world.

tava ichā-mate jīver janama-maraṇa

I will never even think about arranging for my own nourishment, and will remain absorbed in ever cherishing love for my master. Bhaktivinoda now accepts You as his only maintainer.

3  Wandering about in a half-alive condition, I spent my life in utter disgrace. Uncountable days passed as a frivolous child and a useless old man. I have been intoxicated by the pleasure of sharing romantic adventures with beautiful young women. When will I ever get a chance to worship You?

5 Vidyāpati confesses that now, at the end of his life, he is fearful of death. O Lord! There is no shelter other than You. You will always remain celebrated as being the Lord of both that which has beginning and the beginningless. Now the responsibility for my deliverance from the material world is entirely Yours.

Oh Lord. I now understand the mentality of Your treasured cows safely maintained by Your side.

3 Oh Mādhava, when You lead Your herds to pasture on the banks of the Jamunā river, You will call to them by softly playing on Your flute.

4 By slaying great demons such as Aghāsura and Bakāsura You will always provide full protection, Oh Kān of Gokul!

5 Fearless and confident of Your protection, I will drink the waters of the Jamunā.

6 The Kāliya serpent’s venom poisoned the Jamunā’s waters, yet that poison will be vanquished. You will purify the Jamunā, and by such heroic deeds enhance our faith.

9 When the four-headed Brahmā abducts me along with Your cowherd boyfriends and calves, then also You will surely protect me, Oh Gokul Hari!

   bhakativinoda—tuyā gokula-dhan
   rākhobi keśava! korato jatan

10 Bhaktivinoda is now the property of Gokul, Your holy abode. Oh Keśava! Kindly protect him with gentle loving care.
Please tell me, when will that day be mine—when my offences will end and a taste for the pure Holy Name will be infused within my heart by the power of divine grace?

Considering myself lower than a blade of grass, bringing the quality of forbearance into my heart, showing respect to all, myself being freed from all false pride—when will I taste the essence of the liquid nectar of the Holy Name?

Wealth, followers, beautiful women, as described in worldly poetry—I do not want any such bodily pleasures. O Lord Gaurahari, please give me unmotivated devotion to Your lotus feet, birth after birth.
When, while articulating the divine Name of Śrī Krishna, will my body be thrilled in ecstatic rapture and my words choked with emotion? When will my skin turn pale and ecstatic trembling occur, and when will streams of tears flow constantly from my eyes?

kobe navadvīpe, suradhuṅī-taṭe, 'gaura-nityānanda' boli niṣkapate nāchiyā gāiyā, beḍāibo chuṭe, bātulera prāya chāḍiyā bichār

When, in the land of Nabadwīp, on the banks of the Ganges, will I run about, guilelessly calling, "O Gaura! O Nityānanda!" dancing and singing like a madman, giving up all considerations?

kobe nityānanda, more kori' doyā, chāḍāibe mora viṣoyera māyā diyā more nija- charaṇera chāyā, nāmera hāṭete dibe adhikār

When will Lord Nityānanda be merciful to me and release me from the illusion of worldliness? Giving me the shade of His lotus feet, when will He allow me to enter the market-place of the Holy Name?

kinibo, luṭibo, hari-nāma-rasa, nāma-rase māti' hoibo bibaśa rasera rasika- charaṇa paraśa, koriyā mojibo rase anibār

I shall buy and plunder the mellow of the Name Hari, and becoming thoroughly intoxicated by those liquid mellows of the Holy Name, I shall become stunned. By touching the feet of those great souls who are able to relish those mellows, I will be constantly immersed in the sweet nectar of the Holy Name.

kobe jīve doyā, hoibe udoya, nija-sukha bhuli' sudīna-hṛdoya bhakativinoda, koriyā binoya, śrī-ājñā-ṭoholo koribe prachār
When will there be an awakening of compassion for all fallen souls, and when will this Bhaktivinoda, forgetting his own happiness, with a meek heart set out to propagate by humble entreaty the sacred order of Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu?

Oh Gopināth, this sinner, who is weeping and weeping, begs for an eternal place at Your divine feet. Please give him Your mercy.

5  Oh Gopīnāth, You are able to do anything, and therefore You have the power to deliver all sinners. Who is there that is more of a sinner than myself?

6  Oh Gopīnāth, You are the ocean of mercy. Having come into this phenomenal world, You expand Your divine Pastimes for the sake of the fallen souls.

7  Oh Gopināth, I am so sinful that although all the demons attained Your lotus feet, Bhaktivinoda has remained in worldly existence.

Part 3

1 Oh Gopināth, I have no means of success, but if You take me and bestow Your mercy upon me, then I will obtain deliverance from this world.

2 Oh Gopināth, I have fallen into the perils of material illusion. Wealth, spouse, and children have surrounded me, and lust has wasted me away.

3 Oh Gopināth, my mind is crazy and does not care for any authority. It is always senseless and has remained in the dark pit of worldly affairs.

4 Oh Gopināth, I have accepted defeat. All of my various endeavours were useless. Now You are my only hope.
5 Oh Gopīnāth, how shall I make any advancement when my mind has come under the control of the powerful senses and does not abandon its attachment to materialism?

Commentary by Śrīla B.R. Śrīdhar Dev-Goswāmī

1 Śrī-rūpa-mañjarī-pada, sei mora sampada, sei mora bhajana-pūjana—my everything is Śrī Rūpa Goswāmī’s holy feet. We are to discuss so many classifications and positions of rasa: śānta, dāsya, sakhya, vātsalya, madhura. And in madhura-rāsa Rādhārāṇī’s camp is special. Then again there are so many gradations of sakhīs. Then there is the class of the mañjarīs, the younger girls, and they have more freedom to approach: when Rādhā and Govinda are in union in a private environment, the mañjarīs can still approach. They have such freedom to visit Them. If any materials of service are necessary, the sakhīs send the mañjarīs to that place. The sakhīs do not approach there. In that way the mañjarīs enjoy the best confidence.

The most secret service of both can be supplied through the mañjarīs. In the highest position they have free entrance, and their leader is Rūpa Mañjarī. She is understood to be the leader of the whole group of younger girls, the mañjarīs, therefore in madhura-bhajan she is all-in-all. This has been taught to us by Narottama Ṭhākur. For us—and the younger batch—she is our highest resort.

Sei mora sampada—my wealth is there in her feet. Sei mora bhajana-pūjana—my worship and service is also in her. Sei mora prāṇa-dhana, sei mora ābharaṇa—the very wealth and gist of my life is there; and the ornaments of my life, if any there may be, that is within her grace. Seimorajīvanerajīvana—indeed, the very life of my life, if there is anything, that is also her. I am for her pleasure.

2   Sei mora rasa-nidhi—if there is anything, the source of any and all desirable ecstasy is only to be found there. The mine, source, and fountainhead of all rāsa is there in her feet. Sei mora vāñchā-siddhi—and if I am to expect any other fulfilment in life, that is also there in her feet. Sei mora vedera dharama—if any duty is recommended by the Vedas for me, I would like that such duty be at her feet.

Sei brata, sei tapa—if at all there is any desired accumulation from any penance or observance of vows, that is also to be found there—sei mora mantra-japa—and the continuous repetition of a mantra in japa all ends there: all things have only one end in my case, and that is that they all meet in different phases in the feet of Rūpa Mañjarī. If she is satisfied then the variegated nature of all sorts of my devotional practices are satisfied. Seimor dharama-karama—and any of my conceptions of duty or activity of any phases or form all have one end and meet in one point: the holy feet of Rūpa Mañjarī.

3   Anukūla habe viddhi, se-pade hoibe siddhi—I only pray to the controller who is at the root of all these arrangements of affairs in this world, “Please connect me there. Oh Absolute Manager, may you grant my prayer that all my tendencies may go to attain her favour. Nirakhibo e dui nayane—and it will be so very intense and concrete as if I can see it with these eyes. It will not be vague, abstract, or imagination, but I want the most concrete realisation by the grace of the Absolute Manager.” Se rūpa-mādhurī-rāśi, prāṇa-kuvalaya-śaśī—what sort of high class beauty is there in her holy feet! I want to jump. Let my heart be a lotus.

There are two classes of lotus: the white lotus came from the sun and the red from the moon. The kuvalaya is a mixture of the two. The lustre of her body will feed me day and night as the life of my life which is compared to a kuvalaya. The kuvalaya is fed and nourished by the lustre of the moon, and her holy feet are the moon, and my very vitality is likened to the lotus. May the lustre of her beauty maintain and nourish my heart of hearts. Praphullita hobe niši-dine—and the lotus of my heart will grow by that ray, and dance.

4 Tuyā adarśana-ahi—this is my prayer, but what is my present condition? My present condition is in the negative side, my Mistress. My present position is such that without having a sight of you, Your Grace, my heart will burn into ashes. That is my present position. Gorole jāralo dehī—this is just like the poison of a cobra which produces pain within my heart. I have been bitten by a snake, and what is that snake? It is that I am not getting any direct contact with you, Your Grace. The serpent’s poison has captured my heart and I am going to die. Chiro-dina tāpita jīvana—and this is not a sudden thing, but from the beginning I have been suffering this sort of pain of separation from such a beautiful and hopeful life of fulfilment.

Hā hā rūpa koro doyā, deho more pada-chāyā, narottama loilo śaraṇa—-but I have now reached the extreme position and for the last time I am begging for your favour; otherwise I am going to be finished.

This was composed by Narottam Ṭhākur in praise of Śrīla Rūpa Goswāmī. In this way he has given us light of the higher quarter of bhajan life. This sampradāya is named as the Rūpānuga-sampradāya, and our Guru-paramparā and all these things are adjusted according to that. He wrote many songs and they are of very substantive firmament, very ecstatic, and of deep faith.
The human form of life is the rarest opportunity for attaining spiritual perfection. But now I am lamenting, because I’ve somehow or other been born with such an opportunity, and I wasted it by never worshiping Lord Krishna. Oh, to whom shall I tell the tale of this misery?

Living life after life in this mundane world, all my time has passed in vain (in the bondage of materialistic family life). I have not gained anything whatsoever and undergone only trouble and botheration.

What sort of world is this? It’s like a magician’s illusion (like a magic lantern show, wherein so many shadows and optical illusions play before my eyes). Being selfishly attached to such illusion, considering the temporary illusions of this world in relation to “me” and “mine”), day after day passes by in vain.

When this body drops dead on the ground then what will remain mine? At that moment, all of my sons and dearest loved ones will not be able to give me any happiness.
I work hard just like an ass every day, and now I am wondering for whom am I working so hard? I am still surrounded by so many illusions.

dina jáy michā kāje, niśā nīdṛā-bāse
nāhi bhāvi maraṇa nikaṭe āche bose

I waste every day in useless, insignificant work, and I waste every night controlled by sleep. And in every twenty-four hours I never for one second consider that death is sitting very close by my side.

bhālo manda khāi, heri, pari, chintā-hīna
nāhi bhāvi, e deho chāḍibo kon dina

I live a very carefree life-style, eating, going out, wearing nice clothes as I please, but I never consider that one day I will have to give up this body.

deho-geho-kalatrādi-chintā abirata
jāgiche hṛdoye mor buddhi kori hoto

My poor heart is plagued by constant anxieties about the maintenance and daily turmoils created by my body, my house, my wife, my family members and my social obligations. All these anxieties are pinching me and destroying all my intelligence.

hāy, hāy! nāhi bhāvi — anitya e saba
jīvana bigote kothā rohibe vaibhava?

Alas, alas! What a remorseful situation has arisen! I am absorbed in all this trouble, but I never consider that all these things are temporary and subject to perish very soon. After I’m dead and gone, where will all of my material opulences remain?

śmaśāne śorīra mama poḍiyā rohibe
bihaṅga-pataṅga tāy bihāra koribe

When my body will be thrown in the pit at the cremation grounds, it will simply lie there motionless. Then many crows, vultures, ants, and worms will come and playfully sport there.

kukkur sṛgāl sob ānandita ho’ye
mahotsava koribe āmār deho lo’ye 11 All the stray dogs and jackals will then become very much delighted, and in great ecstasy they will make a festival ground out of my body and will have a huge celebration and feast.

je deher ei gati, tāra anugata
samsār-vaibhava āro bondhu-jon jata

12 Just see, this is the ultimate destination of this material body. And the most amazing thing is that all of my material opulences, house, family and friends have exactly the same destination.

ataeva māyā-moha chāḍi buddhimān
nitya-tattva kṛṣṇa-bhakti koruna sandhān

13 Therefore I ask of anyone who has any sharp intelligence: please give up all of these temporary illusions presented by Māyā, and kindly search after the means to get pure devotion to Lord Krishna, for this is the only really tangible eternal truth.

anya-abhilāsa chāḍi jñāna karma parihari
kāya mane koribo bhajana
sādhu-saṅge krṣṇa-sevā nā pūjibo devī-devā
ei bhakti parama-kāraṇa

1 Worship the Lord with body and mind, giving up the desire for material endeavour and mundane knowledge. Perform service in the association of devotees and do not worship the various demigods. These activities are the prime cause of devotion to Krishna.

mahājanera jei patha tā’te ho’be anurata
pūrvāpara koriyā bichāra
sādhana-smaraṇa-līlā ihāte nā koro helā
kāya mane koriyā sūsāra

2 The essence of devotional practice is to carefully consider and follow the path revealed by the great devotees. One should not neglect the practice of remembering the Pastimes of the Lord, for devotional service should be performed with the mind as well as the body.

asat-saṅga sadā tyāga chāḍa anya gīta-rāga karmī jñānī parihari dūre kevala bhakata-saṅga prema-kathā-rasa-raṅga
līlā-kathā braja-rasa-pure

3 Always give up bad association and avoid singing mundane songs. Keep at a distance materialistic people as well as those absorbed with mundane knowledge. Associate only with the devotees and merge in the happiness of topics of the loving Pastimes of Krishna in Vṛṇḍāvan.
Please give up the association of the yogīs, sannyāsīs, karmīs, jñānīs, meditators, and the worshippers of the demigods. Also abandon attachment for all varieties of fruitive activities, religious duties, distresses, lamentations and material objects. Just worship Krishna, the lifter of Govardhan Hill.

Travelling to the holy places is only so much hard labour to attain some mental illusion when really the lotus feet of Śrī Govinda are the perfection of one’s life. One should give up pride and envy and with firm determination in the heart, one should always perform unalloyed worship of the Lord.

The best process of devotional service is to hear, chant, worship, glorify and meditate with faith on the Names, Forms, Qualities and Pastimes of Krishna in the association of the devotees of Krishna through the nine forms of bhakti.

Engage the senses in the service of Śrī Govinda and do not worship the various demigods. This principle is in the line of unalloyed devotion. All other activities are simply done through pride and to see them gives great pain to one’s heart.
The six enemies; lust, anger, greed, illusion, pride and envy and the five senses of sight, sound, smell, taste, and touch reside in my body but I am unable to control them. Although I hear and understand repeatedly that one should serve Krishna with all his senses, still I cannot accept this fact with firm determination.

I will engage lust, anger, greed, illusion, envy and pride in their proper places. In this way, I will defeat the enemies and with ecstasy in my heart, I will worship Govinda without difficulty.

I will engage my lust in eagerness to serve Krishna and I will use my anger against those who are envious of the devotees. I will be greedy to hear the topics of Hari in the association of the devotees. I will be illusioned if I fail to achieve my worshipable Lord and I will feel proud to chant the glories of Krishna. In this way, I will engage them in their respective duties.

anyathā svatantra kāma anarthādi jāra dhāma bhakti-pathe sadā deya bhaṅga kibā bā korite pāre kāma-krodha sādhakere jadi hoy sādhu-janāra saṅga 11 Otherwise, independent lusty desires, which are the source of all unwanted things will always disturb the path of devotional service. What harm can lusty desires and anger do to a practitioner of devotional service if they associate with devotees?

krodha bā nā kore kibā krodha-tyāga sadā dibā
lobha mohā ei to’ kathana
choya ripū sadā hīna koribo maner adhīna kṛṣṇachandra koriyā smaraṇa

12 Anger spoils everything. Therefore, I will always give up anger, greed and illusion. I will control the six enemies with the help of my mind while remembering Lord Krishna.

āpani palābe saba śuniyā govinda raba
simha-rabe jena kori-gaṇa sakali vipatti jābe mahānanda sūkha pābe
jāra hoy ekānta bhajana

13 All the enemies will run away by hearing the sound vibration of Govinda’s name just as a deer flees upon hearing the roar of a lion. One who performs unalloyed devotional service will feel great happiness and all his dangers will be vanquished.

nā koriho asat-cheṣṭa lābha pūjā pratiṣṭhā
sadā chinta govinda-charaṇa sakala santāpa jābe parānanda sukha pābe prema-bhakti parama-kāraṇa

14 Therefore my dear mind, do not endeavour for bad association, profit, adoration and distinction, but always remember the lotus feet of Govinda. Please engage in loving devotional service with great happiness and all your dangers will be destroyed.

asat-kriya kuṭināti chāḍa anya paripāṭi
anya deve nā koriho rati
āpana āpana sthāne pīrīti sabāi ūnē bhakti-pathe paḍaye bigati
Please give up all duplicity, illusory activities and the search for bodily happiness. Do not be attached to the worship of various demigods. Mundane love and affection for material relationships attracts everyone to their respective illusions and thus advancement on the path of devotional service is checked.

Be continuously engaged on the path of devotional worship and be attached to glorifying the Pastimes of Śrī Krishna in Vṛndāvan. This process of devotional service is known as steady devotional service. The prime example of this is Hanumān.
Śrī Śikṣāstakam by Śrīla Bhakti Vinoda Thākur
Śrī Śikṣāṣṭakam

Song 1

The first verse of the Śrī Śikṣāṣṭakam is as follows:

cheto-darpaṇa-mārjanaṁ
bhava-mahā-dāvāgni-nirvāpaṇaṁ śreyāḥ-kairava-chandrikāvitaraṇaṁ vidyā-vadhu-jīvanam ānandāmbudhi-vardhanaṁ
prati-padaṁ pūrṇāṁtāsvādanaṁ
sarvvātma-snapanaṁ param
vijayate śrī-kṛṣṇa-saṅkīrttanaṁ

The Holy Name of Krishna cleanses the mirror of the heart and extinguishes the fire of misery in the forest of birth and death. As the evening lotus blooms in the moon’s cooling rays, the heart begins to blossom in the nectar of the Name.

And at last the soul awakens to its real inner treasure—a life of love with Krishna. Again and again tasting nectar, the soul dives and surfaces in the ever-increasing ocean of ecstatic joy.

All phases of the self of which we may conceive are fully satisfied and purified, and at last conquered by the all-auspicious influence of the Holy Name of Krishna.

pīta-barāṇa kali-pāvana gorā
gāoyāi aichana bhāva-bibhorā

1

Lord Gaurāṅga, whose complexion is golden and who is the deliverer of the fallen souls of the age of Kali, sings as follows, overwhelmed with spiritual ecstasy.

chitta-darpaṇa-parimārjana-kārī
kṛṣṇa-kīrttana jaya chitta-bihārī
2  “All glories to the chanting of the Holy Name of Krishna! It thoroughly cleanses the mirror of the heart and is the delight of the soul.”

helā-bhava-dāva-nirvāpana-vṛtti
kṛṣṇa-kīrttana jaya kleśa-nivṛtti

3  “All glories to the chanting of the Holy Name of Krishna! It extinguishes the forest fire of material existence and removes all material tribulations.”

śreyaḥ-kumuda-bidhu-jyotsnā-prakāśa
kṛṣṇa-kīrttana jaya bhakti-vilāsa

4  “All glories to the chanting of the Holy Name of Krishna! It appears like the moon in the heart and distributes its cooling moonlight, making the white lotus of the soul’s good fortune blossom and bloom. Krishna-kīrttan is the bhakti-vilāsa, the beautiful pastime of devotion.”

viśuddha-vidyā-vadhu jīvana-rūpa
kṛṣṇa-kīrttana jaya siddha-svarūpa

5  “All glories to the chanting of the Holy Name of Krishna! It reveals one’s pure identity in relationship with the Lord even up to divine consorthood. This chanting is the real perfection of life.”

ānanda-payo-nidhi-vardhana-kīrtti
kṛṣṇa-kīrttana jaya plābana-mūrtti

6  “All glories to the chanting of the Holy Name of Krishna! Kṛṣṇa-kīrttan causes the ocean of ecstatic joy to overflow. It is an inundation of divine love.”

pade pade pījuṣa-svāda-pradātā
kṛṣṇa-kīrttana jaya prema-bidhātā

7  “All glories to the chanting of the Holy Name of Krishna! Kṛṣṇa-kīrttan gives one a taste of fully satisfying nectar at every step; ultimately it bestows ecstatic love of Godhead.”

bhakativinoda-svātma-snapana-vidhān
kṛṣṇa-kīrttana jaya prema-nidān

8  “All glories to the chanting of the Holy Name of Krishna! It bathes the soul of Bhaktivinoda. This chanting is a store-house of love of Godhead.”
Śrī Śikṣāṣṭakam

Song 2
The second verse of the Śrī Śikṣāṣṭakam is as follows:

nāmnām akāri bahudhā nija-sarvva-śaktis
tatrārpitā niyamitaḥ smaraṇe na kālaḥ etādrśī tava kṛpā bhagavan mamāpi
durdaivam īḍśam ihājani nānurāgaḥ

“Oh my Lord, Your Holy Name bestows auspiciousness upon all. And You have unlimited Names such as Krishna and Govinda by which You reveal Yourself. In Your many Holy Names You have kindly invested all Your transcendental potency. And in chanting these Names, there are no strict rules concerning time or place. Out of Your causless mercy, You have descended in the form of divine sound, but my great misfortune is that I have no love for Your Holy Name.”

tuhū doyā-sāgara tārayite prāṇī
nāma aneka tuyā śikhāoli āni

1 O Lord! You are an ocean of mercy, and so you have brought the teachings of the glories of your unlimited Holy Names to deliver all souls.

sakala śakati dei nāme tohārā
grahaṇe rākholi nāhi kāla-bichārā

2 You have conferred all Your power upon Your Name. And there are no rules governing the appropriate time or place for chanting the Holy Name.

śrī-nāma-chintāmaṇi tohāri samānā
biśve bilāoli koruṇā-nidānā

3 The Holy Name is a chintāmaṇi gem, a divine touch-stone, and is nondifferent from You. Out of Your kindness for all souls, You have distributed Your Holy Name throughout the universe.
tuyā doyā aichana parama udārā
atiśoya manda nātha! bhāga hāmārā

4 This is Your mercy, Oh Lord. You are supremely kind. But, Oh Lord, I am most wicked and unfortunate.

nāhi janamalo nāme anurāga mora bhaktivinoda-chitta duḥkhe bibhora

5 I have never known any attraction for the Holy Names. And so, the heart of Bhaktivinoda is filled with sadness.
Śrī Śikṣāṣṭakam

Song 3

The third verse of the Śrī Śikṣāṣṭakam is as follows:

tṛṇād api sunīchena
taror iva sahiṣṇunā
amāninā mānadena
kīrttanīyaḥ sadā hariḥ

One who is humbler than a blade of grass, more forbearing than a tree who gives due honour to others without desiring it for himself is qualified to always chant the Holy Name of Krishna.

śrī-kṛṣṇa-kīrttane jodi mānasa tohāra
parama jatane tā̐hi lobho adhikāra

1 If your mind is always carefully absorbed in the chanting of the Holy Name, then you will become qualified for chanting the Holy Name of Krishna.

ṭṛṇādhika hīna, dīna, akiñchana chāra
āpane mānobi sadā chāḍi’ ahaṅkāra

2 Humbler than a blade of grass considering yourself low, poor, and mean, give up your false ego.

vṛkṣa-sama kṣamā-guṇa korobi sādhana
pratihiṁsā tyaji anye korobi pālana

3 Tolerant as a tree, you should forgive and forbear, giving up violence. Practice nurturing and protecting others.
Live without causing anxiety to others; do good unto others without considering your own happiness.

A great soul who has all these qualities should not become proud of his saintly qualities, but, giving up position and prestige he should always remain prideless within his heart.

Always knowing that Krishna dwells within the hearts of all living beings, you should always properly respect and honour others.

Humility, mercy, consideration of others, and giving up position are the four qualities needed to perform kīrttan.

Bhaktivinoda, crying at the Lord’s holy feet says, “O my Lord, when will You bestow upon me the qualifications for Krishna-kīrttan?”
Song 4
The fourth verse of the Śrī Śikṣāṣṭakam is as follows:

na dhanam na janaṁ na sundarīṁ kavitāṁ vā jagad-īśa kāmaye mama janmanī janmanīśvare
bhavatād bhaktir ahaitukī tvayi

“Oh Lord, I have no desires to accumulate wealth, followers, beautiful women, or salvation. My only prayer is for Your causeless devotional service, birth after birth.”

prabhu tava pada-juge mora nivedana
nāhi māgi deho-sukha, vidyā dhana, jana

1 O Lord! This is my humble submission at Your lotus feet. I do not ask for sense pleasure, learning, wealth or followers.

nāhi māgi svarga, āro mokṣa nāhi māgi
nā kori prārthanā kono vibhūtira lāgi

2 I do not beg for residence on the celestial planets, nor do I desire liberation from this mundane existence. Nor do I pray for the attainment of any mystic powers.

nija-karma-guṇa-doṣe je je janma pāi
janme janme jeno tava nāma-guṇa gāi

3 Whatever birth I may obtain due to the results of my previous worldly activities let it be so. I simply pray that I may sing the glories of Your Holy Name birth after birth.
ei mātra āśā mama tomāra charaṇe
ahaituki bhakti hṛde jāge anukṣaṇe

4  This alone is my cherished hope, my aspiration, my prayer at Your lotus feet: Let causeless and uninterrupted devotion awaken within my heart and flow towards You.

biṣoye je prīti ebe āchoye āmāra
sei-mata prīti hauk charaṇe tomāra

5  Let me love Your lotus feet as much as I now love sense gratification; transfer my affection from the objects of the senses to Your lotus feet.

bipade sampade tāhā thākuka samabhāve
dine dine bṛddhi hauk nāmera prabhāve

6  In danger or success, good fortune or disaster, let me remain equipoised. And let my affection for You increase day by day by the influence of the Holy Name.

paśu-pakṣī hoye thāki svarge bā niroye
tava bhakti rahu bhaktivinoda-hṛdoye

7  Whether I live as bird or beast, in heaven or in hell, let the humble Bhaktivinoda always cherish devotion to You in his heart of hearts.
Song 5
The fifth verse of the Śrī Śikṣāṣṭakam is as follows:

ayi nanda-tanuja kiṅkaraṁ
patitaṁ māṁ viṣame bhavāṃbudhau
kṛpayā tava pāda-paṅkaja-sthita-dhūli-sadṛśaṁ vichintaya

“Oh son of Nanda Mahārāj, I am Your eternal servant, yet because of my own karma, I have fallen into this terrible ocean of birth and death. Please accept this fallen soul and consider me a particle of dust at Your holy lotus feet.”

anādi karama-phole, poḍi bhavārṇava-jole,
toribāre nā dekhi upāy,
e-viṣoya-holāhole, divā-niśi hiyā jvole,
mon kobhu sukha nāhi pāy

1 As a result of my selfish fruitive activities, which are without beginning, I have fallen into the ocean of material existence. And now I can see no means of deliverance. Day and night my heart burns from the vicious poison of these worldly affairs, and due to this my mind never finds any true happiness.

āśā-pāśa-śata-śata kleśa deya abirata,
pravṛti-ūrmira tāhe khelā
kāma-krodha-ādi choy, bāṭapāde dey bhoy, abasāna hoilo āsi belā

2 I am bound by hundreds and hundreds of desires that give unending distress and these desires play in the waves of ever-increasing materialistic tendency. Lust, anger, greed, pride, illusion and envy are like six highway robbers making me greatly fearful, and in this way my life is coming to an end.
3 The two highway robbers named intellectual knowledge and frutive activity have cheated and misled me, and finally they have thrown me into the ocean of misery. At such a time as this, dear Krishna, You are my only friend. You are an ocean of mercy. Please be kind and lift me up from this condition of suffering by Your divine power.

4 I am Your eternal servant, oh merciful Lord. Having forgotten this relationship since time immemorial, I have become bound up in this network of illusion. Take this fallen servant of Yours, give him a place in the dust of Your lotus feet; give your shelter to this humble Bhaktivinoda.
The sixth verse of the Śrī Śikṣāṣṭakam is as follows:

*nayanaṁ galad-aśru-dhārayā
vadanaṁ gadgada-ruddhayā girā pulakair nichitaṁ vapuḥ kadā
tava nāma-grahaṇe bhaviṣyati*

“Oh Lord, when will tears flow from my eyes like waves, And my voice tremble in ecstasy? When will the hairs of my body stand on end while chanting Your Holy Name?”

*aparādha-phole mama  chhatta bhela vajra sama tuyā nāme nā lobhe bikāra hatāś hoiya hari  tava nāma ucha kori
boḍo duḥkhe ḍāki bāro bāro*

1 Oh Lord Hari, as a result of my offences incurred in previous lifetimes, my heart has become as hard as a thunderbolt, and feels no change upon chanting Your Holy Name. Disappointed, hopeless, and in great distress, I loudly call Your Name again and again.

*dīna doyāmoy koruṇā-nidān
bhāva-bindu dei rākho ho parāṇ*

2 Oh Lord, you are compassionate towards the fallen souls and the origin of mercy. Please give me a drop of divine ecstasy and thereby save my life!

*kobe tuyā nāma-uchāraṇe mor
nayane jharabo daro daro lor*

3 When will an incessant stream of tears flow from my eyes as I chant Your Name in divine ecstasy?
When will my voice be choked with divine emotion, and when will words garbled due to ecstasy come from my mouth?

When will the hairs of my body stand up in ecstasy? When will I become stunned with ecstasy, shiver and perspire out of the ecstasy of divine love? When will these symptoms of ecstasy overwhelm me again and again?

When will my body turn colours and become pale out of ecstasy? When will I lose consciousness? And when will my very life be under the shelter of the Holy Name?

Bhaktivinoda, who is devoid of good intelligence cries, “When will I meet with such a day?”
Song 7a
The seventh verse of the Śrī Śikṣāṣṭakam is as follows:

yugāyitaṁ nimešeṇa
chakṣuṣā prāvrṣāyitaṁ
śūnyāyitaṁ jagat sarvaṁ
govinda-viraheṇa me

“Oh Govinda! Without You, the world is empty. Tears are flooding my eyes like rain, and a moment seems like forever.”

gāite gāite nāma ki dośā hoilo
‘krṣṇa-nitya-dāsa mui’ hṛdoye sphurilo

1 Chanting the Name again and again, what was my condition? Within my heart I realised, “I am an eternal servant of Krishna.”

jānilām māyā-pāše e jaḍa-jagate govinda-virahe duḥkha pāi nānā-mate

2 I realised that I was bound by Māyā’s ropes, in this dull mundane universe, and I simply experience misery in various ways due to separation from Lord Govinda.

āro je saṁsāra mora nāhi lāge bhālo
kāhā jāi kṛṣṇa heri e chintā biśālo

3 And I don’t much like this world of birth and death. Where shall I go to see Krishna? This was my biggest worry.

kādite kādite mora ākhi-bariṣoy
barṣā-dhārā heno chakṣe hoilo udoy

4 I began weeping and weeping; my tears fell. Torrents of rain poured from my eyes just like the rains of the monsoon season.
nimeśa hoilo mora śata-juga-sam
govinda-viraha āra sohite akṣam

5 Now, a moment for me is like a hundred ages. I cannot bear this separation from Lord Govinda.

śūnya dharā-tala, chaudike dekhiye, parāṇa udāsa hoya
ki kori, ki kori, sthira nāhi hoya, jīvana nāhiko roya

6 The world is empty; as I survey the four directions, the entire surface of the world is void. My life is empty, my mind is listless; I am indifferent and apathetic towards everything. Depressed, melancholy and forlorn, my life has no meaning now. What do I do now? I cannot remain steady. I can no longer maintain my life.

braja-bāsi-gaṇa mora prāṇa rākho dekhāo śrī-rādhā-nāthe bhakativinoda- minati māniyā, laohe tāhāre sāthe

7 Oh residents of Vṛndāvan; save my life and show me Rādhānāth, the Lord of Śrī Rādhā. Considering this humble prayer of Bhaktivinoda, please give him Your association and take him with You.

śrī kṛṣṇa-viraha āro sohite nā pāri parāṇa chāḍite āro din dui chāri

8 I am unable to further tolerate this separation from my Lord Krishna and I am ready to give up my life in two days or four.
gāite ‘govinda’-nām, upajilo bhāva-grām, dekhilām jamunāra kūle
vṛṣabhānu-sutā-saṅge, śyāma-naṭa-boro-raṅge, bāśarī bājāya nīpo-mūle

1 And while I sang the name of Govinda a host of ecstasies arose within me. I saw Sundar-śyāma the best of dancers, on Jamunā’s shores, with Śrī Rādhā, Vṛṣabhānu’s daughter, sporting in Pastimes of love playing His flute beside the water while a kadamba tree above cast shade upon the divine couple.

dekhiyā jugala-dhana, asthira hoilo mana, jñāna hārā hoilū tokhon
koto-kṣane nāhi jāni, jñāna-labha hoilo māni, āro nāhi bhelo daraśan

2 On seeing this, my mind was stunned. I lost my senses. Unaware of time, I fainted. When I awoke after immeasurable time, the treasured couple had gone. My vision of Braja had broken.
Song 7c

sakhi go kemote dhoribo parāṇ
nimeṣa hoilo jugera samān

1 Oh my dear girlfriend! How will I maintain my life? The passing of a mere moment has become like a vast age of time.

śrāvaṇera dhārā, ākhi-bariṣoy, śūnya bhelo dharā-tala
govinda-virahe, prāṇa nāhi rohe, kemone bāchibo bolo

2 Tears flow from my eyes like torrents of rain in the month of Śrāvaṇa, and the face of the earth has become totally void. In separation from Govinda my life cannot go on... please tell how I will be able to live.

bhakativinoda, asthira hoiyā, punaḥ nāmāśroya kori’
ḍāke rādhānātha, diyā daraśana, prāṇa rākho, nahe mori

3 Bhaktivinoda has become very restless and again takes shelter of the Holy Name, calling out, “Oh Lord of Rādhā! By bestowing Your audience, please save my life! By Your mercy alone I shall not perish!”
Śrī Śikṣāṣṭakam

Song 8a
The eighth verse of the Śrī Śikṣāṣṭakam is as follows:

āśliṣya vā pāda-ratāṁ pinaṣṭu mām
adarśanān marma-hatāṁ karotu vā yathā tathā vā vidadhātu lampaṭo
mat-prāṇa-nāthas tu sa eva nāparaḥ

“Krishna may embrace me in love or trample me under His feet. He may break my heart by hiding Himself from me. Let that debauchee do whatever He likes, but He will always be the only Lord of my life.”

bondhu-goṇ! śunoho vachana mora bhāvete bibhora, thākiye jokhon, dekhā deya chitta-chora

1 Oh my friends! Listen to my words. I am filled to overflowing with devotional ecstasy when I have a divine vision of that thief who has stolen my heart.

bichakṣaṇa kori’ dekhite chāhile, hoya ākhi-agochara
punaḥ nāhi dekhī’, kādaye parāṇa, duḥkhera nā thāke ora

2 And when I want to see Him more clearly, He disappears from sight and becomes invisible. Again, not seeing Him, my soul weeps and my grief knows no bounds.
jagatera bandhu sei kobhu more loya sātha
ejathā tathā rākhu more āmāra se prāṇanātha

3 Sometimes Krishna, the friend of the universe, takes me as one of His own, and sometimes He ignores me, but however He keeps me, He is the only Lord of my life.

darśan-ānanda-dāne, sukhā dey mora prāṇe, bole more praṇoyā-vachan
punaḥ adarśan diyā, dagdha kore mora hiyā, prāṇe more māre prāṇa-dhan

4 When He gives His blissful audience to me, He gives happiness to my soul. He gives me great ecstasy by allowing me to see Him and by speaking affectionately to me. Again He goes away, removing Himself from my sight. And by not letting me see Him, He burns my heart with the fire of separation.

jāhe tā’ra sukha hoy, sei sukhā mama
nija sukhē-duḥkhe mora sarvvedāi sama

5 But even though He pains my soul in this way, He is still the Lord of my life. Whatever is His happiness is also my happiness. And so, for me, my own happiness and distress is all the same.

bhakativinoda, saṁjoge bijoge, tāhe jāne prāṇeśvara
tā’ra sukhē sukhī, sei prāṇa-nātha,
se kobhu nā hoya paro

6 In this way, Bhaktivinoda, in both union and separation, knows that Krishna is the only Lord of his soul. Krishna’s happiness is my happiness. He is the Lord of my life; there is no other Lord for me than Him.
yoga-pîṭhopari-sthita,  aṣṭa-sakhī-subeṣṭita, vṛndāraṇye kadamba-kānane
rādhā-saha varmśi-dhārī,  bhīva-jana-chitta-hārī, prāṇa mora tānāra charaṇe

1    At the yoga-pîtha, surrounded by the aṣṭa-sakhīs, in the Vṛndāvan forest, in a grove of kadamba trees, by the side of Śrī Rādhā, holding His flute, Śrī Krishna enchants all souls within the universe. I fall at His feet and surrender my life to Him.

sakhī-ājñāmata kori dōhāra sevana
pālya-dāsī sadā bhāvi dōhāra charaṇa

2    Following the orders of a sakhi, I engage in service to the holy couple, Śrī Śrī Rādhā and Krishna, always considering myself a dependent maidservant at Their lotus feet.

kobhu kṛpā kori,  mama hasta dhori’, madhura vachana bole
tāmbula loiyā,  khāya dui jone, mālā loya kutūhole

3    Sometimes being kind, They take me by the hand and speak sweet words to me out of affection. Taking the betel nuts I have prepared, They eat them and accept a garland from me with great delight.

adarśana hoya kokhona ki chole
nā dekhiyā dōhe hiyā mora jvole

4    Again, They disappear from my vision by some trick. Not seeing Rādhā and Krishna, my heart burns in agony.
jekhāne sekhāne, thākuka du’ jane,
āmi to charaṇa-dāsī
milane ānanda, virahe jātanā, sakala samāna bāsi

5 Here or there, wherever They stay, I am the maidservant of Their lotus feet. Through the happiness of union and the agony of separation, I am Their maidservant.

rādhā-kṛṣṇa prāṇa mor jivane maraṇe
more rākhi’ māri’ sukhe thākuka du’ jone

6 Rādhā and Krishna are my life and soul both in life and in death; whether They protect me or take my life away—may they always be happy.

bhakativinoda, āna nāhi jāne, podi’ nija-sakhī-pāy
rādhikāra goṇe thākiyā satata, jugala-charaṇa chāy

7 Bhaktivinoda knows nothing else. Falling at the feet of the sakhīs, Bhaktivinoda always stays among the intimate confidants of Śrī Rādhā. The lotus feet of Śrī Rādhā and Śrī Krishna is Bhaktivinoda’s eternal desire.
Songs to Srimati Radharani Śrī Rādhāśṭaka
by Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur

Song 1

rādhikā-charaṇa-padma, sakala śreyera sadma, jatane je nāhi ārādhilo
rādhā-padāṅkita dhāma, vṛndāvana jār nāma, tāhā je nā āśroya korilo

1 The lotus feet of Śrī Rādhā are the abode of all auspiciousness and the supreme goal of life. One who in his life has failed to take shelter of that holy dhām named Vṛndāvan which is identified by the footprints of Rādhā,...

rādhikā-bhāva-gambhīra, chitta jebā mahādhīra
goṇ-soṅga nā koilo jīvane kemone se śyāmānanda, rasa-sindhu-snānānanda, lobhībe bujho ho ek-mane

2 ...who in his life has failed to associate with the intimate of Śrī Rādhā who are deeply filled with Rādhā’s mood of devotion and who are greatly intelligent — how will such a person bathe in the rāsa-sindhu, the ocean of ecstatic joy which is Śyāmasundar? You must singlemindedly understand this point.

rādhikā ujvala-rasera āchārya
rādhā-mādhava-śuddha-prema bichārya

3 Śrī Rādhā is the exemplary teacher of the mellows of conjugal love. Pure ecstatic love for Śrī Śrī Rādhā-Mādhava is what is to be considered and discussed.

je dhorilo rādhā-pada parama jatane
se pāilo kṛṣṇa-pada amūlya-ratane
4 One who holds tightly to the lotus feet of Śrī Rādhā with great care will certainly attain the priceless jewels of the lotus feet of Krishna.

rādhā-pada binā kobhu kṛṣṇa nāhi mile rādhāra dāsir kṛṣṇa sarvva-vede bole

5 Without taking shelter of the lotus feet of Śrī Rādhā, one will never meet Krishna. All the Vedas say that Krishna belongs to the maidservants of Śrī Rādhā.

choḍata dhona-jon, kalatra-suta-mita, choḍata krama geyān
rādhā-pada-pañkaja, madhurata sevana, bhakativinoda paramāṇ

6 Having given up wealth, followers, wife, children, family, and friends, material activities and intellectual knowledge, one should become absorbed in the divine sweetness of service to the lotus feet of Śrī Rādhā as one of Her maidservants in madhura-rāsa. This is Bhaktivinoda’s solemn declaration.

Song 2

virajār pāre śuddha-paravyoma-dhām
tad upari śrī-gokula-vṛndāraṇya nām

1 Beyond the Virajā River lies the pure spiritual sky, and above that Vaikuṇṭha realm lies the divine abode known as Śrī Goloka Vṛndāvan.

vṛndāvana chintāmani, chid-ānanda-ratna-khani, chīnmoj apūrvva-daraśan
tāhi mājhe chamatkār, kṛṣṇa vanaspati sār, nīla-maṇi tamāla jemon

2 The land of Vṛndāvan is made of spiritual gems and is therefore likened to a mine of fully cognizant and blissful jewels. This transcendentally conscious realm is certainly a wonderful and extraordinary sight. Within that abode is the most astonishing presence of Lord Krishna, who is compared to a tamāl tree, the king of trees possessing the hue of a dark sapphire.
Entwined upon that blackish tree a beautiful golden creeper has arisen, who is the conqueror of all realms, being the supreme purifier. Her name is Mahābhāva, being the essence of the supreme pleasure-giving hlādinī potency. She is the enchantress of Śrī Krishna, who is Himself the enchanter of the three worlds.

Known by the name of Rādhā, She remains shining there in great ecstasy, always engaged in satisfying Govinda’s heart. The leaves and flowers of that creeper form the assembly of Her girlfriends headed by Lalitā. Together She and all Her friends entwine that blackish tree in a tight embrace.

At the touch of this creeper, the Tamāl tree blooms; without the embrace of the creeper, He can no longer exist.

The creeper never desires to leave the company of the Tamāl tree; the creeper perpetually craves Their union.

Other than the meeting of these Two, Bhaktivinoda desires but nothing else.
Song 8

राधाभजने जोधी मोटी नाही भेला
क्रिष्णभजना तवा अकाराने गेला

1 If one does not develop within their heart the desire for Rādhā-bhajan, then their Krishna-bhajan goes for nothing.

अतपा-रोहिता सूरय नाही जानी
राधाबिरहिता मधव नाही मानी

2 Without sunlight the sun cannot be known, similarly without Śrī Rādha, Krishna cannot be understood.

केवला मधव पूजये सो अज्ञानी
राधा अनादरा कोरौ अभिमानी

3 One who worships Krishna alone is ignorant. Who does not adore Śrī Rādha is an egotist.

कोभो नाही कोरो ताकोर सांगा
चित्ते इच्छाइ जाड़ी ब्रज-रसा-राङ्गा

4 Never keep company with those who envy Śrī Rādha if within your heart you at all aspire to the loving Pastimes of Braja.

राधिका-दासी जोधी होय अभिमान सिघराई मिलाई तवा गोकुल कान

5 Those who consider themselves maidservants of Śrī Rādha will quickly meet Gokul-Krishna.

ब्राह्मा, शिव, नाराद, श्रुति, नारायणी
राधिका-पदा-राजा पूजये मानी

6 Brahmā, Shiva, Nārada, the śrutis, and Nārāyaṇī (Lakṣmī) worship with regard the holy feet of Śrī Rādha.
Umā, Ramā, Satyā, Śachī, Chandrā, Rukminī are all personal expansions of Śrī Rādhā — this is the self-evident verdict of the Vedas.

Bhaktivinoda, whose only wealth is the service of Śrī Rādhā, humbly prays to be a serving maid at Her lotus feet.
The grove-dwelling on the banks of Rādha-kunḍa, Govardhan mountain, the banks of River Jamunā;

Kusuma-sarovar lake, Mānasa-gaṅgā river, The rolling waves of Jamunā, daughter of the sun;

Place of the Rasa dance, and Gokula, the gentle breezes, The trees, vines, and Vetasa palms of Braja;

The birds and animals, the sweet air of spring, The peacocks, bumblebees, the flute’s sweet song;

Flute, horn, His footsteps, range of clouds in the sky, Season of spring, the moon, the conch, hand-cymbals;
6 I know all these things are nourishing the Pastimes of the Divine Couple, I can feel they arouse the holy Pastimes of the Lord;

=e soba choḍata kāhā nāhi jāũ =e soba choḍata parāṇa hārāũ

7 I can never leave all these things so dear to me,
Without them I know I’ll surely die;

=bhaktivinoda kohe, śuno kāna tuyā uddipaka hāmārā parāṇa=

8 Hear me, O Kāna, says Śrī Bhaktivinoda:
You are the only light of my life.
Śrī Rādhikā-stava

by Śrīla Rūpa Goswāmī

rādhe jaya jaya mādhava-dayite

dāmodara-rati-vardhana-veše
hari-niṣkuṭa-vṛndā-vipineše

2 You dress Yourself in such a way as to increase Lord Dāmodar’s love and attachment for You. Oh Queen of Vṛndāvan, which is the pleasure grove of Lord Hari!

vṛṣabhānūdadhi-nava-śaśi-lekhē
lalitā-sakhi guṇa-ramita-viśākhe

3 Oh new moon who has arisen from the ocean of King Vṛṣabhānu! O friend of Lalitā! Viṣākhā loyally serves You due to Your wonderful qualities of friendliness, kindness, and faithfulness to Krishna!

koruṇāṁ kuru moyi koruṇā-bhorite

4 You who are filled with compassion! Your divine characteristics are described by the great sages Sanaka and Sanātan! O Rādhā, please be merciful to me!
Songs to Śrī Krishna
He Deva bhavantaṁ vande

by Śrīla Rūpa Goswāmī

he deva bhavantaṁ vande
man-mānasa-madhukaram arpayā nija-pada-paṅkaja-makarande

1 Oh Lord, I offer my respectful obeisances to You. May you place the bumblebee of my mind in the honey of Your lotus feet.

yadapi samādhiṣu vidhir api paśyati
na tava nakhā gramarīchim idam ichāmi niśamya tavāchyuta
tad api kṛpādbhuta vīchim

2 Although Brahmā in his samādhi cannot obtain a glimpse of even a ray of the tips of the nails of Your feet, still Oh Achyuta! Having heard of the waves of Your astonishing mercy, I yearn to see You.

bhaktir udañchati yad api mādhava
na tvayi mama tila-mātri parameśvaratā tad api tavādhikadurghaṭa-ghaṭana-vidhātri

3 Oh Mādhava, although I don’t have even a sesame seed of devotion for You, Your supreme power can make even the impossible become possible.

ayam avilola tayādyā sanātana
kalitādbhuta-rasa-bhāram
nivasatu nityam ihāṃṛta-nindini
vindan madhurima-sāram

4 Oh eternal Lord, may the bumblebee of my mind, finding there the most wonderful sweetness, eternally stay in the honey of Your lotus feet, which rebuke the sweetest nectar.
Śrī Krishna is the lover of Śrī Rādhā. He displays many amorous pastimes in the groves of Vṛndāvan, He is the lover of the cowherd maidens of Braja, the holder of the great hill named Govardhan, the beloved son of Mother Jaśodā, the delighter of the inhabitants of Braja, and He wanders in the forests along the banks of the River Jamunā.

1 Oh Kṛṣṇa holder of the flute, Muralī and lifter of Govardhan Hill! Oh Kṛṣṇa who wears a crown adorned with a peacock feather dressed in golden coloured clothes.

śrī-rādhā-mādhava kuñja-bihārī
muralīdhara govardhana-dhārī

2 Oh Kṛṣṇa holder of the flute, Muralī and lifter of Govardhan Hill! Oh Kṛṣṇa the Lord of Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī who plays in the groves of Śrī Vṛndāvan.

(jaya) jaśodā-nandana kṛṣṇa murāri
muralīdhara govardhana-dhārī

3 Oh Kṛṣṇa holder of the flute, Muralī and lifter of Govardhan Hill! All glories to you Kṛṣṇa, son of Mother Jaśodā and killer of the Mura demon.

(jaya) gopī-jana-ballabha vaṁśī-bihārī
muralīdhara govardhana-dhārī

4 Oh Kṛṣṇa holder of the flute, Muralī and lifter of Govardhan Hill! All glories to you Kṛṣṇa, dearmost lover of all the cowherd girls of Vṛndāvan and player of the flute Vaṁśī.

1. All glories, all glories to the meeting of the transcendental couple, Śrī Śrī Rādhā Krishna. The gopīs headed by Lalitā Devī perform the ceremony of their worship.

madana-mohana rūpa tri-bhaṅga-sundara

3. Dressed in blue garments, Her complexion fair, and Her virtues glorious, King Vṛṣabhānu’s daughter, Śrīmatī Rādhikā is on the left of the charming Lord Mādhava.

nānā-bidha alaṅkāra kore jhalamala
hari-mano-bimohana vadana ujvala

4. Her various ornaments sparkle and Her effulgent face charms the heart of Lord Krishna.

viśākhādi sakhī-goṇ nānā rāge gāya
priya-narma-sakhī jata chāmāra ḍhulāya

5. Viśākhā and the other girls sing songs in various tunes and moods as Krishna’s intimate playful girlfriends fan the divine couple with whisks.

śrī-rādhā-mādhava-pada-sarasija-āse bhakativinoda sakhī-pade sukhe bhāse
Yearning to attain the lotus feet of Śrī Śrī Rādhā-Krishna, Bhaktivinoda floats in happiness at the gopīs' feet.
Prayer to the Gopīs
by Śrīla Narottam dās Ṭhākur

rādhā-kṛṣṇa prāṇa mora jugala-kiśora jivane marāṇe gati āro nāhi mora

1 The youthful Divine Couple Śrī Śrī Rādhā and Krishna are my life and soul. In life or death I have no other refuge but Them.

kālindīra kūle keli-kadambera bon ratana-bedira upara bosābo du’jon

2 I shall install the Divine Couple on a jewelled throne in a pleasant forest of kadamba trees on the shore of the Jamunā river.

śyāma-gaurī-aṅge dibō chandanera gandha
chāmara ḍhulābo kobe heri mukha-chandra

3 When will I place aromatic sandalwood paste on the limbs of Lord Śyāmasundar and Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī? When will I fan Them with a chāmara wisk? When will I see Their moonlike faces?

gāṅthiyā mālātir mālā dibō doṅhara gole
adhare tuliya dibō karpūra-tāmbule

4 When will I string garlands of malati flowers and place them on the necks of the Divine Couple? When will I place betel nuts mixed with camphor in Their lotus mouths?

lalitā visākhā-ādi jata sakhi-vṛnda
ājñāya koribo sevā charaṇāravinda

5 When, following the orders of Lalitā, Viṣākhā and the other gopīs, will I serve the lotus feet of the Divine Couple?
Narottam dās, the servant of the servant of Śrī Krishna Chaitanya Mahāprabhu, longs for this service to the Divine Couple.
jaya rādhe, jaya kṛṣṇa, jaya vṛndāvan
śrī-govinda, gopīnātha, madana-mohan

1 All glories to Śrī Rādha and Śrī Krishna and the divine forest of Vṛndāvan.
   All glories to the three presiding Deities of Vṛndāvan—Śrī Govinda, Śrī Gopīnāth, and Śrī Madana-Mohan.

śyāma-kuṇḍa, rādhā-kuṇḍa, giri-govardhan

10 All glories, all glories to the mellow of conjugal love, which is the most excellent of all rāsas and is propagated in Braja by Śrī Krishna in the form of the divine paramour love, parakīyā-bhāva.
Remembering the lotus feet of Lord Nityānanda’s consort, Śrī Jāhnavā Devī, this very fallen and lowly Krishnadās sings the saṅkīrttan of the Holy Name.
Rūpa Kīrttan
by Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur

janama saphala tā’ra,  kṛṣṇa-daraśana jā’ra bhāgye hoiyāche eka-bāra
bikašiyā hrin-nayana  kori’ kṛṣṇa daraśana
chāđe jīva chittera bikāra

1. His birth is successful whose good fortune dawns so as to have the vision of Lord Krishna just once. When the soul gives up all delusions of the mind, then only will they see the vision of Krishna blooming within the eyes of their heart.

vṛndāvana-keli chatur vanamālī tribhaṅga-bhaṅgimārūpa vaṁśi-dharī aparūpa
rasamoya nidhi, guṇa-śālī

2. One sees Krishna there fully decorated with garlands of forest flowers as the most expert connoisseur of all the amorous love-sports in Vṛndāvan. His transcendental form bent in three places, playing wonderfully on His flute, He is the reservoir of all relishable mellows and the abode of all virtuous qualities.

varṇa nava jaladhara  śire śikhi picha vara
alakā tilaka śobhā pāya
paridhāne pīta-vāsa  vadane madhūra hāsa
heno rūpa jagat mātāya

3. By such a beautiful form He is maddening the entire universe. His complexion is like that of a fresh new rain cloud, His head is decorated with a peacock feather, and the sandalwood tilak on His forehead is most becoming. Wearing brilliant yellow-coloured garments, He stands with His face decorated by a wide, sweet smile.
Beholding Him standing at the base of a kadamba tree, I can see that Krishna’s beauty is conquering the lustre of an entire mine of sapphires. Seeing this, my mind has become so restless that my feet will move no longer, and I’ve completely forgotten about my family and home life in this world.

O sakhi! Oh dear girlfriend! Seeing that sweet form abounding in nectar, I have fallen unconscious as a fountain of tears gushing with ecstatic love cascades from my eyes.

What a wonderful crown upon His head! What a wonderful flute He is holding in His hand! What a wonderfully beautiful form as He stands in His three-fold bending posture! The nectar of His lotus feet is overflowing with the tinkling sound coming from the clusters of ankle bells which are decorating them.

Accepting the form of a honeybee, I always hope for a residence near His lotus feet. And I will get it very easily because I always sing the glories of Krishna, adoring no-one else.
śuno, he rasika jon kṛṣṇa guṇa agaṇon ananta kohite nāhi pāre
kṛṣṇa jagatera guru kṛṣṇa vāñchākalpataru
nāviko se bhava-pārābāre

1 Listen to this, oh wisest relishers of mellows! The transcendental qualities of Śrī Krishna are innumerable; indeed it is not possible to describe such unlimited divine attributes. Krishna is the spiritual master of the entire universe, He is like a wish-fulfilling desire-tree, and He is the helmsman of the boat on the ocean of material existence.

hṛdoya pīḍita jā’ra kṛṣṇa chikitsaka tā’ra
bhava roga nāsite chatura kṛṣṇa bahirmukha jone premāmṛta vitaraṇe
krame loya nija antaḥpura

2 Krishna is just like a doctor for those whose hearts are ailing, as He is very expert at destroying the diseased condition of material existence. By distributing the nectar of ecstatic love to all of the inimical souls, He gradually takes them back into His own confidential realm.

karma-bandha jñāna-bandha, āveše mānava andha
tāre kṛṣṇa koruṇā sāgara pādapadma madhu diyā, andha-bhāva ghuchāiyā
charaṇe korena anuchara

3 Krishna is an ocean of compassion for those who are bound up in fruitive reactions, as well as for those bound up in philosophical speculation, and for those blinded by other human perplexities. Giving the honey of His lotus feet, and thus relieving the darkness of such worldliness, He makes one an attendant of His own feet.
Krishna eventually bestows the jewel of independence unto those persons who are attached to the path of rules and regulations, thereby allowing them entrance into the path of spontaneous loving service. Becoming influenced by such spontaneity, remaining under the shelter of the mellows of unwedded love (pārakīya-bhāva), the soul finally attains all the symptoms of ecstatic love for Krishna.

Krishna is the dearmost friend and husband of those who are always attached to drinking the fountain of ecstatic tears of love. Thus, the goal of this most fallen and lowly Bhaktivinoda is to be with all such residents of Braja within the abode of supreme auspiciousness.
All glories to Krishna, the son of Mother Jaśodā, the cowherd boy and giver of pleasure to the cows! All glories to the conquerer of Cupid, Lord Hari, who takes away all inauspiciousness, who is unlimited, and the awarer of liberation!

All glories to the infallible Lord, husband of the goddess of fortune, the supreme enjoyer, and the moon of Vṛndāvan! All glories to Krishna, who always holds a flute to His mouth, who is the colour of a dark blue raincloud, and is the bliss of the gopīs!

In the beginning of creation the science of devotional service was received by the four-headed Brahmā from the Supreme Lord Śrī Krishna. Devarṣi Nārada’s understanding of this divine science was obtained from Brahmā. The great sage Krishna Dvaipāyana Vyāsa, who was empowered to compile the Vedic literatures, became a disciple of Devarṣi Nārada. Śripād Madhvāchāryya, the founder of the Śuddha-dvaita school of Vedānta philosophy, who visited Vyāsadeva at Badarikāśram in the thirteenth century to learn from him Vedānta philosophy, calls himself a servant of Krishna Dvaipāyana Vyāsa. Pūrṇaprajña Tīrtha (Madhva) is the guru and sole refuge of Padmanābha Tīrtha.

The two other principal disciples of Madhva are Nṛhari Tīrtha and Mādhava Tīrtha. Mādhava Tīrtha accepted the great paramahaṁsa Akṣobhya Tīrtha as a disciple. The principal disciple of Akṣobhya Tīrtha was known as Jayatīrtha. Jayatīrtha’s service was for his disciple Jñānasindhu.

Dayānidhi received the science of devotional service from Jñānasindhu, and the servant of Dayānidhi was Vidyānidhi (Vidyādhīrāja Tīrtha). Rājendra Tīrtha became a disciple of Vidyādhīrāja Tīrtha. Rājendra Tīrtha’s servant was known as Jayadharma or Vijayadhvaja Tīrtha. In this way you should properly understand this disciplic succession.

jayadharma-dāsye khyāti, śrī puruṣottama-yati, tā’ha te brahmaṇya-tīrtha sūri vyāsatīrtha tā’ra dāsa, lakṣmīpati vyāsa-dāsa, tāha hoite mādhavendra purī

The great sannyāsī Śrī Puruṣottama Tīrtha received his knowledge in the service of his guru, Vijayadhvaja Tīrtha (Jayadharma). The principal disciple of Puruṣottama Tīrtha was Subrahmaṇya Tīrtha. His servant was the great Vyāsatīrtha (Vyāsa Rāya). Vyāsatīrtha’s servant was Lakṣmīpati Tīrtha, whose disciple was Mādhavendra Purī Goswāmī.

nityānanda, śrī-advaita vibhu
iśvara-purīke dhonya, korilena śrī-chaitanya, jagad-guru gaura mahāprabhu

The chief disciple of Mādhavendra Purī was Īśvara Purī, and two of his other disciples were the renowned incarnations of Godhead Śrī Nityānanda and Śrī Advaita Āchāryya. Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu, the spiritual preceptor of all the worlds, made Īśvara Purī greatly fortunate by accepting him as His spiritual master.

mahāprabhu śrī-chaitanya, rādhā-kṛṣṇa nahe anya, rūpānuga jonera jīvāna
viśvambhara priyaṅkara, śrī svarūpa-dāmodara, śrī gosvāmī rūpa-sanātana

Mahāprabhu Śrī Chaitanya is nondifferent from Śrī Śrī Rādhā and Krishna and is the very life of those Vaiśṇavas who follow Śrī Rūpa Goswāmī. Śrī Swarūp Dāmodar Goswāmī, Rūpa Goswāmī and Sanātan Goswāmī were the givers of great happiness to Viśvambhara (Śrī Chaitanya).
The great souls Jīva Goswāmī and Raghunāth dās Goswāmī became very dear to Rūpa Goswāmī. Jīva Goswāmī was a disciple of Rūpa Goswāmī. Raghunāthā dās Goswāmī, a disciple of Advaita Āchāryya’s disciple Jadunandan Āchāryya, was accepted by Rūpa and Sanātan as their third brother. Raghunāth dās Goswāmī’s beloved student was Krishnadās Kavirāj Goswāmī. Kṛṣṇādās Kavirāj was an intimate friend of Lokanāth Goswāmī. They lived together in Vṛndāvan and always discussed the topics of Krishna with one another. Lokanāth Goswāmī, a disciple of Gadādhara Paṇḍit, had only one disciple, whose name was Narottam dās. Narottam dās was always engaged in the service of his guru, and he also engaged himself in the service of his guru’s intimate friends. Thus he became very dear to Krishnadās Kavirāj Goswāmī. To serve the feet of Narottam dās Ṭhākur was the only desire of Viśvanāth Chakravartī Ṭhākur, who was the fourth āchāryya in disciplic succession from Narottam dās.

Viśvanātha Chakravartī Ṭhākur was the śikṣā-guru (instructing spiritual master) of Baladeva Vidyābhūṣaṇa, to whom he taught the precepts of Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam. Jagannāth dās Bābājī was a very prominent Āchāryya after Śrī Baladeva Vidyābhūṣaṇa and was the beloved śikṣā-guru of Śrī Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur. Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur’s intimate friend and associate was the eminent mahā-bhāgavat Śrī Gaura Kiśora dās Bābājī, whose sole joy was found in hari-bhajana.
The followers of Śrīla Gaura Kiśora dās Bābājī fill up the world with the wealth of Śrī Krishna-kīrttan. He who is always serving Krishna the dearmost lover of Rādhārāṇī, is Śrī Vārṣabhānavi Dayita Dās (Śrīla Sarasvatī Ṭhākur).

sadā sevya jāra pādapadma
susiddhānta mūrtti-dhara śrī śrīdhara guruvara

The nondifferent personality and embodiment of bhakti-siddhānta as well as Śrīla Sarasvatī Ṭhākur; and who is living within the conception of Śrīla Swarūp Dāmodar, Śrīla Rūpa Goswāmī and Śrīla Raghunāth dās Goswāmī; and whose lotus feet are always the worshipable happy shelter of the followers of Rūpa Goswāmī, he is Śrīla Śrīdhar Dev-Goswāmī.

tāra priya mano’ bhīṣṭa sthāpane sadāsacheṣṭa

He who is a very dear disciple of that Śrīla Śrīdhar Dev-Goswāmī Mahārāj, and who is establishing his divine conception, and who is fulfilling his desire continuously, he is Śrīla Bhakti Sundar Govinda Dev-Goswāmī.

tāra priya manonīta āchāra-prachāre rata

He who is the very dear disciple of Śrīla Bhakti Sundar Govinda Dev-Goswāmī, who is his chosen successor, and who is always devotedly engaged in practicing and preaching his divine conception, is Śrīla Bhakti Nirmal Āchārya Mahārāj.

ei paramparā dhana sabe gaura-nijajana

This is our grand preceptorial line and all of them are very dear to Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu. My sustenance is their remnants alone.

1. He (of divine form) came forth from the birthplace of the golden lotus - the ocean of the mellow of divine consorthood. His large, merciful eyes dispel (the suffering souls') fear and proclaim (the surrendered souls') victory. His tongue (constantly) vibrates the whole Earth planet with Śrī Krishna-ṣaṅkīrttan, his beauty resplendent in the robes of the sun’s radiance (saffron) that purifies the universe and dispels the suffering of material existence. On his Holy Day of Advent, I (again and again) bow down unto that beloved associate of Śrī Vṛṣabhānunandinī, and the servitors of his lotus feet.

2. The devotees surrendered in pure devotion are eternally protected at his lotus feet. He is worshippable by the pure souls endowed with sincerity and good fortune, and he accepts (even) those who obstruct the service of Śrī Hari, just to rectify them. As the very fountainhead of mercy upon all mobile and immobile beings, he crushes the inauspiciousness of the whole universe. On his Holy Day of Advent, I (again and again) bow down unto that beloved associate of Śrī Vṛṣabhānunandinī, and the servitors of his lotus feet.

3. Like a miracle, his body moves with a joyful elegance and charm beyond the world’s understanding, fulfilling the artist’s aspiration. (Or, dancing in Pastimes transcendental to the world, his artistic form incites divine love’s hankering). His intellect surpasses that of (even) the demigods, and he is nobility incarnate as the commander in-chief of the Vaiṣṇava sannyāsīs (tridaṇḍi-yatis). The sādhus of profound intellect describe the nature of his personality as meticulously in the line of Śrī Sanātan, Śrī Rūpa, and Śrī Raghunāth, and they speak of him as being on the same plane as Śrī Jīvapāda (being superbly replete in perfect theistic conclusions). On his Holy Day of Advent, I (again and again) bow down unto that beloved associate of Śrī Vṛṣabhānunandinī, and the servitors of his lotus feet.

He is most favourite to Kamala-mañjarī who is pre-eminent in Vṛndāvan, and with the glorious qualities of Guṇamañjari he builds the residence of Śrī Hari. On his Holy Day of Advent, I (again and again) bow down unto that beloved associate of Śrī Vṛṣabhānunandinī, and the servitors of his lotus feet.

5 He is immaculate joy incarnate, or, he is the graciousness or the joy of Bimalā Devī. He manifested the Pastimes of his Advent at Puruṣottama Kṣetra in the holy land of Orissa, and he revealed his Pastimes of delivering the fallen souls and extending his mercy upon them (by awarding them the gift of divine love) at the ‘new isles,’ or Nabadwīp. Circumambulating Gaura Dhām in the same way as traditionally done at Braja Dhām and Puruṣottama Dhām, he continuously propagates - the loving desire of Braja, the divine abode of Vaikuṇṭha, and the Holy Name of Krishna. On his Day of Holy Advent, I (again and again) make my obeisance unto that dear associate of Śrī Vṛṣabhānunandinī, and the servitors of his holy lotus feet.

1 All glories, all glories to the topmost personality, Śrīla Bhaktisiddhānta Sarasvatī Goswāmī Ṭhākur, who is an ocean of mercy and the only resort for the fallen souls.

2 He made his advent in Śrī Nilāchala, Śrī Puri Dhām. He came to the Holy dhām of Mahāprabhu, manifesting the line of pure devotion and destroying the fear of material life of the conditioned souls.

3 I have no capacity to sing your glories. Only if you empower me can I do so. You are travelling unceasingly all over India, practising and preaching in a dedicated way, the pure and genuine line of devotion in the current of Śrīla Rūpa Goswāmī.

śrīpāṭ khetari dhāma ṭhākura śrī narottama tomāte tāhāra guṇa dekhi
śāstrera siddhānta-sāra śuni lāge chamatkāra
kutārkika dite nāre phāki
We see your qualities are like Śrīla Narottam dās Ṭhākur who in the festival at Khetari Dhām delivered all the wonderful conclusions of the Scriptures which defeated the unfair argument and deception of the scholars there.

śuddha bhakti-mata jata upadharma-kavalita
heriyā lokera mone trāsa
hāni’ susiddhānta-vāṇa upadharma khāna khāna
sajjanera vāḍāle ullāsa

By presenting the line of pure devotion he devoured the path of unscriptural practice, and seeing this everybody was afraid. He struck this unscriptural path leaving it in pieces, giving increasing joy to all honest and noble men.

smārttamata jaladhara śuddha bhakti robi-kara āchādila bhāviyā antare
śāstra sindhu manthanete susiddhānta jhaṅjhāvāte

Pure devotion is like the sun risen in the heart, while the path of logic is like clouds covering that sun. By churning the ocean of the Scriptures, you spread perfect conclusions in all directions like a hurricane to disperse the clouds.

sthāne sthāne koto moṭh sthāpiyācha niṣkapoṭ
prema sevā śikhāite jive
moṭhera vaiṣṇava goṇ kore sadā vitaroṇ

You founded many temples in many places without reservation, teaching the fallen souls service in divine love. In these temples the Vaiṣṇavas constantly distribute talks on the nectarean qualities of the Supreme Lord Hari.

śuddha-bhakti-mandākinī vimala pravāha āni śitala korilā taptaprāṇa
deše deše niṣkiņchan prerilā vaiṣṇava goṇ
vistārite hariguṇa gāna
The current of pure devotion descends like the flow of the Ganges, cooling the fire of suffering of material life. Similarly, you sent the Vaiṣṇavas from place to place, widely distributing and chanting the qualities of Lord Hari.

Just as in the past, Lord Gaurahari severed the māyāvāda conception, converting the residents of Vārāṇasī into Vaiṣṇavas, similarly by expert analysis of the Vaiṣṇava philosophy you have enraptured all in Vārāṇasī.

You showed that certainly devotion to Lord Hari at the core of daiva-varṇāśrama-dharma, is the directive of the revealed Scriptures, while knowledge, yoga and material activities, if averse to such devotion are of absolutely no value.

You founded parikramā of Śrī Gauḍa Maṇḍala, Śrī Nabadwīp Dhām in the association of the devotees, showing your glories as a great devotee. You showed the whole world the nectarean blissful nature of Śrī Gauḍa Maṇḍala and how it is non-different from Śrī Braja Maṇḍala, Śrī Vṛndāvan.
12 You forgave all the atheists of Kuliyā village, despite their blasphemous behaviour. Loudly you proclaimed to one and all, one who is more tolerant than a tree can chant the glories of Lord Hari endlessly.

13 In the grand assembly of Vaiṣṇava kings you are adorned with the title ‘Pātrarāj’, as the head of the assembly. For the benefit of the whole world, you have renounced everything and devoted yourself to the good of all.

koritecho upakāra jāte para upakāra
lobhe jīva śrī krṣṇa-sevāya
dūre jāya bhava-roga khaṇḍe jāhe karma bhoga

14 You untiringly perform benevolent works just to help the souls of this world to attain the service of Lord Śrī Krishna. Then the disease of material suffering would leave them, their bondage to fruitive works would break and they would attain the lotus feet of the Lord.

jīva moha-nidrā gata jāgā’te vaikuṇṭha dūta ‘gauḍīya’ pāṭhāo ghore ghore
uṭhore uṭhore bhāi āro to samoya nāi

15 Seeing the souls of this world sleeping in illusion, you are sending the ‘Gauḍīya’ magazine from door to door just like a messenger from the transcendental plane. It calls aloud, “Awake, arise, O brother, there is no more time to waste, Serve and worship your Lord, Śrī Krishna.”

tomāra mukhāravinda- vigalita makaranda

16 Hearing the nectarean verses of the glorious qualities of the infallible
Lord Krishna, issuing from your lotus mouth soothes our souls, dissipates our ignorance and illusion, and the pain in our hearts goes far away.

17 O great soul! I know that there is no trace of desire for fame in your heart. Your qualities, like an expert musician, take hold of the viṇā of my voice and make me speak, devoid of any power over myself.

vaiśṇavera guṇa-gāna korile jivera trāṇa
śuniyāchi sādhu guru mukhe kṛṣṇa bhakti-samudoy janama saphala hoy
e bhava-sāgara tore sukhe

18 I have heard from the great saints and gurus mouths that upon hearing the qualities of the Vaiṣṇava saints, the conditioned souls attain liberation. And beyond this, devotion to Krishna develops, makes the soul’s birth perfect and the soul crosses this material ocean happily with ease.

19 For this reason I endeavour thus, just like a dwarf aspiring to reach the moon. I am lowly and fallen, but your nature is not to consider any offence, so I beg you to pardon my flaws.

śrī gaurāṅga-pāriśada ṭhākura bhaktivinoda

20 Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur, the associate of Śrī Gaurāṅga Mahāprabhu and friend of the lowly fallen souls brought you here, and you came like a spotless full moon to dispel the ignorance of this age of Kali.
So please keep incessantly showering your mercy, the nectar of ecstatic love of Godhead, and let all the souls of this world be uplifted by that. May all the people of the world dance in the congregational chanting of the Lord’s Holy Name - this is the prayer of this servant of the Vaiṣṇavas.

Oh readers, please hear this hymn of the poet Jayadeva, which is most excellent, an awarer of happiness, a bestower of auspiciousness, and the best news in this material world of darkness.
Oh Lord Krishna, I offer my obeisances unto You, who appear in the forms of these ten incarnations. In the form of Matsya You rescue the Vedas, and as Kūrma You bear the Mandara Mountain on Your back. As Varāha You lift the earth with Your tusk, and in the form of Nṛsiṁha You tear open the chest of the demon Hiraṇyakaśipu. In the form of Vāmana You trick the demoniac king Bali by asking him for only three steps of land, and then You take away the whole universe from him by expanding Your steps. As Paraśurāma You slay all of the wicked kṣatriyas, and as Rāmachandra You conquer the rākṣasa king Rāvaṇa. In the form of Balarām You carry a plough with which You subdue the wicked and draw toward You the River Jamunā. As Lord Buddha You show compassion toward all the living beings suffering in this world, and at the end of the age of Kali You appear as Kalki to bewilder the degraded low-class people.

2  (Seeing the whipping stick in His mother’s hand,) He is crying and rubbing His eyes again and again with His two lotus hands. His eyes are filled with fear, and the necklace of pearls around His neck, which is marked with three lines like a conchshell, is shaking because of His quick breathing due to crying. To this Supreme Lord, Śrī Dāmodar, whose belly is bound not with ropes but with His mother’s pure love, I offer my humble obeisances.

itīḍṛk sva-lilābhīr ānanda-kuṇḍe
sva-ghoṣāṁ nimajjantam ākhyaṁpayantāṁ tadiyeśita-jñēṣu bhaktair jitatvāṁ
punaḥ prematas taṁ śatāvṛtti vande
By such childhood Pastimes as this He is drowning the inhabitants of Gokul in pools of ecstasy, and is revealing to those devotees who are absorbed in knowledge of His supreme majesty and opulence that He is only conquered by devotees whose pure love is imbued with intimacy and is free from all conceptions of awe and reverence. With great love I again offer my obeisances to Lord Dāmodar hundreds and hundreds of times.

varaṁ deva mokṣaṁ na mokṣāvadhim viṁ
na chānyaṁ vṛṇe ‘haṁ vareśād apiha idan te vapur nātha gopāla-bālaṁ
sadā me manasy āvirāstāṁ kim anyaiḥ

Oh Lord, although You are able to give all kinds of benedictions, I do not pray to You for the boon of impersonal liberation, nor the highest liberation of eternal life in Vaikuṇṭha, nor any other boon (which may be obtained by executing the nine processes of bhakti). Oh Lord, I simply wish that this form of Yours as Bāla Gopāl in Vṛndāvan may ever be manifest in my heart, for what is the use to me of any other boon besides this?

idan te mukhāmbhojam avyakta-nīlair
vṛtaṁ kuntalaiḥ snigdha-raktaiś cha gopyā muhuś chumbitaṁ bimba-raktādharaṁ me
manasy āvirāstāṁ alaṁ lakṣa-lābhaiḥ

Oh Lord, Your lotus face, which is encircled by locks of soft black hair tinged with red, is kissed again and again by Mother Yaśoda, and Your lips are reddish like the bimba fruit. May this beautiful vision of Your lotus face be ever manifest in my heart. Thousands and thousands of other benedications are of no use to me.

O Supreme Godhead, I offer my obeisances unto You. O Dāmodar! O Ananta! O Viṣṇu! O Master! O my Lord, be pleased upon me. By showering Your glance of mercy upon me, deliver this poor ignorant fool who is immersed in an ocean of worldly sorrows, and become visible to my eyes.

tvayā mochitau bhakti-bhājau kṛtau cha tathā prema-bhaktiṁ svakāṁ me prayacha
na mokṣe graho me ’sti dāmodareha

7 O Lord Dāmodar, just as the two sons of Kuvera—Maṇigrīva and Nalakīśvara—were delivered from the curse of Nārada and made into great devotees by You in Your form as a baby tied with rope to a wooden grinding mortar, in the same way, please give to me Your own prema-bhakti. I only long for this and have no desire for any kind of liberation.

namo rādhikāyai tvadiya-priyāyai
namo ’nanta-līlāya devāya tubhyam

8 O Lord Dāmodar, I first of all offer my obeisances to the brilliantly effulgent rope which binds Your belly. I then offer my obeisances to Your belly, which is the abode of the entire universe. I humbly bow down to Your most beloved Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī, and I offer all obeisances to You, the Supreme Lord, who displays unlimited Pastimes.
Śrīman Mahāprabhu śata-nāma

by Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur

nadiyā-nagare nitāi neche neche gāy re

(Refrain:) In the towns and villages of Nadia, Lord Nityānanda ecstatically dances and sings these Names of Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu.

jagannātha-suta mahāprabhu viśvambhara māyāpura-śaśi navadvīpa-sudhākara

1 Lord Chaitanya is the beloved son of Jagannāth Miśra; He is Mahāprabhu, the great master, protector, and maintainer of the whole world. He is the shining moon of Māyapur, dissipating the dark ignorance of the world, and the source of all nectar for the Land of Nabadwīp.

śachī-suta gaurahari nimāi-sundara rādhā-bhāva-kānti-āchādito naṭabara

2 He is the beloved son of Śachī Mātā and is Lord Hari with a golden complexion. As He was born under a Neem tree He was called Nimāi-sundara (beautiful Nimāi). He is covered by the sentiment and lustre of Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī, and He is the best of all dancers.

nāmānanda chapala bālaka mātr-bhakta brahmāṇḍa-badana tarkī kautukānurakta

3 Lord Chaitanya becomes ecstatic upon hearing the Holy Name of Hari. As a boy He was swift and agile, devoted to His mother, a great logician, and fond of joking. Millions of worlds are contained in His mouth.

vidyārthi-uḍupa chaura-dvayera mohana tairthika-sarvvasva grāmya-bālikā-krīḍana

4 He bewildered two thieves who tried to steal His jewels when He was a small child, and He teased and joked with the village girls of Nadia. He is the moon among scholars and preeminent among all philosophers.
lakṣmī-prati boro-dātā udhata bālaka śrī-śachīra pati-putra-śoka-nibāraka

5 Lord Chaitanya is the giver of blessings to Lakṣmī-priyā (His first wife). He was a mischievous child and is the Lord, son and preventer of all kinds of grief of Śachi-mātā.

lakṣmī-pati pūrvva-deśa-sarvva-kleśa-hara digvijayi-darpa-hārī viṣṇu-priyeśvara

6 He is the Lord and husband of Lakṣmī-priyā. By His saṅkīrttan movement, He removed the distresses of East Bengal. He removed the pride of the conquering paṇḍit Keśava Kasmiri. He is the Lord of Viṣṇu-priyā (His second wife).

āryya-dharma-pāla pitṛ-gayā piṇḍa-dātā purī-śiṣya madhvāchārya-sampradāya-pātā

7 He was the protector and preserver of sanātana-dhārma and the giver of piṇḍa at Gayā after the disappearance of His father, Jagannāth Miśra. He became the disciple of Īśvara Purī and is the protector of the Madhvāchāryya Sampradāya.

kṛṣṇa-nāmonmatta kṛṣṇa-tattva-adhyāpaka nāma-saṅkīrttana-juga-dharma-pravarttaka

8 Lord Chaitanya became intoxicated by and mad for the Holy Name of Krishna, and began to profess the science of Krishna. Thus He inaugurated the religion of the age, Harinām-saṅkīrttan.

advaita-bāndhava śrīnivāsa-grha-dhon nityānanda-prāṇa gadādharera jīvan

9 He was the friend of Advaita Āchāryya, the treasure of Śrīvās Ṭhākur’s home, the life and soul of Nityānanda Prabhu, and the very source of life to Gadādhar Paṇḍit.
Śrī Gaurāṅga Mahāprabhu is the moon of Antardwīp and the triumph of Simantadwīp. He is wandering on the island of Godruma and is the shelter of Pastimes in Madhyadwīp.

Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu is the Lord of Koladwīp, Ṛtudwīp, Jahnudwīp, Modadrumadwīp, and Rudradwīp.

He is thus the Lord of Nabadwīp which serves as the stage for His wonderful Pastimes. He is the life of the River Ganges and He delivers all sorts of rogues and rascals beginning with Jagāi and Mādhāi.

Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu is the lion of the village kīrttan. He delivered the Chānd Kazi. He is the preacher of the pure Holy Name, and the remover of the distresses of His devotees.

He is the ocean of mercy for Nārāyaṇī; the controller of all souls; the chastiser of the fallen student who criticised His chanting of “Gopī, gopī”, and the destroyer of the sins of His devotees.

He was initiated into sannyās with the Name of Śrī Krishna Chaitanya, and He is beautiful like the moon. He delivered Keśava Bhārati; is the crest-jewel of all wandering sannyāsīs, and the saviour of Orissa.
Lord Chaitanya is the master of Lord Śiva, who is known as Ambu-liṅga, Bhuvaneśvara, and Kapoteśvara at three different Śaiva tīrthas visited by Śrī Chaitanya on His way to Jagannātha Puri. As a sannyāsī He rejoiced at the sight of Kṣīra-chora Gopīnāth and Sākṣi Gopāl.

He became a sannyāsī without a daṇḍa (staff) due to Lord Nityānanda’s breaking it and throwing it in the Bhargi River. He is full of mercy for Sārvabhauma Bhaṭṭāchāryya. He is ecstatic by tasting the bliss of Himself in the form of Krishna, and He is the resting place of all happiness.

Lord Gaurāṅga is beautiful like molten gold and He delivered the leper Vāsudeva. He is the friend of Rāmānanda Rāy, and the remover of all miseries from the family of Vyeṅkaṭa Bhaṭṭa.

He refuted the atheistic arguments of the Buddhists, Jains, and Māyāvādīs. He is the saviour of South India, and He has brought to light the two devotional literatures, Krishna-karṇāmṛta and Brahma-saṁhitā.

Śrī Chaitanya became ecstatic at the sight of Ālānātha. He danced in front of the Jagannāth cart during Rathayātrā, He delivered King Prataparudra, and He was the saviour of Devānanda Paṇḍit.
By His appearance at Kuliyā He delivered the ill-behaved student community. He is the friend of Rūpa and Sanātan, and the life of all souls.

Śrī Gaurāṅga is the personification of bliss in the transcendental realm of Vṛndāvan. He is the companion and friend of Balabhadra Bhaṭṭāchāryya. On His return from Vṛndāvan He delivered many Mohammedans. He is very fond of Vallabhāchāryya.

He delivered the Māyāvādī sannyāsīs of Kāśī, and He is the bestower of love of God. To set a strict example for sannyāsīs He chastised the great devotee Choṭo Haridās’s begging rice from Mādhavī Devī. Śrī Chaitanya is the saviour of everyone down to the lowest class of men.

Śrī Chaitanya is the glorifier of His devotees and is the wealth of their lives. He is the life of such devotees as Haridās Ṭhākur, Raghunāth dās Goswāmī, and Swarūp Dāmodar.

In the towns and villages of Nadia, Lord Nityānanda dances ecstatically, singing these divine Names, and Ṭhākur Bhaktivinoda falls down at His reddish lotus feet.
Śrī Kṛṣṇera Viṁsottara-śata-nāma

by Śrīla Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur

nagare nagare gorā gāy

From village to village Lord Gaura sings these names of Śrī Krishna.

jaśomatī-stanya-pāyi śrī-nanda-nandana
indra-nīla-maṇi braja-janera jīvana

1 Krishna is the baby who feeds on the breast of Mother Jaśodā. He is the son of Mahārāj Nanda, dark blue like an indranīla gem, and the life of the residents of Braja.

śrī gokula niśācharī-pūtanā ghātana
duṣṭa-tṛṇāvarta-hantā śakaṭa-bhañjana

2 Krishna destroyed the witch of Gokul, Pūtanā; He broke the cart in which the demon Śakaṭāsura was hiding; and He destroyed the wicked demon, Tṛṇāvarta.

navanīta-chora dadhi-haraṇa-kuśala
jamala-arjuna-bhañjī govinda gopāla

3 He is an expert thief of butter and yoghurt, He broke the two Jamala Arjuna trees, and He is a cowherd boy who is always giving pleasure to the cows, land and senses.

dāmodara vrṇḍāvana-go-vatsa-rākhāla
vatsāsurāntaka hari nija-jana-pāla

4 He is so naughty that His mother bound Him around the waist with ropes. Thus He is known as Dāmodar. He is the keeper of Vṛṇḍāvan’s cows and calves, the destroyer of the demon Vatsāsura, He is the remover of all evils and is the protector of His devotees.
baka-śatru agha-hantā brahma-vimohana
dhenuka-nāśana kṛṣṇa kāliya-damana

5 Krishna is the enemy of the demon Bakāsura, the slayer of Aghāsura, the bewilderer of Lord Brahmā, the destroyer of Dhenukāsura and the subduer of the Kāliya serpent. He is all-attractive and is the colour of a fresh rain cloud.

pītāmbara śikhi-picha-dhārī veṇu-dhara
bhāṇḍīra-kānana-līla dāvānala-hara

6 Lord Krishna dresses in yellow silk cloth and wears peacock feathers on His head. He holds a flute, performs Pastimes in the Bhāṇḍīra forest, and He once swallowed a forest fire to save the inhabitants of Braja.

naṭabara-guhāchara śarata-bihārī
ballabhī-ballabha deva gopī-bastra-hārī

7 Krishna, best of dancers, sometimes wanders in the caves of Govardhān Hill. He enjoys various amorous Pastimes in the autumn season, He is the lover of the young cowherd maidens, the stealer of their garments, and the Supreme Lord of all.

yajña-patnī-goṇ-prati koruṇāra sindhu
govardhana-dhṛk mādhava braja-bāsi-bandhu

8 Krishna is the ocean of mercy of the wives of the sacrificial brāhmaṇas, He is the holder of Govardhān Hill, the husband of the goddess of fortune, Lakṣmi, and the dearmost friend of the inhabitants of Braja.

indra-darpa-hārī nanda-rakṣitā mukunda
śrī-gopī-ballabha rāsa-krīḍa pūrṇānanda

9 He broke Indra’s pride and protected His father, Nanda Mahārāj. He is the giver of liberation, the lover of the cowherd maidens of Braja, the enjoyer of the Rasa Dance and the reservoir of pleasure.
śrī-rādhā-vallabha rādhā-mādhava sundara
lalitā-viśākhā-ādi sakhī-prāṇeśvara

10 He is the lover of Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī and the very spring-time of Her life. He is the Lord of the lives of all the gopīkās of Vṛndāvan, headed by Lalitā and Viśākhā.

nava-jaladhara-kānti madana-mohana
vana-māli smera-mukha gopī-prāṇadhana

11 Krishna possesses the loveliness of a fresh rain cloud in the Autumn sky. He is the bewilderer of Cupid, always garlanded with fresh forest flowers. His face is like a full-blown lotus flower of sweet smiles and laughter. He is the wealth of the lives of all the young maidens in Braja.

tri-bhaṅgī muralī-dhara jāmuna-nāgara
rādhā-kuṇḍa-raṅga-netā rasera sāgara

12 He possesses a beautiful three-fold bending form and holds a flute known as Muralī. He is the lover of the Jamunā River, the director of all the amorous love sports at Rādhā Kuṇḍa, and He is the ocean of devotional mellows.

chandrāvalī-prāṇanātha kautukābhilāṣī
rādhā-māna-sulampaṭa milana-prayāṣī

13 Krishna is the Lord of the life of Chandrāvalī, and He is always desirous of joking and sporting. He is very anxious to taste the rāsa of his beloved Rādhikā’s feigned sulking and always endeavours for Their meeting.

mānasa-gaṅgāra dānī prasūna-taskara
gopī-saha haṭha-kārī braja-vaneśvara

14 He is the giver of the Mānasa Gaṅgā Lake to the inhabitants of Vṛndāvan. This thief of flower blossoms acts very outrageously with the maidens of Vṛndāvan, not caring for social restrictions, for He is the Lord of the Braja-maṇḍala forests.
15 He is the wealth of Gokul and protects the cowherd men and boys from all miseries. He curbs all foolish pride and removes all distress from His devotees.

17 He hears the songs of the gopīs and is the slayer of the Madhu demon. This enemy of the demon Mura and killer of Ariṣṭāsura enjoys amorous sports and Pastimes at Rādhā Kuṇḍa and other places in Braja.

18 Krishna is the destroyer of the demon Vyomāsura. He is lotus-eyed, the killer of the Keśī demon, frolicsome, the slayer of King Kaṁsa and the conquerer of Kaṁsa’s wrestlers, Chāṇūra and Muṣṭika.

19 He is the beloved son of Vasudeva and the emblem of fame for the Vṛṣṇi dynasty. The Lord of the fallen souls, Śrī Krishna, is the Lord of Mathurā and He appears to have taken birth from the womb of Devakī.

20 KrishnaisfullofmercyforthehunchbackedKbjā.Heisthemaintainer of the entire creation, the son of Vasudeva, the refuge of all souls, the Lord of Dvārakā, the slayer of Narakāsura and the beloved descendent of the Jadu dynasty.
21. He is the lover of Rukmini, the husband of Satyaki, the protector of the godly, the beloved friend and relative of the five Pandava brothers and the cause of death for Sisuupal and other demoniac kings.

22. Krishna is the Lord of the universe, the maintainer of all living beings and He possesses beautiful hair. He is the deliverer from all misery and the origin of the universe and all incarnations.

23. He is the Lord of Maya; the master of mysticism; the proprietor of the spiritual powers of the brahma; the Lord, master and soul of all souls, and He is the opposite shore of the ocean of material nature.

24. Lord Krishna is the purifier of the fallen souls, the Lord of the universe, the Lord of all beings, the moon of Vrndavana and the origin of all rasas.

25. Lord Chaitanya sings these names of Krishna from village to village, and Thakur Bhaktivinoda falls at His lotus feet.
Once, on the auspicious day of Ekādaśī, in the house of Śrīvās Paṇḍit, Śrīman Mahāprabhu inaugurated congregational Nāma-śaṅkīrttan with great enthusiasm, accompanied by his devotees and associates.

Surging in divine ecstasy, Śrīman Mahāprabhu, the life and soul of the universe, began to dance beautifully. The devotees surrounded Him being deeply touched and inspired by such an ecstatic moment and they also began to dance and sing the Holy Names like Gopāl and Govinda.

The combined sound vibrations of mṛdaṅga, temple bells, karatāla and conchshell in harmony with the congregational singing and dancing took everyone to the plane of transcendental delight.

The holy vibration of saṅkīrttan filled the sky and spread throughout the ether all over the cosmic universal existence. Thus the atmosphere in all directions became purified and filled with auspiciousness by that divine sound.

In all four directions the auspicious chanting of the Lord’s name spread and in the centre of that sound vibration the son of Jagannāth Miśra, Śrīman Mahāprabhu danced.
Everyone was decorated with fragrant sandalwood paste and beautiful garlands. The most wonderful rhythmic sound arose from the dancing footsteps of Śrīman Mahāprabhu which captivated the minds of the devotees. As He continued dancing in His own internal ecstasy, the swinging flower garlands around His neck began to fall, decorating the earth. The devotees beheld before their eyes, this rare and precious heart-captivating, ecstatic dance of the supreme tattva, Śrī Gaurāṅga who is the most worshipable object of even the great personalities such as Lord Shiva, Śuka, Nārada and others.

Being totally overwhelmed and lost in the transcendental bliss of taking Mahāprabhu’s Holy Name, Lord Shiva sometimes does not care for his formal appearance or obligation to retain his clothing, which sometimes falls down while he dances in the ecstasy of loving devotion.

By chanting and meditating upon His Holy Name Śrī Valmīki became a great powerful rishi and Ajāmila attained pure liberation.

As one hears and takes His Holy Name with devotion, embracing its holy potency within the core of their heart, their existence becomes totally purified and they attain deliverance. Such is the Lord, the source of all incarnations, in His dancing form in this age of Kali.
jāra nāma loi śuka nārada beḍāya
sahasra-vadana-prabhu jāra guṇa gāya

12 The pure devotees Śrī Śukadeva and Devarṣi Nārada are always blissfully engaged in relishing the nectar of His Holy Name and distributing it to suitable jīva-souls, wherever they travel. Even Anantadeva describes His unlimited glories with thousands of mouths.

sarvva-mahā-prāyaśchitta je prabhura nāma
se prabhu nāchaye dekhe jata bhāgyavān

13 Of all penances, the chanting of the Lord’s name is supreme and whoever sees the dancing of the Lord in his form as Śrī Chaitanya is a supremely fortunate soul.

śrī kṛṣṇa-chaitanya nityānanda-chāḍā jāna
vṛndāvana dāsa tuchu pada-juge gāna

14 The two brothers, Śrī Krishna Chaitanya Mahāprabhu and Nityānanda Prabhu are my beloved masters and my life and soul. Thus Vṛndāvan dās sings this song of Their glorification and devotionally offers it at Their lotus feet.
Śuddha-bhakata

by Śrila Bhaktivinoda Ṭhākur

śuddha-bhakata- charaṇa-reṇu, bhajana-anukūla
bhakata-sevā, parama-siddhi, prema-latikāra mūla

1 Dust from the lotus feet of pure devotees is conducive to devotional service, while service to the Vaiṣṇavas is itself the supreme perfection and the root of the tender creeper of divine love.

   mādhava-tithi, bhakti-jananī, jatane pālana kori
kṛṣṇa-basati, basati boli’, parama ādare bori

2 I observe with great care the holy days like Ekādaśī and Janmāṣṭamī, for they are the mother of devotion. As my dwelling place I choose with the greatest reverence and love the transcendental abode of Śrī Krishna.

   gaura āmāra, je-saba sthāne, koralo bhramaṇa raṅge
se-saba sthāna, heribo āmi, praṇayi-bhakata-saṅge

3 All those places where my Lord Gaurasundar travelled for Pastimes I will visit in the company of loving devotees.

   mṛdaṅga-bādya, śunite mon, abasara sadā jāche
gaura-bihita, kīrttana śuni’, ānande hṛdoya nāche
My mind always begs for the opportunity to hear the music of the mṛdaṅga. Upon hearing the kind of kīrttan ordained by Lord Gaurachandra, my heart dances in ecstasy.

jugala-mūrtti, dekhiyā mora, parama-ānanda hoy
prasāda-sevā korite hoy, sakala prapañcha jay

By beholding the Deity forms of the divine couple, Śrī Śrī Rādhā-Krishna, I feel the greatest joy. By honouring the Lord’s prasādam I conquer over all worldly illusions.

je-dina ġṛhe, bhajana dekhi, ghrete goloka bhāya
charaṇa-sīdhu, dekhiyā gaṅgā, sukha nā sīmā pāya

Goloka Vṛndāvan appears in my home whenever I see the worship and service of Lord Hari going on there. Upon seeing the Ganges, which is a river of nectar emanating from the lotus feet of the Lord, my happiness knows no bounds.

tulasī dekhi’, juḍāya prāṇa, mādhava-toṣaṇi jāni’
gaura-priya, śāka-sevane,
jivana sārthaka māni

The sight of the holy Tulasī tree soothes my soul, for I know she gives pleasure to Lord Krishna. By honouring śāk (a green leafy vegetable preparation), a dear favourite of Lord Chaitanya, I consider life worthwhile.

bhakativinoda, kṛṣṇa-bhajane, anukūla pāya jāhā
prati-divase, parama-sukhe, svikāra koroye tāhā

Whatever Bhaktivinoda obtains that is conducive for the service of Śrī Krishna, he accepts every day with the greatest of joy.
chaudda-śata sāta-śake māsa je phālgun
paurṇamāsīra sandhyā-kāle hoile śubha-kṣaṇ

Thus in the year 1407 of the Śaka Era (A.D. 1486), in the month of Phālguna (March-April), on the evening of the full moon, the desired auspicious moment appeared.

siṁha-rāśi, siṁha-lagna, ucha graha-goṇ
śaḍa-varga, aṣṭa-varga, sarva sulakṣaṇ

According to the Jyotir-veda, or Vedic astronomy, when the figure of the lion appears both in the zodiac and the time of birth (lagna), this indicates a very high conjunction of planets, an area under the influence of śaḍa-varga and aṣṭa-varga, which are all-auspicious moments.

a-kalaṅka gaurachandra dilā daraśan
sa-kalaṅka chandre āro kon prayojan

When the spotless moon of Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu became visible, what would be the need for a moon with blacks marks all over his body?

eto jāni’ rāhu koilo chandrera grahaṇ
‘kṛṣṇa’ ‘kṛṣṇa’ ‘hari’ nāme bhāse tri-bhuvan

Considering this, Rāhu, the black planet, covered the full moon, and immediately vibrations of “Krishna! Krishna! Hari!” inundated the three worlds.

jaya jaya dhvani hoilo sakala bhuvan
chamatkāra hoiyā lok bhāve mone mon

All people thus chanted the Holy Names during the lunar eclipse, and their minds were struck with wonder.
When the whole world was thus chanting the Holy Names “Hari! Hari!” Krishna in the form of Gaurahari advented Himself on the earth.

The whole world was pleased. While the Hindus chanted the Holy Name of the Lord, the non-Hindus, especially the Muslims, jokingly imitated the words.

All the ladies vibrated the Holy Name and chanted “huli huli huli!!!!”, while in the heavenly planets dancing and music were going on and the demigods were very curious.

In this atmosphere, all the ten directions became jubilant, as did the waves of the rivers. Moreover, all beings, moving and nonmoving, were overwhelmed with transcendental bliss.

By His causeless mercy the full moon, Gaurahari, rose in the district of Nadia, which is compared to Udayagiri, where the sun first becomes visible. His rising in the sky dissipated the darkness of sinful life, and thus the three worlds became joyful and chanted the Holy Name of the Lord.
sei-kāle nijāloya, uṭhiyā advaita rāya nṛtya kore ānandita-mone haridāse loyā saṅge, huṅkāra-kīrttana-раinge
kene nāche, keho nāhi jāne

99 At that time Śrī Advaita Āchāryya, in His own house at Shantipur, was dancing in a happy mood. Taking Haridās Ṭhākur with Him, they danced and loudly chanted the Holy Names of the Lord. But why they were dancing, no one could understand.

dekhi’ uparāga hāsi’, śīghra gaṅgā-ghāṭe āsi’ ānande korilo gaṅgā-snāna
pāyā uparāga-chole, āpanāra mano-bole, brāhmaṇere dilo nānā dāna

100 Seeing the lunar eclipse and laughing, both Advaita Āchāryya and Haridās Ṭhākur immediately went to the bank of the Ganges to bathe in that sacred river in great jubilation. Taking advantage of the occasion of the lunar eclipse, Advaita Āchāryya, in His mind offered various kinds of charity to the brāhmaṇas.

jagata ānandamoy, dekhi’ mone sa-vismoy ṭhāreṭhore kohe haridāsa tomāra aichana raṅga, mora mon parasanna, dekhi—kichu kāryye āche bhāsa

101 When he saw that the whole world was jubilant, Haridās Ṭhākur, his mind astonished, directly and indirectly expressed himself to Advaita Āchāryya: “Your dancing and distributing charity are very pleasing to me. I can understand that there is some special purpose in these actions.”

āchāryyaratna, śrīvāsa, hoilo mone sukhollāsa
jāi’ snāna koilo gaṅgā-jole ānande vihvala mon, kore hari-saṅkīrttana
nānā dāna koilo mano-bole

102 Āchāryyaratna and Śrīvās Ṭhākur were overwhelmed with joy, and immediately they also went to the bank of the Ganges to bathe there. Their minds full of happiness, they chanted the Holy Names of Hari and in their minds also meditated and offered charity.
In this way all the devotees, wherever they were situated, in every city and every land, danced, performed sankīrttan (the congregational chanting of the Lord’s Names), and in their minds offered all benedictions to others, being overwhelmed with joy.

Many respectful brāhmaṇa gentlemen and ladies, carrying plates filled with various gifts, came with their presentations. Seeing the newborn child, whose form resembled shining gold, all of them with happiness offered their blessings.

Sāvitrī, Gaurī, Śachī, Rambhā, Arundhatī and all the celestial ladies also came there dressed as the wives of brāhmaṇas, and brought with them many varieties of gifts for the child.

All the inhabitants of the heavenly planets, including the Gandharvas, Siddhas, the residents of Chāraṇaloka, offered their prayers, sang and danced, accompanied by the sound of musical instruments and the beating of drums. Also, in the holy town of Nabadwīp, dancers, musicians, and poets gathered together, and began to celebrate the Lord’s appearance.
kebā āse kebā jáya, kebā nāche kebā gāya, sambhālite nāre kāra bolo
khaṇḍileka duḥkha-śoka, pramoda-pūrita loka, miśra hoilā ānande vihvala

107 No-one could understand who was coming and who was going, who was dancing and who was singing. Nor could they understand each other’s language. But in effect all unhappiness and lamentation were immediately dissipated, and people became joyous. Jagannāth Miśra, the father of Gaurahari, was completely overwhelmed with happiness.

āchāryyaratna, śrīnivāsa jagannātha-miśra-pāśa, āsi’ tāre kore sāvadhāna
korāilo jātakarma, je āchilo vidhi-dharma, tobe miśra kore nānā dāna

108 Chandraśekhar Āchāryya and Śrīvas Ṭhākur both came to the house of Jagannāth Miśra. They performed the different ceremonies according to religious principles which are prescribed for the birth of a child. Jagannāth Miśra also gave away much wealth in charity.

jautuka pāilo jata, ghore vā āchilo kata, sob dhon vipre dilo dāna
jata narttaka, qāyan, bhāṭa, akiñchana jon, dhon diyā koilo sabāra māna

109 Whatever riches Jagannāth Miśra had collected in the form of gifts and presents, and whatever he had in his house, he distributed among the brāhmaṇas, singers, dancers, poets and the poor. He honoured them all by giving them riches in charity.

śrīvāsera brāhmaṇī, nāma tāra ‘mālinī’, āchāryyaratnera patnī-saṅge
sindūra, haridrā, toilo, khoi, kalā, nānā phol, diyā pūje nārigoṇa raṅge

110 The wife of Śrīvas Ṭhākur, whose name was Mālinī, accompanied by the wife of Chandraśekhar and other ladies, came there in great happiness to worship the baby with such articles as vermilion, turmeric, scented oil, a kind of puffed rice called khoi, bananas and coconuts.
One day shortly after Gaurahari was born, Advaita Āchāryya’s wife, Sītā Ṭhākurāṇī, who is worshipable by the whole world, at the request of her husband, went to see that topmost child with all kinds of gifts.

She brought different kinds of presents made from gold, such as bracelets, coins, necklaces, ankle ornaments, a conchshell covered with gold, and other kinds of jewellery for the child.

She also brought a locket with a tiger nail set in gold, belts made of silk and lace, silk saris and shawls, as well as silk clothing for the newly born child.

Riding in a palanquin covered with cloth and accompanied by maidservants, Sītā Ṭhākurāṇī came to the house of Jagannāth Miśra, bringing with her many auspicious articles such as dūrvā grass, rice paddy, turmeric, kuṁkuma and sandal-wood. All these presentations filled a large basket.
bhakṣya, bhojya, upahāra, soṇge loilo bahu bhāra, śachī gṛhe hoilo upanīto
dekhiyā bālaka-ṭhām, sākṣāt gokula-kān, varṇa-mātra dekhi viparīto

115  When Sītā Ṭhākurāṇī, bringing with her many kinds of food, clothes and other gifts, came to the house of Śachīdevī (the mother of Gaurahari), Sītā Ṭhākurāṇī was astonished to see the newly born child, and she could appreciate that except for a difference in color, the child was directly Lord Krishna of Gokul, Himself.

sarvva aṅga—sunirmāna, suvarṇa-pratimā-bhāna,
sarva aṅga—sulakṣaṇamoy
bālakera divya jyoti, dekhi’ pāilo bahu prīti, vātsalyete dravilo hṛdoy

116  Seeing the divine effulgence of the child, the well formed different parts of His golden body which were covered with auspicious signs, Sītā Ṭhākurāṇī was very much pleased, and because of maternal affection,
she felt as if her heart were melting.

durvvā, dhānya, dilo śirše, koilo bahu āśīše, chirajīvī hao dui bhāī
ḍākinī-śā̐khinī hoite, śaṅkā upajilo chite, ḍore nāma thuilo ‘nimāi’

117  She blessed the newly born child by placing fresh durvvā grass and paddy on His head and saying, “May you live long.” To protect Him from ghosts and witches, she gave the child the name Nimāi.

putramātā-snānadine, dilo vastra vibhūṣaṇe,
putra-saha miśrere sammāni’
śachī-miśrera pūjā loyā, monete hariṣa hoyā, ghore āilā sitā ṭhākurāṇī

118  Sītā Ṭhākurāṇī gave gifts to the mother and child, at the time of His birth and when the child was brought from the residence where He was born back to the home of Jagannāth Miśra. Then Sītā Ṭhākurāṇī, being honoured by mother Śachīdevī and Jagannāth Miśra, returned to her own home in Shantipur.
In this way, Śachīdevī and Jagannāth Miśra, having obtained a son who was the husband of the goddess of fortune, had all their desires fulfilled. Their house was always filled with riches and grains. As they looked upon the beloved body of the Lord, day after day their happiness increased.

Jagannāth Miśra was an ideal Vaiṣṇava, a devotee of the Lord. He was peaceful, restrained in the enjoyment of his senses, pure and self-controlled. He therefore had no desire to enjoy material opulence. Whatever money that came because of the influence of his divine son, he gave in charity to the brāhmaṇas and for the worship of Lord Vishnu.

After calculating the astrological chart for the child, Gaurahari, Nilāmbar Chakravartī privately said to Jagannāth Miśra that he saw all the different auspicious symptoms of a great personality in both the body and horoscope of the child. He revealed that in the future this child would deliver the whole universe.

In this way the Lord, out of His causeless mercy, made His advent in the house of Śachidevi. The Lord, Gaurahari, is very merciful to anyone who hears this narration of His birth, and gives that person the shelter of His lotus feet.
pāiyā mānuṣa janma, je nā śune gaura-guṇa, heno janma tāra vyartha hoilo
pāiyā amṛtadhunī, piye viṣa-gartta-pāni
janmiyā se kene nāhi moilo

123 Anyone who attains a human birth but does not have the opportunity to hear of Gaurahari is unfortunate. Instead of drinking nectar from the river of devotional service, if one drinks from the poisoned well of mundane happiness, it would have been better to not have lived at all.

śrī-chaitanya-nityānanda, āchāryya advaitachandra, svarūpa-rūpa-raghunātha-dāsa
ihā-sabāra śrī-charaṇa, śire vandi nija-dhon, janma-līlā gāilo kṛṣṇadāsa

124 Taking on my head as my own wealth the lotus feet of Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu, Śrī Nityānanda Prabhu, Āchāryya Advaitachandra, Śrī Swarūp Dāmodar, Śrī Rūpa and Śrī Raghunāth and all the devotees of Mahāprabhu, I, Krishnadās, sing the glories of the Lord’s appearance.
The Lord said, "I have told you this Mahāmantra, so everyone now chant it in proper measure. By doing this, you will attain success in all respects. There is no other rule but to chant it at every moment. Whether resting, eating, or waking—day and night think of Krishna and call His Name aloud."

(Śrī Chaitanya-Bhāgavata Madhya 23.77-78, 28.28)
After parikramā

nagara bhramiyā āmāra gaura elo ghore
gaura elo ghore āmāra nitāi elo ghore dhūlā jhāri śachīmātā gaura kole kore
ānandete bhakta-goṇe hari hari bole

“After parikramā of the town, Gaurāṅga returns to His house, and Nitāi also comes to the house. Dusting off His body, Śachīmātā takes Gaurāṅga upon her lap. Out of great spiritual joy all the devotees are chanting ‘Hari Hari Bol!’”

1 Alas, alas! Oh Bhaktivinod Ṭhākur, Oh Supreme Guru, for twenty-two years this world has been plunged into misfortune, long grief-stricken in your intolerable separation. You are the divine potency of Śrī Gaura, and you graciously made your advent in this earthly plane, being attracted by the living beings’ virtuous deeds performed throughout many lifetimes.

2 Since I am lowly and very wretched, it was not my luck to reach the ocean that bestows the fortune of surrender—the ocean of the ecstasy of bathing in a particle of the dust of your holy lotus feet. Yet due to your magnanimous nature, you gave your grace to the whole universe, personally revealing your supereminence as the personification of the mercy potency of Śrī Gaurāṅga. (That is, by coming into this world, I received his grace.)

3 Oh Lord, even all the demigods headed by Lord Brahmā feel frustrated by their inability to (fittingly) sing the glories of all your divine qualities. What, then, can be said of the attempt of a fallen soul, a mere human like me? Surely, the learned will never waste their eloquent words eulogising this statement, since even the Supreme Lord, Lord Śrī Krishna Himself, has sung in the Scriptures His celebrated confession na pāraye ’ham—‘I am unable (to reciprocate your devotion).’

4 At a time when religion was evaluated in terms of bodily relationship, saintliness was determined by ignorance, and yoga practice was motivated by sensual pleasure; when scholarship was cultivated just for voidism, japa was conducted for the sake of fame, and penance was performed out of vindictiveness; when charity was given out of pride, and on the pretext of spontaneous devotion the most gross, sinful acts were perpetrated—and in all such anomalous situations even the intelligentsia were at loggerheads with one another... at that very time, you were sent by the Almighty Creator.

5 As the universally cooling moon is beautified by diffusing its nectarean rays, nourishing the plants and inciting the twinkling of the stars, your Holy Advent in this world is similarly ascertained as satisfying the pure devotional Scriptures (through profound study) and blessing the learned with full-blown happiness (by the perfect axiomatic conclusions descending in Divine Succession). With your appearance, the ecstasy of the devotees knows no bounds.

6 By writing many books and by multifarious methods recognised by the pure devotees, you have demonstrated the preaching of pure devotional service unto the Supreme Lord, for the benefit of the whole world. We have heard of similar achievements in previous times by stalwart scholars such as Śrī Rāmānuja and many other Āchāryyas; but the glory of you—the very embodiment of the nectar of divine love—does not end (cannot be confined) here.

Merely the effulgence of His divine abode has been designated by the title ‘Brahman’ in the Vedas, and only the expansion of an expansion of His expansion is sought after with great tribulation by the foremost yogīs. The most exalted of the liberated souls shine resplendent as the bumblebees at His lotus feet. The Primeval Origin of even the Original Śrī Nārāyaṇa who is the Lord of the spiritual sky above Brahman: He is the Original Supreme Lord, the personification of all nectarean mellow—Śrī Krishna—and He is the one that you give.

Situated in the topmost region of the absolutely inconceivable spiritual sky is the holy abode of Śrī Vṛndāvan Dhām, in the spiritual planet known as Goloka. There, surrounded by Sakhīs, Śrīmatī Rādhikā revels in the mellows of divine Pastimes. With great ecstasy, She expands the joy of loving sweetness in the service of Śrī Krishnachandra, who is otherwise served in four relationships up to parenthood. You, Oh Ṭhākur Bhaktivinod, can give us the service of that holy Dhām.
The internal purport is known to Śrī Svarūp Dāmodar by the sanction of Śrī Gaurachandra, of that which is adored by Śrī Sanātan Goswāmī and distributed by the preceptors realised in transcendental mellows, headed by Śrī Rūpa Goswāmī; that which is tasted and enhanced by Śrī Raghunāth Dās Goswāmī and followers and carefully protected by the votaries headed by Śrī Jīva Prabhu; and that which (from a respectful distance) is venerated by great personalities such as Śrī Śuka, Lord Śiva, the chief of the demigods, and Lord Brahmā, the grandfather of all beings—Oh wonder of wonders! the nectarean rapture of servitude unto Śrī Rādhikā—that, too, you can give us.

Where am I, so lowly and fallen, and where are you, the great soul who delivers the universe! Oh Lord, by your grace, you are sure to forgive my offences. Oh ocean of mercy, in the dust of your lotus feet I pray for just this benediction: kindly make my life successful by recommending me for admission into the group of Śrī Vārṣabhānavī Dayita Dās, who is the dearmost one in your heart.

Translator’s Note: The preceding prayer to Śrīla Bhaktivinod Ṭhākur (1838-1914), the pioneer of pure devotion in the recent age, was composed within the lifetime of the author’s Guru, Śrīla Bhakti Siddhānta Saraswatī Ṭhākur Goswāmī Prabhupād. Upon reading the original Sanskrit verse, Śrīla Prabhupād commented, “Now I am confident that we have one man who is qualified to uphold the standard of our Sampradāya (Divine Succession).”

Homage unto Śrīmad Gaura Kiśora Bābāji Mahārāj
by Śrīla Bhakti Rakṣak Śrīdhar Dev-Goswāmī Mahārāj

1  Oh Divine Master of my Divine Master, my most venerable preceptor, you are supremely worshippable in the group of the foremost associates of Śrī Gaurāṅga. May you be gracious upon this servitor surrendered unto your loving servitor (Dayita Dās). Oh Gaura Kiśora, again and again do I make my obeisance unto you.

2  Oh worshipful one, you alone revealed my Lord and Master, who is renowned throughout the universe as Śrī Bhakti Siddhānta Saraswatī, and who is the only friend of the fallen souls of the world. Oh Gaura Kiśora, again and again do I make my obeisance unto you.

3  Living in solitude at Vraja Dhām, your heart was absorbed in the most secret Pastimes of the Divine Youthful Couple of Vraja, whilst externally you maintained the strictures of a renunciate; and sometimes you appeared to transcend all recognised strictures. Oh Gaura Kiśora, again and again do I make my obeisance unto you.
Sometimes you roam about the edge of Gauravana (the boundary of Śrī Nabadwīp Dhām), wandering along the beach near the banks of the Gaṅgā. Oh Gaura Kiśora, who dons the holy loin-cloth and carries the mendicant’s water-pot, again and again do I make my obeisance unto you.

Ever singing the Holy Name of Śrī Hari with great ecstasy and accepting alms from house to house like a bee collecting honey from flower to flower, you are the great soul unto whom even the demigods bow to. Oh Gaura Kiśora, again and again do I make my obeisance unto you.

Becoming overwhelmed with love for your worshipful Lord, sometimes you dance, sometimes you cry, sometimes you laugh; and again, you sing aloud. The people profusely offer their respects unto you, Oh Gaura Kiśora, and again and again do I make my obeisance unto you.

Oh friend of the glorious Ṭhākur Bhaktivinod, Oh matchless ocean of the nectar of loving devotion for Mahāprabhu Śrī Chaitanyadev, Oh moon that received the grace of Vaiṣṇava Sārvabhauma Śrī Jagannātha, Oh Gaura Kiśora! again and again do I make my obeisance unto you.
Completing the great holy vow of Ūrjja-vrata, you selected the day of the awakening of Śrī Dāmodar to achieve the cherished treasure of your internal identity as a Sakhī devoted to the service of Śrī Rādhikā. Oh Gaura-Kiṣora, again and again do I make my obeisance unto you.

Forsaking the company of the residents of Kuliya town to accept the service of your servitor Śrī Dayita Dās, your divine presence is now found in a holy temple at Śrī Dhām Māyāpur. Oh Gaura Kiṣora, again and again do I make obeisance unto you.

Although I remain deep in the mud of offences, I (a fallen soul) am begging you for your causeless mercy. Please be gracious and deliver this soul bereft. Oh Gaura Kiṣora, again and yet again do I make my obeisance unto you.

1 At the end of the night of Śrī Śrī Vṛṣabhānunandini, She suddenly took him to Her entourage, withdrawing him from the company of throngs of griefstricken souls. A great cry of lamentation arose, their bodies were bathed by their tears. When he was thus stolen away, this world was plunged into the deep darkness of one whose eyes have been stolen away (hṛta—stolen away; nayana-maṇī—jewel of the eye—the internal name of Saraswatī Ṭhākur is ‘Nayana-maṇī’).

(Bereft of the vision of my Divine Master,) Oh my sorrowful eyes (dīna-nayana), (or, Oh saviour of the fallen (Dīna-nayana),) wherever that great soul may be, please quickly take this servitor there! (Although he is my Master named ‘Nayana,’ or ‘one who brings us near,’ in his mercy he shows the miserliness of not taking me unto his company.)

2 From his lotus feet, the nectarean river of divine love flows throughout the universe; his servitors, like bees, maintain their lives drinking the honey that falls from his lotus feet; and the pure devotees in the shelter of the confidential mellows of Vraja revel in the bliss of singing the glories of his lotus feet: Oh Dīna-nayana, wherever that great soul may be, please quickly take this servitor there.

3 Parental affection, so highly esteemed in the world, is a colossal hoax (as an obstacle to Hari-bhakti); socially recognised pure matrimonial love is nothing but dacoity (in that it plunders away both the husband’s and the wife’s eagerness for the chance to acquire the treasure of love unadulterated by the superficiality of familial prejudice); and common friendship is merely deception: I have gleaned these thoughts from the rays of light that emanate from the toenails of the holy feet of that great personality, the embodiment of supramundane affection. Oh Dīna-nayana, wherever that great soul may be, please quickly take this servitor there.

4 The divine message sung by Śrī Krishna Chaitanya-chandra had its continuous play in the ears of the people. From the ear, did he, just to fulfil the purport of the name ‘Nayana-maṇi,’ reveal his form to the eye, making his advent in the mansion (temple) favoured by the glance of Śrī Nilāchalachandra (at the time of the Rathayātrā festival)? Oh Dīna-nayana, wherever that great soul (Mahāpuruṣa) may be, please swiftly take this servitor there.

5 Drawing up the pure golden waters of the Jambu River mentioned in Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam, has this golden cloud arisen on the mountain where the golden moon (Śrī Gaurachandra) descended (set), just to shower down torrents of rain upon the whole countryside that was scorched by the forest fire (of threefold sufferings), then suddenly conceal himself in the dust of the land of the Advent of Śrī Gaurāṅga? Oh Dīna-nayana, wherever that Great Master may be now, please quickly take this servitor to that place.

6 He is of the same hue as Śrī Gaura, and although he, who sings the tidings of Śrī Gaura, is the (natural) Guru of the whole universe, he accepted discipleship to a great devotee called Śrī Gaura Kiśora (‘adolescent Gaura’). In the whole Gaura-maṇḍala he is the repository of the glory of those who grant entrance into the fold of the pure Gauḍīya Vaiṣṇavas. He proudly ascended the lofty throne of preaching the glories of the gift of the Golden Lord Śrī Gaura (the service of Śrī Rādhā-Govinda in Vraja) to the Vaiṣṇavas of Draviḍa (the devotees in South India, who are generally worshippers of Lakṣmī-Nārāyaṇa). The glory of his dignity shines even in the group of Śrī Gāndharvavā, and he holds a pre-eminent position in the intimate circle of Śrī Giridhārī, that is, he is the most beloved of Lord Mukunda. Oh Dīna-nayana, where that great soul is now, please swiftly take this servitor there.

7 He inundated the whole universe of countless living beings—whether brahmaṇa, kṣatriya, vaiśya, śudra, less than śudra, and even mlechcha—with the oceanic nectar of the Holy Name of Śrī Rādhā-Krishna. Although unapproachable by the liberationists and yogic perfectionists, he is known as the friend of the fallen, the mercy potency of Śrī Gaurāṅga. Oh Dīna-nayana, wherever that great soul may be, please swiftly take this servitor there.

8 Do I have a hope to ever see that beautiful golden personality who makes everything auspicious for the world? Do I have a hope to ever behold that tall figure once again, his blue lotus eyes, his nose that excels the charm of the Tila flower, his forehead that shames the half-moon, his graceful lotus face, his gleaming pearl-white teeth, his long arms extending to his knees? Oh Dīna-nayana, wherever that great soul has gone, please swiftly take this servitor there.

9 In the year of our Lord Gaurāṅga 450, in the month of Pauṣa, on the fourth day of the dark fortnight of the moon in the star of Maghā, at the closing of the night of Bṛhaspativara (5.30 a.m., 1st January, 1937), that most beloved attendant of Śrīmatī Vṛṣabhānunandinī entered into the eternal Pastimes. Oh Dīna-nayana, wherever that great soul may be, quickly take this servitor there to him.

10 The entire earth and skies were filled with the cries of anguish of the people, and of the disciples devoted to the service of Śrī Gurudeva’s lotus feet. Where has that Great Master gone? Alas! today the whole universe seems empty, in the separation of Prabhupād. The servitor of Gurudeva cannot endure even a moment of his separation.
Oh Dīna-nayana, wherever, wherever that great soul may be,
please quickly take this servitor there to him.

the leader of the associates of Lord Chaitanya (the Divine Succession being known as the Rūpānuga-sampradāya, ‘the followers of Śrī Rūpa’).
In the company of his brothers, he was resplendent in (the province of) Gauḍa, causing the fervent twin bumblebees in the form of the lotus eyes of Śrī Chaitanyadev to drink nectar, as the Lord’s lotus feet moved on the pretext of visiting Vṛndāvan. When will that Śrīmad Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his holy feet?

2  At Śrī Rāmakeli Dhām, the king of bees—the heart of Śrī Rūpa—became intoxicated drinking the honey-wine of the lotus feet of Śrī Gaurachandra, and sacrificed its life (in Hari-kīrttan) for the benefit of all the people of the world, summarily abandoning a life of kingly opulence. After informing his elder brother Śrī Sanātan, Śrī Rūpa and his younger brother Śrī Vallabha followed the footsteps of Śrī Chaitanyadev, whose heart was absorbed in going (from Nilāchala) to Śrī Vṛndāvan. When will that Śrī Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his holy lotus feet?

3 Śrī Chaitanyadev returned from Vṛndāvan to Prayāga Dhām and performed Nāma-saṅkīrttan, surrounded by crowds of hundreds of thousands. Intoxicated with divine love, dancing, He melted the hearts of hundreds of faithful souls with His astonishing transcendental ecstasies. Śrī Rūpa, as though regaining his most precious treasure, thus found Śrī Chaitanyadev in the direct presence of the Deity Śrī Bindu Mādhava. When will that Śrī Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his holy lotus feet?

4 At the sacred spot on the confluence of the Gaṅgā and the Yamunā, Śrī Rūpa achieved intimate union with the lotus feet of the dearmost Lord of his life—the Lord who is Krishna within and Gaura without. In grave humility, with straw in mouth and with tears of sorrow, he along with his younger brother worshipped Śrī Gaura-Krishna in intense love. When will that Śrī Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his holy lotus feet?
Śrī Chaitanyadev saw Śrī Rūpa and his younger brother rolling on the ground some distance away. Seeing His endeared one, His favourite, His love divine personified in natural beauty and charm, His exclusive alter ego in divine Pastimes, the Lord swiftly approached Śrī Rūpa, profusely singing his glories, and embraced him in ecstasy. When will that Śrī Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his holy lotus feet?

Śrī Gaurahari knew that (as an eternal associate of the Lord) Śrī Rūpa was already proficient in wandering through-out the ambrosial ocean of all mellows, in the land of unalloyed love (in Braja-rāsa). Nonetheless, to expand His own Pastimes, the Lord enabled him to drink the sweet ecstasy of servitude unto Śrī Rādhā, and empowered him with the skill to distribute the nectar of His personal devotional service. When will that Śrīmad Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his lotus feet?
When on the order of Śrī Gaurāṅga, Śrī Rūpa visited Śrī Pūruṣottama Kṣetra after completing the circumambulation of Śrī Vraja Maṇḍala, He highly gratified Śrī Chaitanyadev and the sagacious devotee assembly headed by Śrī Svarūp Dāmodar and Śrī Rāmānanda Rāya by his ambrosial poetry on the Pastimes of the Divine Couple of Vraja. When will that Śrīmad Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his lotus feet?

When the manifest līlā of the Supreme Lord Śrī Chaitanyadev was withdrawn, all beings including the immobile entities were mortified, deeply afflicted in sorrow. Śrī Rūpa and his elder brother were the only shelter for even the intimate devotees of the Lord, headed by Raghunāth, Gopal Bhaṭṭa, and Śrī Jīva, who had almost lost their lives in the Lord’s separation. When will that Śrīmad Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his lotus feet?
By writing many, many books, he gave the world all the most cherished desires of his worshipful Lord Śrī Chaitanyaadev, principally—revealing the service of the Deity, establishing the pure code of conduct in devotion, revealing the lost holy places, and revealing the path of spontaneous devotion (Rāga-mārga) in transcendental loving service to Śrī Rādhā-Govinda. When will that Śrīmad Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his holy lotus feet?

līlā-saṁgopa-kāle nirupadhi-karuṇā- kāriṇā svāmināhaṁ yat pādābje ‘rpito yat pada-bhajanamayaṁ gāyayitvā tu gītam yogyāyogyatva-bhāvaṁ mama khalu sakalāṁ duṣṭa-buddher agrhṇan sa śrī-rūpaḥ kadā māṁ nija-pada-rajasā bhūṣitaṁ saṁvidhatte

Just prior to the withdrawal of his manifest līlā, my causelessly merciful Divine Master, Śrīla Saraswatī Ṭhākur, handed me over to the holy feet of that Divine Personality by having me sing the glorious prayer unto his lotus feet (Śrī Rūpa-mañjarī-pada). Despite my lowliness, when will—disregarding all my various qualifications and disqualifications—Śrīmad Rūpa Prabhu grace me with the dust of his holy lotus feet?

1 Lord Nityānanda’s representation as Ananta Śeṣa posseses unlimited mouths which propagate and glorify Lord Hari’s Holy Names and attributes. Ananta Śeṣa constantly holds the weight of the Earth planet upon His innumerable hoods as if it were an insignificant particle of dust. Ananta Śeṣa serves the Lord in several ways, manifesting Himself as the Lord’s personal umbrella, resting place, and clothing. Let us eternally worship that great personality Śrī Nityānanda-chandra, who freely grants the association of Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, who is none other than Lord Krishna.

2 Lord Nityānanda’s partial manifestation as Kṣīrodakaśāyī Viṣṇu functions as the preservation principle of the entire universal creation, and is localized within every soul (paramātma). Another eminent expansion of Lord Nityānanda is Garbhodaśāyī Viṣṇu, that all-imposing figure whose thousands of heads are eulogized in the Vedic orations. Lord Nityānanda’s presence is further extended in His expansion as Kāraṇodaśāyī Viṣṇu, the supplying principle encompassing unlimited universes. Lord Nityānanda is the master of the Lord of material nature, Kāraṇodaśāyī Viṣṇu, who is the shelter of all living entities. Let us eternally worship that great personality Śrī Nityānanda-chandra, who freely grants the association of Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, who is none other than Lord Krishna.

3 Lord Nityānanda’s presence is further extended within the spiritual abode of Vaikuṇṭha in His partial manifestation known as Saṅkarṣaṇa. In Vaikuṇṭha, Lord Saṅkarṣaṇa performs spiritual Pastimes which are fully transcendental, situated in pure goodness, and all-pleasing to Lord Hari. As mentioned in the revealed scriptures, Lord Nityānanda is the individual temperament of ego existing within the living entity, and He sometimes appears just like an ordinary living entity. Let us eternally worship that great personality Śrī Nityānanda-chandra, who freely grants the association of Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, who is none other than Lord Krishna.

Lord Nityānanda who is the fountainhead of the primary Saṅkarṣaṇa, exists in full splendour separate from the original quadruple expansion, and is known as Mūla Saṅkarṣaṇa. That all-attractive personality, Śrī Saṅkarṣaṇa, performs His wonderful Pastimes in the spiritual realm in the regions known as Mathurā and Dvārakā. The transcendental city of Dvārakā is situated just below the city of Mathurā. It is in these spiritual places that Lord Saṅkarṣaṇa and His associates Anirudhha and Pradyumna exhibit Their particular Pastimes scripturally known as prabhāva-vilāsaḥ. Nityānanda Prabhu in the form of Lord Balarāma is the ultimate source of all incarnations, and sportively plays in the charming village of Vrajapura with His younger brother Lord Krishna. Let us eternally worship that great personality Śrī Nityānanda-chandra, who freely grants the association of Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, who is none other than Lord Krishna.

Pure unalloyed love for Lord Krishna, which is inconceivable to all, embodies the most supreme and intense happiness. When the devotees of the Lord realize the joy of such love, they cast away the innumerable doctrines offered by the Vedas, including the soul’s emancipation. Lord Nityānanda openly bestows pure love, automatically including worship of the non-differentiated Brahman and service offered in Vaikuṇṭha, which is dominated by opulence and grandeur. Let us eternally worship that great personality Śrī Nityānanda-chandra, who freely grants the association of Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, who is none other than Lord Krishna.

When Nityānanda Prabhu was a small boy, He performed sweet and charming Pastimes in the village of Ekachakra. His Pastimes invoked the deepest heartfelt happiness in His mother, father, relatives, and close friends. Once, a renunciate arrived at the house of Nityānanda and prayed to the boy’s father for his son. Lord Nityānanda was placed in the hands of the renunciate and left to visit the holy places of pilgrimage, wandering throughout the length and breadth of India. Let us eternally worship that great personality Śrī Nityānanda-chandra, who freely grants the association of Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, who is none other than Lord Krishna.

Nityānanda travelled from place to place with the crest jewel of the renounced order, Śrī Mādhavendra Purī. In the pure association of Mādhavendra Purī, Lord Nityānanda experienced the most joyful symptoms of ecstasy. After this, the Lord journeyed to Nabadvip, where He eagerly waited for Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu to reveal His benevolent nature to the world. Shortly following Nityānanda’s arrival, Lord Chaitanyadeva Himself, in the company of Śrīnivāsa Paṇḍit and Haridās Ṭhākur, went to the house of Śrī Nandanāchāryya and found Nitāi there. Let us eternally worship that great personality Śrī Nityānanda-chandra, who freely grants the association of Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, who is none other than Lord Krishna.
Nityānanda Prabhu was ordered by the golden moon, Śrīman Mahāprabhu, to deliver the masses by the wide distribution of Lord Krishna’s Holy Names. One evening, Lord Nityānanda encountered those two drunken and sinful brothers, Jagāi and Mādhāi, who were previously brahma-daitya demons of the first order, acting under the devastating spell of Kali-yuga. Suddenly, Nitāi was attacked by Mādhāi, whereupon His body became smeared with blood. In response, Lord Nitāi exhibited deep affection for the welfare of the two brothers and rescued them from their abominable condition. Let us eternally worship that great personality Śrī Nityānanda-chandra, who freely grants the association of Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, who is none other than Lord Krishna.

Lord Gaurāṅga instructed His family members and followers to wear pieces of Lord Nityānanda’s kaupīna respectfully on their bodies. So pure and impeccable is the character of Nitāi that even if He is seen holding the hand of a Yavana’s wife and carrying a bottle of wine, nonetheless He remains supremely worshippable by the great demigods such as Lord Brahmā. Lord Nityānanda is also the desirable object of those exalted devotees who can steal away the heart of the Lord. Let us eternally worship that great personality Śrī Nityānanda-chandra, who freely grants the association of Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, who is none other than Lord Krishna.
Accepting the renounced order of life and distributing the Lord’s Holy Names, Lord Gaurāṅga chased after those souls who had been spoiled by the doctrines of dry argumentative logic and motivated fruitive activity. Like Lord Gaurāṅga’s own shadow, Nitāi Prabhu accompanied the Lord over land and through rivers, waterways, and jungles. In addition, Lord Nityānanda is the desired goal of all Gaurāṅga’s endeavours. Let us eternally worship that grand personality Śrī Nityānanda-chandra, who can freely grant the association of that golden Lord Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, who is none other than Lord Krishna.

Day and night Lord Chaitanya was intoxicated with the intense desire to taste the sweetness of Śrī Rādhikā’s divine love for Krishna. Śrīman Mahāprabhu instructed Lord Nityānanda and His associates to go out and profusely distribute the Holy Names of Lord Krishna. However, Lord Nityānanda instead plentifully distributed Lord Gaurāṅga’s Name, the most precious fortune available to the living entities, with no impediment at all. Let us worship that great personality Śrī Nityānanda-chandra, who freely grants the association of Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva, who is none other than Lord Krishna.

O Nityānanda Prabhu, emperor amidst the personal associates of Śrīman Mahāprabhu! Kindly grant this fallen soul deep and resolute faith in that pure and divine figure of Śrī Gaurāṅga. Lord Gaurāṅga’s personality exclusively embodies the sweet nectar relished deep within the devotional mellows of Śrī Śrī Rādhā-Krishna’s Pastimes. But if Your lotus feet are over-looked, than all so-called devotional orations and prayers meant for the highest worship become false, like a dream. I worship You, that great personality Nityānanda-chandra, who openly bestows shelter to the most fallen souls, freely granting the association of Śrī Gaurāṅgadeva.

2-4 He possesses a lofty, dignified, divinely effulgent, incomparable holy form, so charming to behold. Adorned with Gopīchandan and a necklace of Tulasī beads, he holds the triple staff of the Vaiṣṇava ascetics. Although he possesses the qualification of inconceivable potency, he is full of the utmost affection. All the ten directions are illuminated by the effulgence of his supramundane unalloyed perception. He is the dispenser of the genuine proper harmonious adjustment of all the scriptures - the Vedas, the Vedānta, the Upaniṣads, the Purāṇas, etc. headed by the Śrīmad-Bhāgavata-Purāṇa (Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam) which holds equal importance with the Vedas.

In the necklace of the jewels of Āchāryyas in the Śrī Gauḍiya Sampradāya he shines resplendently like the brilliant Kaustubha gem, and he is radiant in his glory as the Crown-jewel of the bumblebee-devotees who are mad in the Supreme Lord Śrī Chaitanya Mahāprabhu’s love supreme. I eternally offer my obeisances unto him, my Most Worshipful Divine Master.
5-6 By his grace, he brought to full bloom the deepest underlying purport of Gāyatrī, the Mother of the Vedas; by his grace he opened the hidden treasure-house of the glorious internal purport of Śrīmad Bhagavad-gītā - and he distributed these gifts to one and all, even the lowest of the low. He revealed the supreme holy book (Śrī Prapanna-jīvanāṁrtam, which is a treasure of many types of precious gems of holy stanzas (the wealth of holy stanzas compiled from Stotraratna by Śrī Yamunāchārya and many other valuable sources) sung by the Lord and His devotees; he revealed an unprecedented collection of holy books (Search for Śrī Krishna— Reality the Beautiful, Śrī Guru and His Grace, The Golden Volcano of Divine Love, etc.) that are the very life-nectar for the devotee’s hearts and spiritual senses— he gave these gifts to the world. I eternally offer my obeisances unto him, my Most Worshipful Divine Master, the beautiful Deity of mercy incarnate.

In Śrī Nabadvīp Dhām, which is nondifferent from the holy abode of Śrī Vṛndāvan, His Divine Grace established the world-renowned Śrī Chaitanya Sāraswat Maṭh at Śrī Koladwīp, the selfsame ‘Hidden Govardhan Hill’ (Gupta-Govardhan), which is the sacred place where all offenses are absolved (Aparādha-bhaṅjana-pāṭ). There, he revealed the beautiful devotional service of the Worshipful Deities Śrī Śrī Guru-Gaurāṅga-Gāndharvā-Govindasundar, divinely manifesting his very self as the Deity of service in perfection. Eternally do I offer my obeisances unto the holy lotus feet of my Divine Master Śrīla Bhakti Rakṣak Śrīdhar Dev-Goswāmī Mahārāj who carries the divine current of Śrīla Bhakti Siddhānta Saraswatī coming in the line of Śrī Rūpa, the object of Śrī Gaurāṅga Mahāprabhu’s divine affection.

I offer my respects to Swāmī Bhakti Nirmal Āchāryya, who is energetically inspiring all of the Eastern and Western disciples on the path of pure devotion.
Surabhī, the divine cow who appeared from churning the milk ocean, lovingly bathed Brajendra Nandan Krishna with her own milk.

The pond filled with that milk, “Śrī Govinda Kuṇḍa,” graces beautiful Govardhan with exquisite beauty.

The transcendental water of this Kuṇḍa can banish even the greatest sins. The threefold miseries—ādhyātmic, ādhidāvic and ādhibhautic—and all fears of this material world are destroyed by bathing in or drinking this water.
Sometimes, by great fortune, someone will get to taste the water of Govinda Kuṇḍa as that milk, attain a transcendental form, and go to Krishna-loka.

Anyone who bathes in Śrī Govinda Kuṇḍa, desiring to serve Krishna, attains divine service of Śrī Śrī Rādhā-Krishna in Gupta Govardhan (hidden Govardhan).

1 O Fortune-maker! Divine Master! Your unalloyed blissful appearance is eternal. The people of Gauḍa, Rāḍha and all the universe speak of your virtuous and auspicious appearance. Time appears to stand still at your appearance, as the sky is filled with your wonderful qualities. Your manifestation gives joy to all the saintly persons and that joy increases unlimitedly due to the illumination of the Holy Dhām by you, along with your divine associates.

2 Even gods and goddesses are unable to sing your praiseworthy qualities and attributes. Where am I!? A very fallen soul, an unfortunate and tiny living entity. O adorable, venerable Gurudeva! Your blessings and mercy can raise me to sing with expectation, as you are non-different from Birachandra Prabhu.
To observe the people of the universe that are averse to Śrī Hari, the Lord, Śrī Gaurahari mercifully sent you to Śrī Rūpa’s own Gauḍa deśa as their protector and guardian. By the remembrance of your auspicious appearance day we can cut the bondage of Māyā, the nescience of material ignorance.

As the sun eradicates all the darkness of the universe by spreading its rays and shining forth, similarly you are shining and eradicating the darkness of Māyā as the true sun of divine knowledge, full of the all-powerful qualities of Śrī Hari.
5 Oh my Lord! Taking the thunder-like mendicant’s (sannyāsī’s) triple staff (tridanda) and conquering the universe, you travelled from place to place distributing the teachings of Gaurāṅga (Gaura-vāṇī) to please the saddened hearts of the intelligentsia and to destroy the impersonalist conceptions and demoniac ideas that have grown by the influence of the age of Kali.

6 In the rainy season, the clouds filled with water move through the sky with a thunderous sound and shower their rains. Similarly you shower your merciful divine rains as you travel throughout this universe. Your travelling throughout the earth, along with your associates, is like the rumble of thunder as you distribute the glories of Lord Gaurāṅga. Oh my Lord, in this way you eternally shower supremely merciful nectar over all.

7 At Nabadwīp, the manifestation place of Śrī Chaitanya, on the banks of the Ganges River, you built a beautiful hermitage filled with the wealth of the conception of Śrī Gaurachandra, the worship of the youthful son of Braja, Śrī Govindasundar. Oh merciful Lord! Here you adore the saintly devotees and give them joy by perfectly explaining the supreme teachings of Śrī Rūpa, appearing personally to give this merciful current of divinity as his full representative.

8 You are the divine master and protector of all by destroying the philosophy of Charvak Rishi; you are a stone-like weapon to the miscreants of this world; you are like the bright sun to the darkness of Buddhism and you protect the souls of this world from the horrible hole of impersonalist thought (māyāvāda); and you fly the victory flag of Śrī Gaurachandra or you are the victory flag for Śrī Gaurendu (the poet).

9 Oh my Lord! Oh divine guardian of the current of the teachings of Śrī Gaurāṅga coming through Śrīla Saraswati Ṭhākur; who is the protector of pure devotion; who is the dearmost of Śrī Saraswati Ṭhākur;
you are the senior-most sannyasi; you are the great divine master.
Oh my Lord! Today being your advent day this eternal servant of your lotus feets prays to always bathe in the shower of your mercy.

1-2 His two feet resemble fresh petals of a lotus flower and distribute fearless blessings; his divine glowing form puts to shame the glow of gold, and is glorified for its beautiful dancing by all the demigods; his lotus face is so charming it puts to shame the charm of the autumnal moon; his broad forehead is decorated with gopī-chandana tilak; I adore that Śrīdhara-deva Swāmī always.
3-4 He can put to an end our wandering in this material world; he can protect us from fear and death; his beautiful form dressed in saffron robes puts to shame the attraction and taste for mundane beauty; his hands like fresh blossoms distribute bliss; he is mutually beloved of the devotees; his heart is broad and strong; he preaches the glories of Śrī Govardhan; he spreads the sweet aroma of the abode of Śrī Kṛṣṇa; he punishes the deceivers and refutes their faulty conceptions thereby giving pleasure to the devotees and revealing himself as a pre-eminent sannyāsi preacher. I always adore that Śrīdhara-deva Swāmī.

5 He is a death-sentence to arrogant, haughty demons; he is the saviour of everyone in all the three worlds for he distributes the teachings of Śrī Kṛṣṇa; he is pre-eminent amongst the learned, the most supreme merciful shelter, I adore that Śrīdhara-deva until my death.
Śrī Gaurahari-Kusuma-Stavāṣṭakam

Eight Flower Offerings of Praise to Lord Gaurhari
Composed by Śrīla Bhakti Sundar Govinda Dev-Goswāmī Mahārāj

1. The son of Mahārāj Nanda, Svayaṁ-Bhagavān Śrī Kṛṣṇa, is now illustrious in His divine form of Śrī Guru. He is beautiful and highly exalted, bearing His golden Persona. (Or, He is beautiful and highly exalted within the golden land of His divine abode.) He is the eminent lifeboat that rescues the souls of this world. Serve that Lord, Gaurahari, worship Gaurahari.

2. Adorned with the heart and halo of Śrīmatī Rādhārāṇī (Vṛṣabhānu-sutā), having dived deeply into the reality of His own wonderful beauty and sweetness, He is sweetly intoxicated in the perpetual distribution of His own Holy Name. Serve that Lord, Gaurahari, worship Gaurahari.

3. He manifested the full glory of Śrī Nabadwip Dhām, as He appeared in His radiant gold, all-auspicious form of divine ecstasy, ever engaged in Kṛṣṇa-krīttan, which is a festival for the tongue. Serve that Lord, Gaurahari, worship Gaurahari.

4 He gave the spiritually auspicious darśan of His eternal associates to the world (or, He gave His spiritually auspicious darśan to His eternal associates), He drove the masses of people mad with the nectar of His spiritually all-auspicious Name, vanquishing all sins from the core of their hearts. Serve that Lord, Gaurahari, worship Gaurahari.

dhana-māna na vai vanitāṁ kavitāṁ

bhaja gauraharim bhaja gauraharim

5 He incessantly distributed the spiritual fortune of His own divine Name. He did not regard as fruitful the paths of endeavouring for material wealth, lusty material desires or grand material dreams as captured by poetry. He widely made available the fifth end of life which had never been given before in this world, the divine love for Kṛṣṇa found in the Lord’s original divine abode of Goloka Vṛndāvan. Serve that Lord, Gaurahari, worship Gaurahari.

6 He is the great benefactor whose heart is melted with compassion for the fallen and out of that feeling in His heart He accepted the dress of a beggar (the renounced order of life, sannyās). After accepting this dress He took shelter in Nilāchala (Jagannāth Purī). Serve that Lord, Gaurahari, worship Gaurahari.

7 He is the resplendent golden Personality gloried by the Scriptures and saints; He is the greatest distributor of spontaneous loving divine service (pure transcendental attachment and service to the Lord free from all mundanity). He is the Lord whose glories are sung throughout the Scriptures describing transcendental knowledge (Purāṇas), (or, He is the Lord who takes away all apparent discord found within the Purāṇas’ revelation of transcendental knowledge.) Serve that Lord, Gaurahari, worship Gaurahari.

8 He performed greatly maddened dancing and chanting amidst the wonderful sounds of the karatāla and mṛdaṅga as He was shown great affection and honour by the fallen souls. He is the grand abode of divine peace of relief for one and all. Serve that Lord, Gaurahari, worship Gaurahari.
mahā-bhaya śaṅkula e bhava taraṅginī janama-maraṇa mālā-dale niśi-diśi gatāgati kara tāhi jīva-kula mohita mahāmāyā bale

1 Filled with tremendous trepidation (mahā-bhaya), the jīva-souls are carried away by the waves of the ocean of material existence along the chain of birth and death, perpetually coming and going in all directions throughout the darkness of the confines of the illusory environment, captivated by the power of Mahāmāyā.

karabi ki mana abhāgiyā—
bhuvana-mohana-māyā kemane re utarabi labhibi kemane kānaiyā?

2 O Mind! What can you do about my great misfortune? Mahāmāyā bewilders the whole universe, how will you ever overcome her? How will you attain Kānai-lāl—the youthful Kṛṣṇa of Goloka Vṛndāvan?

nija-rūpevitāri’ tri-guṇa-jāle phāda rachi’
tāhi māhe gaṅikā pratiṣṭhā—
kanaka varāṅganā dāniyā āmiṣa sama śāpitechhe kāla-kare dhṛṣṭā

3 In your own form you are trying to cross over the net of the three modes of material nature but in doing so they have bound you in a noose. You have treated Māya like a prostitute. She has been feeding you kanak, kāminī, and pratiṣṭha just like meat and you have become immersed in the darkness of arrogance.
O my mind, your attention is like the wind. Your real wealth will be found at the lotus feet of the all-merciful Lord, so give yourself completely there.

Offer yourself to the lotus feet of the Lord who is the owner and controller of Māyā, taking shelter there in all humility. Do not even dream that without His lotus feet you can properly adjust with the environment or practice spiritual life (dhārma).
I offer my humble obeisances unto His Divine Grace A.C. Bhaktivedānta Swāmī Prabhupāda, who is Kṛṣṇa's beloved associate and who came down to this plane from Goloka. Taking the order of his guru on his head, he is the śaktyāveṣa (empowered) avatār of Nityānanda Prabhu personified. He distributed the Hare Kṛṣṇa mantra all over the Eastern and Western world, delivering and uplifting all fallen souls. He is the best of millions of jagat-gurus, because he is the personification of divine mercy. He has distributed the sweet nectar of Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam and the transcendental knowledge of Bhagavad-gītā all over the world. He is constantly engaged in exclusive devotional service to Śrīla Bhakti Siddhānta Sarasvatī Ṭhākura, Śrīla Rūpa Goswāmī, and Śrī Gaurāṅga Mahāprabhu. I offer my humble obeisances unto Śrīla Prabhupāda, who is like a bumblebee always tasting the nectar of the lotus feet of Śrī Śrī Rādhā and Govinda.
Morning Ārati

Ārati of Śrī Gaṅgadhara Sadāśiva:

- (ohe) vaiṣṇava ṭhākura (90)
- mahāmantra kīrttan

Ārati of Śrī Gupta-Govardhan:

- jaya jaya girirājer ārati viśāla (32)

Śrīla Govinda Mahārāj’s ārati at his Samādhi Mandir:

- jaya jaya gurudever ārati ujjvala (39)

Śrīla Guru Mahārāj’s ārati at his Samādhi Mandir:

- ṭhākura vaiṣṇava-gaṇa (66)

After the bhajans is a reading from Śrī Chaitanya-bhāgavata in Bengali. Closing with the song:

- hari haraye namaḥ kṛṣṇa jādavāya namaḥ (68)

Daily after morning prasādam is a class in English (or Spanish, etc.) held on Śrīla Guru Mahārāj’s Samādhi Mandir.
Midday Ārati and Kīrttan

commences with the offering of bhoga while singing:

- bhaja bhakata-vatsala śrī-gaurahari (71)

Śrīla Govinda Mahārāj’s ārati at his Samādhi Mandir:

- jaya jaya gurudever ārati ujjvala (39)

Followed by Śrīla Guru Mahārāj’s ārati at his Samādhi Mandir:

- jaya ‘guru-mahārāja’ yati rājeśvara (36)

Then ārati of the Deities:

- jaśomatī-nandana braja-baro nāgara (48)
- jay śachīnandana sura-muni-vandana (50)

Before honouring prasādam the devotees chant (except on Ekādaśī days and other days when no grains are taken):

- mahāprasāde govinde (74)
- bhai re! šorīra abidyā-jal (75)

In the afternoon there is a reading from Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam in Bengali.
Evening Ārati:

Ārati of Śrī Gaṅgadhara Sadāśiva:
   · (ohe) vaiṣṇava ṭhākura (90)

Ārati of Śrī Gupta-Govardhan:
